Labor Measure Sent To Senate

House OKs Controls Bill By 303-125

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, in an atmosphere of anticlimax, did the expected Friday and formally passed the labor controls bill endorsed by President Eisenhower.

A roll call vote of 303-125 sent the bill to the senate, which has passed an anticorruption bill of its own but with considerably less stringent provisions.

The action was pretty much automatic, since the issue was decided Thursday night. That was when the House, by a 229-201 vote, substituted the Eisenhower-backed bill for a milder measure supported by Democratic leaders.

Senate In Recess

The Senate was in recess Friday, so it cannot act at least until Monday. The probability is that the two versions will be sent to a Senate-House conference where efforts would be made to work out a compromise. After passing its bill Friday, the House asked for such a conference.

What may happen in conference is anybody's guess. Opponents of the House bill have suggested the possibility of a deadlock and no bill at all this session.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), chief sponsor of the Senate's bill, said Thursday night a compromise might be difficult but that "our responsibility now is to try to try to reach agreement...to get legislation this year."

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD) urged the Senate to accept the stricter House bill without sending it to a conference which he said would only weaken its effectiveness and delay action. If the Senate did take the House bill in place of its own, the measure would go right to the White House.

Hope For Conference

Leaders of organized labor, who regard the House bill as a threat to legitimate unions, are pinning their hopes on the Senate-House conference. They are rooting for a compromise that will eliminate provisions objectionable to them.

On final passage, 156 Democrats and 147 Republicans voted for the coalition bill which was sponsored by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich).

Voting against it were 125 Democrats and 3 Republicans.

Ex-Convict Confesses Three Holdup Deaths

ISLIP, N.Y. (AP) — A hulking ex-convict, confessed holdup slayer of three persons in eight days, said Friday, "If I had had more bullets I would have shot more people."

He is 27-year-old Francis H. Bloeth, described as cold, hard and merciless, a sadist who strangled cats for a thrill in his childhood and who gave his human victims no ghost of a chance before finishing them off.

"It was just another murder," he said of his third killing a week ago, that of the woman owner of an eastern Long Island diner. He tried to strangle her and bemoaned his failure because he had to use his last bullet on her.

"Is there anybody you wouldn't kill?" Bloeth was asked.

"Sure," he replied. "My wife, my mother and my baby."

Even Bloeth's lawyer, Sidney R. Siben, who will attempt to save his life with an insanity plea, was aghast at the brutal tone of his confessions.

"The man must be insane. No normal person could kill and talk about it that way. He shows absolutely no remorse. This was a new kind of expression for him. If he'd had more ammunition, he wouldn't have stopped," Siben said.

Bloeth, who served a prison term for auto theft, has a psychiatric record dating back to childhood.

The director of a correctional institute where he once was confined told of his penchant for strangling cats and added: "It was impossible to do anything with him. He once told us, 'I get a thrill out of killing. I love to strangle.'"

Yet Bloeth was released from confinement, not once but several times. Apparently authorities could not envision the monstrous capabilities attributed to him by the authorities who charged him with the murders.

Bloeth was arrested Monday after another Long Island ex-con-convict tipped police he had sold a .32-caliber revolver and a .32-caliber automatic to the accused slayer. All three holdup victims, slain between July 31 and Aug. 7 in a 30-mile triangle on eastern Long Island, were shot down with .32's as they worked at night in food-dispensing establishments.

Radiation Tried To Combat Fly

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Atomic radiation will be used to try to stamp out the Belgian Congo's dreaded tsetse fly, whose bite causes sleeping sickness, Dr. Maurice Faes, project director, said Friday. Male Tsetse flies will be made sterile by radiation in Brussels laboratories, then released in the Congo. Faes said tests show that female tsetse flies become sterile on contact with sterilized males.

Web-Footed Tribe Of People Found

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — (AP)— The newspaper Die Vaderland reports a Rhodesian mine prospector's claim that he has found a tribe of web-footed people on the Northern Rhodesian-Mozambique border near the Zambezi River. Prospector Tommy Hodges describes them as shy, withdrawn people who wear loin cloths, live on cane rats hunted with small dogs, and have three webbed toes on each foot to help them walk on the soft Zambezi valley mud.

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow radio reported without comment Friday what it said were American reports that a 1,700-pound U.S. satellite has been successfully placed in polar orbit.

Applicants Arrested

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti, (AP) —Twelve applicants at the Haitian Military Academy were arrested this week for presenting academic certificates turned out, police say, by a diploma mill for $20 each.

Little Rock Integration Passes Third Day Quietly

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Four Negroes strolled calmly to and from classes at two high schools Friday as Little Rock ended its third day of integration.

Police kept an eye on the situation, but no protests were heard, no taunts or insults directed at the Negroes.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus indicated Friday, for the first time, that he might use state police and troops if there are further integration disorders. Previously, the governor said emphatically he would never use his powers to enforce integration.

At Hall High School, in a fashionable residential area, three Negro girls entered and left without a sign of resentment. Effie Jones, Estella Thompson and Elsie Robinson were hardly noticed.

The situation was the same at Central, where 16-year-old Jefferson Thomas is the only Negro student.

Faubus told a news conference he had been prepared to send state police and Arkansas National Guardsmen into action Wednesday if local authorities had been unable to quell a segregationist demonstration.

About 200 foes of racial mixing advanced on Central behind flags that day but police broke up the march. Officers used billy clubs on the paraders and turned fire hoses on them. More than a score of arrests were made.

Faubus did not say what kind of future trouble might spur him into ordering out soldiers and state troopers.

Ike Will See Spain Minister During Visit

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower added Spain's foreign minister Friday to the list of dignitaries he will see in Europe.

The minister, Fernando Maria Castiella, will meet with Eisenhower in London Aug. 31. He also will talk with the U.S. secretary of state, Christian A. Herter, on what the White House called matters of mutual interest.

These could include the powerful U. S. air bases in Spain as well as the forthcoming exchange of official visits between Eisenhower and Premier Nikita Khrushchev of the Soviet Union.

The European expedition, on which Eisenhower leaves Aug. 26, will take him to Bonn, London and Paris. In preparation, the President is taking a working vacation here at his country estate, with a maximum of rest, relaxation and golf.

Eisenhower drove to his temporary office at the Hotel Gettysburg shortly after noon Friday to handle paper work and other routine chores brought from Washington by David W. Kendall, special counsel at the White House.

Among the papers the President signed was a bill appropriating $4,016,101,981 to run the Labor and Health, Education and Welfare Departments for the fiscal year which began July 1. Eisenhower approved the measure under protest.

During the work period, an executive order was signed creating a new Cabinet level Federal Radiation Council to help work out rules for protecting the health of the people against radioactive fallout.

Kendall brought along a visitor who left with a job.

That was Philip A. Ray of San Francisco, who was tapped to be the new undersecretary of commerce. A former general counsel of the Commerce Department from 1954 to 1957, Ray will move into the place vacated when Frederick H. Mueller was promoted to secretary.

AF Fails To Find Missile Capsule

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — The Air Force failed Friday in an attempt to score a space-age first by recovering a 300-pound capsule which was ejected from the Discoverer V satellite high over the Pacific.

A Defense Department announcement from Washington said a fleet of ships and planes which was waiting to attempt a fantastic catch of the parachuting capsule failed to pick up the sphere's radio signals or to sight it visually.

It said a search would be continued for the 27 by 33 inch capsule but "there is little hope that the capsule will be found."

The Pentagon blamed the failure on "a malfunction of the sequencing or telemetery signals before or after" the capsule was ejected from the nose cone of the 1,700-pound second stage of the rocket which bore it into space.

A successful recovery would have been a major feat toward insuring the success of man's eventual flight into space. It would have been a first step toward solving the "reentry" problem of bringing a human back into the atmosphere from space without destruction from high speed friction.

One previous recovery try in four earlier Discoverer moon shots also failed. On that occasion, failure of a timing mechanism resulted in the payload package being ejected too soon. It was lost in the north polar region.

The target area for the latest intended recovery was a 10,000 square mile area 700 miles southwest of Hawaii.

The Pentagon said the capsule separated from the satellite at 5:42 p.m. e.d.t.

It was supposed to have emitted a signal which airplanes could "home" on in an attempt to snatch it out of the air as it dangled from a parachute. The catch—and the odds against it were estimated at 1,000 to 1—would have been made in trapeze like "mits" trailing behind one of nine C 119 planes in the area.

Failing an air recovery, ships bearing helicopters and frogmen were ready to try to snatch the capsule from the sea.

Program Aims To Help Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — A U. S. - French military training program goes into operation late this month aimed at helping turn back the Communists in the hills of northern Laos.

Under an agreement signed in mid-July, American and French instructors will start training the 25,000-man Laotian army.

The Americans will deal strictly with the maintenance of U. S. equipment given this tiny country under the foreign aid program. The French, who ran Laos until it became independent in 1954, will stick to military tactics.

With all quiet reported on the Red guerrilla front in the north, the Laotian government demonstrated its dislike of communism Friday with a rally.

About 6,000 persons marched through the streets of Vientiane chanting, waving banners and protesting the Red infiltration.

Premier Phou Sananikone told the demonstrators the two neighboring states, Red China and North Viet Nam, are trying to turn Laos Red, too.

Locusts Plague

TOKYO (AP)—Parts of northern and eastern China are plagued with locusts that have damaged more than two million acres of farmlands, Peiping radio said Friday.

Skipjack Sets New Speed And Depth Records

PORTLAND, England (AP) — The Skipjack, America's newest nuclear submarine, arrived Friday after a transatlantic crossing that was said to have set new marks for speed and depth.

The report on the sub's performance on the training cruise was made by Cmdr. W. W. Behrens. He said she "went faster than any other submarine has gone submerged and went deeper than any other sub."

But how fast or how deep the Skipjack traveled was not disclosed by the 37-year-old Behrens.

Murphy Is Sworn In As Undersecretary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert Murphy, a veteran of 39 years in the foreign service, took the oath Friday as undersecretary of state for political affairs.

Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon, told Murphy after the ceremony his appointment was "overdue recognition" for the foreign service.

Murphy, 64, said he hoped the department had arrived "at a tradition that we may follow in the future" — giving career officials top department posts.

Vandal Given 10 Years For Museum Fire

18-Year-Old Youth Sent Literature Into Little Rock

COLUMBUS, Ga. (UPI) — A judge sentenced a frail teen-age "Hitler-worshipper" to a maximum six to 10 years prison term Friday for smearing swastikas on synagogues and starting a $30,000 museum fire.

Richard Vernon Smith Jr., who envisions himself as a Nazi "superman" and calls himself "Victor Schmidt," pleaded guilty to two charges of arson and two charges of malicious mischief.

It was disclosed the 18-year-old youth had accepted $9 from an Atlanta "hate organization" for bundling and distributing literature which later was mailed to Little Rock, Ark., scene of school integration violence.

Police said the boy confessed smearing swastikas in yellow paint on two Jewish synagogues on two nights and, on the night of July 18, making a bonfire of 160 paintings on the second floor of the museum of arts and crafts here.

Hates Negroes, Jews

Police, in announcing young Smith's confession 56 hours after the blaze, described the boy as a "hater of Negroes and Jews and a follower of the Nazi beliefs of Adolf Hitler."

Judge Hubert Calhoun, in passing sentence, advised the boy to "forget the tommyrot about Jews" that he had been reading while working as a library page here and previously in Decatur, Ga., a suburb of Atlanta.

A detective said Smith admitted having placed "hate literature" inside books of the Decatur Library. He left his family in Atlanta and moved here after being expelled from Atlanta schools for rebelling against compulsory ROTC.

The boy became associated with a "white supremacy" organization while in Atlanta and its members would not "leave him alone" after he moved to Columbus, defense attorney Ernest Britton said.

Smith told a United Press International reporter in the only news interview granted since his arrest that an Atlanta detective convinced him the organization had Communistic leanings—opposed to Smith's Nazi beliefs.

Has Average Up Bringing

Britton said the boy, reared in an average American home under normal circumstances, became a "thorn in the flesh" of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith Sr., of Atlanta.

The judge criticized Smith's parents for not cooperating with school and juvenile authorities when their eldest son's "rebelliousness" began getting him into various minor troubles more than two year ago.

A psychiatrist at that time said Smith needed mental treatment. The parents said they were helpless to influence the boy. The boy himself told a UPI reporter he intentionally gave the psychiatrist "all the wrong answers."

Castro Troops Use Ruse To Capture Plane

CIENFUEGOS, Cuba (AP) — Some of Fidel Castro's troops lured an arms-laden plane from the Dominican Republic to land at Trinidad by posing as anti-Castro conspirators and then trapped it with gunfire, military authorities said Friday.

The Cuban-manned twin-engine C46 and its cargo of weapons and ammunition were seized in a battle Thursday night that saw two men killed on each side and all the plane's nine surviving crewmen captured.

Castro saw the trap sprung.

He returned to Havana to tell the nation more about the conspiracy Friday night by radio and television.

An army announcement in Havana and statements by officials in Cienfuegos, a south coast naval headquarters 40 miles west of Trinidad, gave this account of the operation:

Castro's followers had put on a fantastic show to convince advance scouts that Trinidad airfield was in the hands of participants in a vast conspiracy against the Prime Minister.

Maj. William Morgan of Toledo, Ohio, a rebel officer who pretended to join the conspiracy, sent out an appeal for arms.

In response, a high Dominican official flew to Trindad Wednesday from Ciudad Trujillo, the seat of Dominican Dictator Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo.

Morgan told the visitor his men held the airfield and the town of Trinidad, a farming and commercial center. The show was so convincing the Dominican officer returned and arranged to send the arms plane.

The job of flying in the arms plane went to Lt. Col. Antonio Soto, who ferried ex-Dictator Fulgencio Batista into exile in the Dominican Republic last New Year's Day.

But then, for an unexplained reason, some of the invaders became suspicious. They sounded an alarm and attempted to reboard the plane and take off. That set off the shooting.

Soto was wounded severely.

His co-pilot, Capt. Carlos Valls, and Capt. Francisco Betancourt, who served in Batista's army, were killed. The others were captured unhurt.

Steel Strike Is Unchanged

NEW YORK (AP) — A nationwide strike of 500,000 Steelworkers was a month old Friday, with no visible sign of a break in the bitter deadlock. Production and wage losses neared the 1½-billion-dollar mark.

"Zero this week for sure," was the report on negotiations from Joseph F. Finnegan, chief federal mediator who has kept peace talks going all week.

He added the entire week was devoted to working through the contract, clause by clause, paragraph by paragraph, getting the wording in order. But as yet untouched were the real factors in the strike—wages and fringe benefits demanded by the United Steelworkers.

Negotiations are scheduled to resume Monday.

More than 107,000 employes of allied companies — railroads, truckers, shippers, mines — have been idled by the strike that began at midnight July 14.

The Steelworkers are asking a 15-cent-an-hour wage and benefit increase atop prestrike earnings that averaged $3.11 an hour. Management claims the demands would force a price increase in steel and result in further inflation of the nation's economy.

U.S. Sphere Inflates As Scheduled

Must Circle Earth Twice Before Orbit Can Be Determined

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The inflatable 12-foot sphere launched at Cape Canaveral Friday apparently failed to go into orbit.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The United States launched a 12-foot balloon satellite Friday and announced more than an hour later that it had inflated successfully and was whirling about in space.

However, a National Aeronautics and Space Administration official said it would not be known whether the satellite had orbited until several hours after the 7:30 p.m. EST launching.

This announcement will be made by NASA in Washington.

The official said the balloon would have to circle the earth twice before orbit can be definitely determined.

Dr. Kurt Debus, director of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency's firing laboratory, told reporters that the sphere inflated as scheduled 15 minutes after launching and was sighted visually by a tracking station at Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

He said radio signals afforded no information of a possible orbital path.

Launched At 7:31

The 76-foot Juno II was launched at 7:31 p.m., EST.

The giant rocket rose from a mass of boiling flame and climbed straight into the darkening sky for nearly a minute before curving toward the northeast.

A brilliant trail of flame traced the rocket's course as it streaked rapidly from sight, losing itself among the stars.

If all went right all three stages would ignite in about 11 minutes and the sphere would be shot into space to inflate.

The shot climaxed the busiest day in Cape Canaveral's history.

Earlier, an intercontinental range Titan exploded on its pad, a Navy polaris submarine missile made its first flight from an underground ship motion simulator, and an intermediate range Thor missile went up with movie cameras to photograph the earth from space.

The satellite launching was dubbed Project Beacon. The national aeronautics and space administration was to announce in Washington in about two hours whether this latest U.S. space bid was successful.

Third In 8 Days

If so it would be the third satellite sent aloft by this country in eight days.

Last Friday a Thor-Able rocket fired from the Cape boosted a 142-pound "paddlewheel" satellite into orbit to probe many of the mysteries of space.

Thursday, Discoverer V, weighing 1,700 pounds, was launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. An attempt to recover a nose capsule ejected from it Friday apparently failed.

The big inflatable balloon launched Friday night would dwarf both in size, but it is a lightweight at 10.2 pounds. It is made of a tough plastic called Mylar with a thin coat of aluminum on the inside and outside.

Hagerty Begins Work On Details Of Ike's Visit

LONDON (AP)—James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, arrived Friday night with a planeload of presidential aides and security officers to work out details of President Eisenhower's visit to London.

They are joining their British counterparts in arranging a program.

Questioned by British newsmen, Hagerty stressed that the President is in the best of health and looking forward to his trip to European capitals in advance of his exchange visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in the fallk.

"Is he completely recovered?" a British newsman asked.

"Recovered?" said Hagerty. "Its been a long time since he was sick. The President is feeling just fine."

To another questioner he strongly defended the President's method of conducting news conferences.

The newsman implied that some of Eisenhower's news conference statements are unclear and uninformative.

Hagerty said: "I am quite sure that the President has given much more information and much more feeling of his philosopy—what he is thinking about—than any president before."

Hagerty ducked a question about arrangements for the President to meet Spanish Foreign Minister Fernando Maria Castiella on his London visit.

Unofficial British sources said that Friday's White House announcement of this meeting caught the British by surprise and that arrangements for it had been made without consulting them.

Hagerty, who spent a fast few days in Paris and Bonn was possibly out of touch with this development.

He said: "I can't say. I'm just ducking this question."

On most other aspects of Eisenhower's visit he was equally uncommunicative.

No concrete statement could be made, he said, until after his talks with British officials.

A Defense Department announcement from Washington said a fleet of ships and planes which was waiting to attempt a fantastic catch of the parachuting capsule failed to pick up the sphere's radio signals or to sight it visually.

It said a search would be continued for the 27 by 33 inch capsule but "there is little hope that the capsule will be found."

The Pentagon blamed the failure on "a malfunction of the sequencing or telemetery signals before or after" the capsule was ejected from the nose cone of the 1,700-pound second stage of the rocket which bore it into space.

A successful recovery would have been a major feat toward insuring the success of man's eventual flight into space. It would have been a first step toward solving the "reentry" problem of bringing a human back into the atmosphere from space without destruction from high speed friction.

One previous recovery try in four earlier Discoverer moon shots also failed. On that occasion, failure of a timing mechanism resulted in the payload package being ejected too soon. It was lost in the north polar region.

The target area for the latest intended recovery was a 10,000 square mile area 700 miles southwest of Hawaii.

The Pentagon said the capsule separated from the satellite at 5:42 p.m. e.d.t.

It was supposed to have emitted a signal which airplanes could "home" on in an attempt to snatch it out of the air as it dangled from a parachute. The catch—and the odds against it were estimated at 1,000 to 1—would have been made in trapeze like "mits" trailing behind one of nine C 119 planes in the area.

Failing an air recovery, ships bearing helicopters and frogmen were ready to try to snatch the capsule from the sea.

Program Aims To Help Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — A U. S. - French military training program goes into operation late this month aimed at helping turn back the Communists in the hills of northern Laos.

Under an agreement signed in mid-July, American and French instructors will start training the 25,000-man Laotian army.

The Americans will deal strictly with the maintenance of U. S. equipment given this tiny country under the foreign aid program. The French, who ran Laos until it became independent in 1954, will stick to military tactics.

With all quiet reported on the Red guerrilla front in the north, the Laotian government demonstrated its dislike of communism Friday with a rally.

About 6,000 persons marched through the streets of Vientiane chanting, waving banners and protesting the Red infiltration.

Premier Phou Sananikone told the demonstrators the two neighboring states, Red China and North Viet Nam, are trying to turn Laos Red, too.

Locusts Plague

TOKYO (AP)—Parts of northern and eastern China are plagued with locusts that have damaged more than two million acres of farmlands, Peiping radio said Friday.

Skipjack Sets New Speed And Depth Records

PORTLAND, England (AP) — The Skipjack, America's newest nuclear submarine, arrived Friday after a transatlantic crossing that was said to have set new marks for speed and depth.

The report on the sub's performance on the training cruise was made by Cmdr. W. W. Behrens. He said she "went faster than any other submarine has gone submerged and went deeper than any other sub."

But how fast or how deep the Skipjack traveled was not disclosed by the 37-year-old Behrens.

Murphy Is Sworn In As Undersecretary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert Murphy, a veteran of 39 years in the foreign service, took the oath Friday as undersecretary of state for political affairs.

Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon, told Murphy after the ceremony his appointment was "overdue recognition" for the foreign service.

Murphy, 64, said he hoped the department had arrived "at a tradition that we may follow in the future" — giving career officials top department posts.

Vandal Given 10 Years For Museum Fire

18-Year-Old Youth Sent Literature Into Little Rock

COLUMBUS, Ga. (UPI) — A judge sentenced a frail teen-age "Hitler-worshipper" to a maximum six to 10 years prison term Friday for smearing swastikas on synagogues and starting a $30,000 museum fire.

Richard Vernon Smith Jr., who envisions himself as a Nazi "superman" and calls himself "Victor Schmidt," pleaded guilty to two charges of arson and two charges of malicious mischief.

It was disclosed the 18-year-old youth had accepted $9 from an Atlanta "hate organization" for bundling and distributing literature which later was mailed to Little Rock, Ark., scene of school integration violence.

Police said the boy confessed smearing swastikas in yellow paint on two Jewish synagogues on two nights and, on the night of July 18, making a bonfire of 160 paintings on the second floor of the museum of arts and crafts here.

Hates Negroes, Jews

Police, in announcing young Smith's confession 56 hours after the blaze, described the boy as a "hater of Negroes and Jews and a follower of the Nazi beliefs of Adolf Hitler."

Judge Hubert Calhoun, in passing sentence, advised the boy to "forget the tommyrot about Jews" that he had been reading while working as a library page here and previously in Decatur, Ga., a suburb of Atlanta.

A detective said Smith admitted having placed "hate literature" inside books of the Decatur Library. He left his family in Atlanta and moved here after being expelled from Atlanta schools for rebelling against compulsory ROTC.

The boy became associated with a "white supremacy" organization while in Atlanta and its members would not "leave him alone" after he moved to Columbus, defense attorney Ernest Britton said.

Smith told a United Press International reporter in the only news interview granted since his arrest that an Atlanta detective convinced him the organization had Communistic leanings—opposed to Smith's Nazi beliefs.

Has Average Up Bringing

Britton said the boy, reared in an average American home under normal circumstances, became a "thorn in the flesh" of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith Sr., of Atlanta.

The judge criticized Smith's parents for not cooperating with school and juvenile authorities when their eldest son's "rebelliousness" began getting him into various minor troubles more than two year ago.

A psychiatrist at that time said Smith needed mental treatment. The parents said they were helpless to influence the boy. The boy himself told a UPI reporter he intentionally gave the psychiatrist "all the wrong answers."

Steel Strike Is Unchanged

NEW YORK (AP) — A nationwide strike of 500,000 Steelworkers was a month old Friday, with no visible sign of a break in the bitter deadlock. Production and wage losses neared the 1½-billion-dollar mark.

"Zero this week for sure," was the report on negotiations from Joseph F. Finnegan, chief federal mediator who has kept peace talks going all week.

He added the entire week was devoted to working through the contract, clause by clause, paragraph by paragraph, getting the wording in order. But as yet untouched were the real factors in the strike—wages and fringe benefits demanded by the United Steelworkers.

Negotiations are scheduled to resume Monday.

More than 107,000 employes of allied companies' — railroads, truckers, shippers, mines — have been idled by the strike that began at midnight July 14.

The Steelworkers are asking a 15-cent-an-hour wage and benefit increase atop prestrike earnings that averaged $3.11 an hour. Management claims the demands would force a price increase in steel and result in further inflation of the nation's economy.

ARRAIGNED — Francis H. Bloeth yesterday was arraigned in Islip, N. Y., for three brutal Long Island robbery slayings. He later was taken to Suffolk County Jail at Riverhead, N. Y., where police said he admitted the shootings. (AP Photofax)

Castro Troops Use Ruse To Capture Plane

CIENFUEGOS, Cuba (AP) — Some of Fidel Castro's troops lured an arms-laden plane from the Dominican Republic to land at Trinidad by posing as anti-Castro conspirators and then trapped it with gunfire, military authorities said Friday.

The Cuban-manned twin-engine C46 and its cargo of weapons and ammunition were seized in a battle Thursday night that saw two men killed on each side and all the plane's nine surviving crewmen captured.

Castro saw the trap sprung.

He returned to Havana to tell the nation more about the conspiracy Friday night by radio and television.

An army announcement in Havana and statements by officials in Cienfuegos, a south coast naval headquarters 40 miles west of Trinidad, gave this account of the operation:

Castro's followers had put on a fantastic show to convince advance scouts that Trinidad airfield was in the hands of participants in a vast conspiracy against the Prime Minister.

Maj. William Morgan of Toledo, Ohio, a rebel officer who pretended to join the conspiracy, sent out an appeal for arms.

In response, a high Dominican official flew to Trindad Wednesday from Ciudad Trujillo, the seat of Dominican Dictator Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo.

Morgan told the visitor his men held the airfield and the town of Trinidad, a farming and commercial center. The show was so convincing the Dominican officer returned and arranged to send the arms plane.

The job of flying in the arms plane went to Lt. Col. Antonio Soto, who ferried ex-Dictator Fulgencio Batista into exile in the Dominican Republic last New Year's Day.

But then, for an unexplained reason, some of the invaders became suspicious. They sounded an alarm and attempted to reboard the plane and take off. That set off the shooting.

Soto was wounded severely.

His co-pilot, Capt. Carlos Valls, and Capt. Francisco Betancourt, who served in Batista's army, were killed. The others were captured unhurt.

U.S. Sphere Inflates As Scheduled

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The inflatable 12-foot sphere launched at Cape Canaveral Friday apparently failed to go into orbit.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The United States launched a 12-foot balloon satellite Friday and announced more than an hour later that it had inflated successfully and was whirling about in space.

However, a National Aeronautics and Space Administration official said it would not be known whether the satellite had orbited until several hours after the 7:30 p.m. EST launching.

This announcement will be made by NASA in Washington.

The official said the balloon would have to circle the earth twice before orbit can be definitely determined.

Dr. Kurt Debus, director of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency's firing laboratory, told reporters that the sphere inflated as scheduled 15 minutes after launching and was sighted visually by a tracking station at Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

He said radio signals afforded no information of a possible orbital path.

Launched At 7:31

The 76-foot Juno II was launched at 7:31 p.m., EST.

The giant rocket rose from a mass of boiling flame and climbed straight into the darkening sky for nearly a minute before curving toward the northeast.

A brilliant trail of flame traced the rocket's course as it streaked rapidly from sight, losing itself among the stars.

If all went right all three stages would ignite in about 11 minutes and the sphere would be shot into space to inflate.

The shot climaxed the busiest day in Cape Canaveral's history.

Earlier, an intercontinental range Titan exploded on its pad, a Navy polaris submarine missile made its first flight from an underground ship motion simulator, and an intermediate range Thor missile went up with movie cameras to photograph the earth from space.

The satellite launching was dubbed Project Beacon. The national aeronautics and space administration was to announce in Washington in about two hours whether this latest U.S. space bid was successful.

Third In 8 Days

If so it would be the third satellite sent aloft by this country in eight days.

Last Friday a Thor-Able rocket fired from the Cape boosted a 142-pound "paddlewheel" satellite into orbit to probe many of the mysteries of space.

Thursday, Discoverer V, weighing 1,700 pounds, was launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. An attempt to recover a nose capsule ejected from it Friday apparently failed.

The big inflatable balloon launched Friday night would dwarf both in size, but it is a lightweight at 10.2 pounds. It is made of a tough plastic called Mylar with a thin coat of aluminum on the inside and outside.

Hagerty Begins Work On Details Of Ike's Visit

LONDON (AP)—James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, arrived Friday night with a planeload of presidential aides and security officers to work out details of President Eisenhower's visit to London.

They are joining their British counterparts in arranging a program.

Questioned by British newsmen, Hagerty stressed that the President is in the best of health and looking forward to his trip to European capitals in advance of his exchange visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in the fallk.

"Is he completely recovered?" a British newsman asked.

"Recovered?" said Hagerty. "Its been a long time since he was sick. The President is feeling just fine."

To another questioner he strongly defended the President's method of conducting news conferences.

The newsman implied that some of Eisenhower's news conference statements are unclear and uninformative.

Hagerty said: "I am quite sure that the President has given much more information and much more feeling of his philosopy—what he is thinking about—than any president before."

Hagerty ducked a question about arrangements for the President to meet Spanish Foreign Minister Fernando Maria Castiella on his London visit.

Unofficial British sources said that Friday's White House announcement of this meeting caught the British by surprise and that arrangements for it had been made without consulting them.

Hagerty, who spent a fast few days in Paris and Bonn was possibly out of touch with this development.

He said: "I can't say. I'm just ducking this question."

On most other aspects of Eisenhower's visit he was equally uncommunicative.

No concrete statement could be made, he said, until after his talks with British officials.

Two Hoodlums Are Slain In Gangland Style

CHICAGO (UPI)—Two hoodlums were gunned to death within 90 minutes on Chicago's West Side Friday and police said at least one of the executions was probably a crime syndicate "rubout."

Two masked men poured five shots into the head and shoulders of John Miraglia, 42, as he sat in a bar at 3:45 a.m. e.d.t. chatting with an off-duty waitress.

Ninety minutes earlier and only three miles away, Edward Kochanski, 41, had been killed with five shots in the head. A neighbor found his body, stripped of its shoes and pants, lying in a pool of blood in an alley.

The witness said he heard shots and saw a car containing two men speed from the alley. Police, trying to discover whether there was a link between the slayings, said the murder bullets in both cases appeared to come from a .38-caliber gun. Ballistics tests were ordered to determine whether the death weapons were the same.

Detective Frank Kaske said the murder of Miraglia, a veteran strongarm man and burglar with crime syndicate connections, "looks like another rubout, a revenge killing."

Authorities recalled that Miraglia was a close associate of murdered mobster Paul (Needle Nose) Labriola. The strangled bodies of Labriola and another racketeer, James Weinberg, were found on March 15, 1954, in the trunk of an abandoned car.

It was believed at the time that the syndicate bosses had ordered the execution of Labriola and Weinberg because they were becoming too ambitious in their shakedowns of Chicago tavern owners.

Kochanski's killing bore some of the earmarks of a robbery. He had been slugged on the head as well as shot and his pockets had been emptied. However, the multiple shots in the head and the speeding getaway car also had the trade mark of a professional gang execution.

Although both men lived in the underworld, Miraglia had made the bigger mark. Accused of a dance hall killing when he was 19, he had beaten the rap. Although he was picked up by police 25 times in his career he went to jail only once—for 18 months in the Terre Haute, Ind., Federal Prison for interstate shipment of stolen goods.

Kochanski's only record was for a 1957 arrest in suburban Cicero on charges of trying to kill his girl friend and himself. His activities just before his death were unknown, although he lived next door to a saloon where deputies staged a big gambling raid this week.

Fugitive Held On Check Charge

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—A police magistrate ordered Thomas O. Brown, 25, a fugitive from an Ohio prison farm, held for the grand jury on three charges of passing worthless checks.

Brown, Casstown RD1, was arrested by police of suburban Brentwood last Wednesday when he attempted to cash a check in a store on a Dayton, Ohio, bank. A store employe who formerly lived in Dayton realized the bank was non-existent.

Following Brown's arrest, investigation showed that he had passed checks totaling $275 at Pittsburgh hotels and a store by posing as Dr. Thomas Brumbaugh, of Waynesburg, Pa.

Police said Brown escaped recently from a prison farm at Junction City, Ohio, where he was serving a term for forgery.

Two Men Adrift In Motor Boat Are Rescued

COVE POINT, Md. (AP) — Two Baltimore men who drifted for three hours in an outboard motor boat were rescued Friday by a freighter headed for Newport News, Va.

The men were identified by two companions who were ashore at the time as Douglas Swartz and Paul Branic, both in their 30s.

The men were surf-casting in the 12-foot boat off this Calvert County community when the 2-horsepower motor failed. The small boat drifted with a strong tide until the S. S. Arlington, an 11,000-ton freighter, spotted them and brought them aboard.

The ship radioed the Coast Guard that both men were in good condition and would be placed ashore in Newport News unless a cutter would transport them to a port closer to Maryland.

State Jobless Receive Aid

BALTIMORE (AP) — A temporary federal program of jobless benefits, for persons who had exhausted their regular state payments, meant more than 12 million dollars to Maryland's unemployed.

The Department of Employment Security said Friday that the program which expired last month resulted in payments of $12,197,572 to jobless Marylanders and cost $344,007 to administer through June 30.

The federal program began June 19 a year ago and ended last July 6. It tacked 13 weeks of benefits onto Maryland's usual maximum of 26 weeks. Payments went to 37,873 persons.

Robert B. Kimble, executive director of DES, said the federal government provided Maryland with both benefit and administrative costs on a loan basis. It must be repaid by Maryland employers, he said, unless the money is restored to the federal treasury by some other means by Dec. 1, 1963.

Kimble said repaying the money would not boost Maryland Jemployment Insurance taxes but could increase the rate of the Federal Unemployment Tax.

Maryland employers with four or more workers pay the federal tax—three-tenths of 1 per cent of the first $3,000 in gross wages paid each employe in a calendar year.

If states repay the money, Kimble said, the rate would go to four and one-half tenths for 1963 and six-tenths for 1964 and succeeding years.

Negroes Register At Front Royal

FRONT ROYAL, Va. (AP) — Integration of Warren County High School appeared inevitable Friday with the registration of 20 white teenagers — along with two Negroes — for the 1959-60 term.

These are the first white pupils to register at the school since last September when a Federal judge ordered the school integrated.

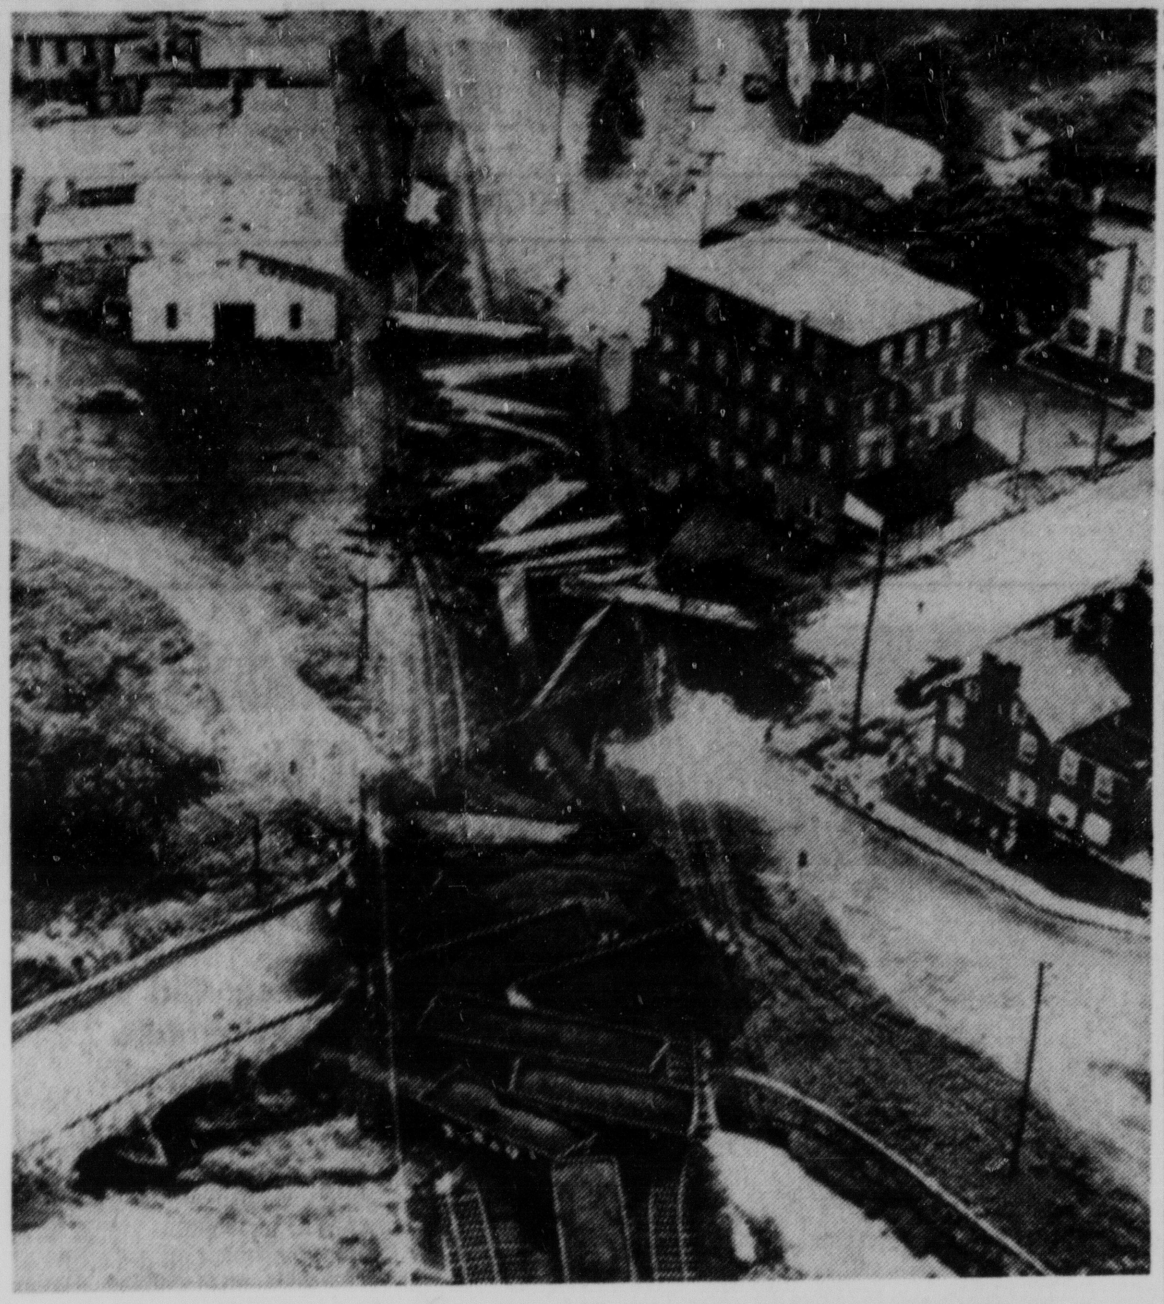
Many of the white registrants attended private classes last year which were set up to accommodate the nearly 1,000 students who had previously attended the all-white public school.

The school operated last year with only 20 Negroes sprinkled throughout the classrooms.

Friday was the start of a three-day enrollment period.

A-Power Station

MOSCOW (AP) — Construction is well under way on an experimental atomic power station at Voronezh on the Don River, the Soviet press reported Friday. The report said the station's capacity will be 210,000 kilowatts. There were no hints of when it would start operating.



WRECK BLOCKS WAY — A wreck of 32 coal-filled hopper cars blocks the Reading Railroad lines at Macungie, Pa., near Allentown, yesterday, as well as detouring auto traffic on the town's main street. The train was derailed while heading east from Harrisburg. No one was injured. (AP Photofax)

Hazel Given Death In Rape Of Housewife

BALTIMORE (AP) — Clifford Earl Hazel, convicted by a three-judge court of raping a pregnant Baltimore housewife, was sentenced Friday to die in the electric chair.

The 25-year-old Negro painter remained calm as sentence was handed down in Criminal Court. But his mother and expectant wife ran screaming from the room, one of them crying, "Lord have mercy!"

The case will be reviewed automatically by the Maryland Court of Appeals, routine in death sentences. The high court, however, rules only on points of law, and can only order a retrial, not modify the lower court ruling.

The housewife, mother of three children, testified during the two and a half day trial that Hazel entered her home, clamped his arm around her neck and threatened to shoot her baby unless he was given money and jewelry. Then he raped her while one of the children played just a few feet away.

When he was arrested a month later, Hazel contended that the woman had led him on and submitted willingly.

Psychiatrists agreed that Hazel was sane at the time of the offense and was sane now.

Hearing the case without a jury were Judges John T. Tucker, Anselm Sodaro and Joseph L. Carter.

Man Is Killed On Train Tracks

HYATTSVILLE, Md. (AP) — John Jacob Butler, father of six children, was decapitated last night as he walked along some freight tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

The mangled body was found shortly before midnight near a railroad trestle. Butler's wife said he used that stretch of track to walk home each night from Bladensburg. Butler, 33, was a truck driver.

Crated-Up Cop Catches Teen Gang In Act

DAMASCUS, Md. (AP)—A half dozen teen - agers were startled Friday when a policeman popped out of a crate they were about to dump from a truck.

Pvt. Harry Ward of the Montgomery County police was hiding in the refrigerator crate—fellow officers had nailed it shut lightly—to check on complaints that hot-rod operators were disturbing the neighborhood.

About midnight a group gathered in a parking lot not far from the truck that held the crate that held Ward. But instead of gunning their motors or facing along the street, the youths decided to topple the crate from the truck.

However, just as they were warming up to their work Ward made his appearance. Six were arrested, one of them a juvenile.

Bank Loot Turns Up

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The FBI broadcast an alarm in the Pittsburgh district Friday for a gunman who abducted a bank messenger and her police escort at Niles, Ohio, last month and escaped with $41,000.

The FBI said a $50 bill believed to be part of the loot turned up at the South Side office of Mellon National Bank and Trust Co. and an automobile bearing a stolen Ohio license plate was seen in the vicinity.

Two men were reported in the car and it was believed they might be armed and dangerous.

The robbery occurred last July 16. As Niles Patrolman Anthony Marsico, 34, was picking up bank teller Judy Whitney, 21, at the Niles Bank Co. in a police cruiser to deliver the money to the McKinley Savings and Loan Assn., the gunman forced his way into the car.

The bandit forced Marsico to drive to a park on the outskirts of the city where he handcuffed the officer and teller to the steering wheel and fled with the money.

Man Bludgeons, Shoots His Wife Then Kills Self

FREDERICK (AP) — An unemployed construction worker bludgeoned his wife with a club Friday, then shot her twice with a revolver and finally slashed her with a machete.

William Henry Scott, 59, and his 61-year-old wife, Mrs. Alma Stine Scott, died shortly after they were taken to Frederick Memorial Hospital.

City and State Police were summoned to the Scott home by someone who erroneously reported that a man had gone berserk and was shooting at motorists.

More than a score of officers found Mrs. Scott lying slashed, beaten and shot in front of the home on the western edge of town. They found the husband lying in a nearby cornfield.

Police were unable to say what caused Scott to attack his wife.

A truck driver said he and two other men were driving in his truck when they saw scott beating his wife alongside the road.

The driver, Merhl Wise, told police he and his two companions tried to go to the assistance of Mrs. Scott but were stopped in tracks when Scott pointed his gun at them and fired once. Wise said the shot was wild.

He said Scott beat his wife with what appeared to be an ax handle, then shot her with his gun. A few minutes later, he said, Scott returned with a long knife and slashed his wife. Then he ran into the cornfield and shot himself.

BILBAO, Spain (AP)—A loaded two-deck bus skidded on a wet road and plunged into the Ibaizabal River Friday, killing at least 8 persons and injuring 28 others.

State To Start Planning Work On Highways

BALTIMORE (AP) — A House committee approval of financing for the Interstate Highway Program means that Maryland will begin planning next week for its 1960 work on the system.

Chairman John B. Funk of the State Roads Commission said Friday that if the committee proposal becomes law Maryland would receive a total of 135 million dollars during a three-year period beginning in 1961.

Maryland, like other states, has been marking time for months on interstate construction work since Congress voted a speed-up in the work, as an anti-recession measure, and this exhausted the interstate highway fund.

Thursday, the House Ways and Means Committee broke a long deadlock over revenue sources by boosting the federal gasoline tax from three to four cents a gallon for the next 22 months.

It also voted to divert to the highway fund some of the taxes now collected on automobiles and auto accessories.

"As a result of the Ways and Means Committee action," Funk's statement said, "I am directing that meetings of the State Roads Commission' staff shall start beginning early next week to discuss immediate programming of work for 1960 as well as projecting the program for 1961-62.

"If the proposal becomes law, it means that Maryland would receive 40½ million dollars in 1961 interstate money, $24,300,000 to the state system and $16,200,000 to Baltimore; a total of 45 million dollars in 1962, 27 million dollars for the state system and 18 million dollars to Baltimore, and 49½ million dollars in 1963 interstate funds, $29,700,000 to the state system and $19,800,000 to the city."

If Congress passes the measure and the President signs it, Funk said, Maryland could "move ahead with a substantial amount of its planned 1960 highway program for projects that would have been deferred" if a financing bill hadn't been passed this year.

"Specifically," he said, "it allows the State Roads Commission to proceed with approximately 37 million dollars in work on the interstate system and approximately 10 million dollars in federal aid for primary urban and secondary roads which, with state funds now available, bring the total amount for work to 88 million dollars."

Baltimore City also can go ahead with 19 million dollars worth of its interstate projects.

As to the bill becoming law, Funk said:

"One immediate effect of such legislation would be to free approximately six million dollars of the eight million dollars in state funds that Maryland would have been forced, under wise financial practice, to hold back so that full payment could be made on the federal share of projects in progress at June 30, 1959."

Nixon Says Khrush Thinks U.S. Sinking Economically

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Friday Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev believes the United States is weak, sinking economically and split over foreign policy.

Nixon said Khrushchev's forthcoming visit to the United States will be worthwhile if it removes "his miscalculation" about U.S. strength and determination. The net effect, Nixon added, could advance the cause of peace.

The vice president spoke on a television program recorded for New York stations in advance of his current trip to Chicago. He appeared with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY).

Nixon said he does not expect Khrushchev to be converted from his communistic views by conferences with President Eisenhower or his tour of this country.

But based on the conversations he had with the Soviet leader in Moscow, Nixon said he feels Khrushchev believes "that the United States is weak, that we're on the way downhill economically, that our people are divided and do not support the President in the firm stand he has taken in the field of foreign policy."

Citing a Russian proverb: "To see once is better than hearing a hundred times," Nixon added: "I think he has got to see it—the United States, not that this is going to convert him. He will not admit he has changed his views, but I do feel that it can have a salutary effect in removing his miscalculations about U.S. strength and, more important than that, about U.S. will and determination."

Nixon said Eisenhower in his conferences with the Soviet Premier will have the opportunity to drive home that while the American people want peace "we are not people who want peace so much that we are going to be afraid to stand for our rights and the rights of our friends and allies around the world."

"I think Mr. Khrushchev appreciates this kind of approach, and it's one that the President will, I'm sure, convey to him with great effectiveness," Nixon said.

Frederick City Engineer Dies

FREDERICK (AP) — William Laymond Walter, Frederick's city engineer since 1940, was found dead in his bed Friday morning. Dr. B.O. Thomas Sr., deputy medical examiner, said he died of a heart attack in his sleep.

Walter, 57, lived alone in a downtown apartment. His wife died several years ago.

When he did not report for work, Joseph F. Eisemhauer, executive assistant to the mayor, went to Walter's apartment. He found the garage and front door locked. Borrowing a key from a neighbor, he entered the apartment and found Walter.

Survivors include a son, C. Edward Walter of Baltimore.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete.

Beverage Taxes Drop Slightly

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Maryland's receipts from alcoholic beverage taxes and licenses fell off about three per cent last month compared with July 1958.

The state's net income from beer, wine and liquor last month was $742,841, compared to $765,647 in July 1958.

Receipts from taxes on wine were up about 40 per cent, but the tax income from distilled spirits dropped eight per cent and the income from beer sales was off about one per cent.

The largest income source was the tax on distilled spirits. It brought in $489,556 last month.

Radiation—Legacy Of Fear

Medical Care Mirage To Many Survivors

Editor's Note: Whatever may be the long-range health hazards of radiation, the atom bomb blasts at Nagasaki and Hiroshima 14 years ago also planted the seed of social and economic troubles the government must contend with today. This last of four articles tells how they affect life in the rebuilt cities.

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

NAGASAKI, Japan (AP) — A-bomb survivors now can get free medical care from the government. But to some, it is a tantalizing mirage.

When they fall ill, they cannot afford to leave their jobs and stay in hospitals. They have no sick pay benefits. Their families would starve.

To make matters worse, unemployment runs high, and some have a feeling of hopelessness that they are doomed if symptoms of "radiation sickness" appear.

Citizens and officials alike can only hope at present that the government will step forward with funds to support families of sick workers who are the sole support.

But such proposals raise familiar dilemmas, one of choosing only those who really need the aid.

War victims in other cities weren't exposed to radiation and its special problems. But neither were thousands of the registered survivors in Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

In most cases, doctors cannot tell whether an individual becoming ill now has illness due to delayed radiation effects, or natural causes and natural aging. But as survivors of the bomb, they get free care.

How many people are sick and unable to afford time in hospitals is not known. Officials and doctors call it a serious problem but accurate statistics are lacking.

Gov. Katsuya Sato of Nagasaki prefecture estimates there were 140,000 survivors, of whom 82,000 have registered so far. In Hiroshima, 79,400 had registered as of last March, with thousands more presumably not yet on the rolls.

Some didn't register because they didn't want to be classified as survivors, for fear of prejudices about marriage or jobs which that might entail, Gov. Sato thinks. Others may not yet have heard of the medical care program. Still others have no physical complaints.

Survivors are defined as those who were within 10,000 meters—about 6.2 miles—of the bomb center, or who came into the city within two weeks and so might have been exposed to some residual radiation. At far less than 10,000 meters, few if any would have received direct radiation.

But radioactive fallout did dust one area very heavily, and some of these persons are found to have reduced white and red cell counts, or reduced liver function, says Dr. Soitiro Yokota, director of the A-Bomb Hospital in Nagasaki.

Unemployment among survivors is high, as elsewhere in Japan, but again there appears to be no accurate nose-counting.

Another concern is delinquency among bomb orphans. Yoshitoshi Kubo, a social psychologist, calls this "as grave a problem as radiation sickness."

Fallout from nuclear bomb tests adds to the concern over radiation, and an end to bomb testing is sought in Japan.

Dr. Yashushi Nishiwaki, biophysicist of Osaka City University School of Medicine, estimates that, as of last year, the external radiation received by the average Japanese from fallout was about 10 per cent of the amount always coming from natural or background radiation.

Internally, the concentration of strontium in human bones is well under the amount considered the maximum permissible safety, he says. But he feels any unnecessary increase in radiation exposure makes future use of atomic bombs more difficult, by reducing the amount which might safely be tolerated from atomic plants or atomic wastes.

There is strong and genuine desire for peace in both bombed cities.

The peace campaign "is a humanistic movement, but is sometimes used for political motives," says Prof. Tatsuo Morito, Hiroshima University president.

"Hiroshima people do not like its being used for political purposes, but this is difficult to prevent."

Two Hoodlums Are Slain In Gangland Style

CHICAGO (UPI)—Two hoodlums were gunned to death within 90 minutes on Chicago's West Side Friday and police said at least one of the executions was probably a crime syndicate "rubout."

Two masked men poured five shots into the head and shoulders of John Miraglia, 42, as he sat in a bar at 3:45 a.m. e.d.t. chatting with an off-duty waitress.

Ninety minutes earlier and only three miles away, Edward Kochanski, 41, had been killed with five shots in the head. A neighbor found his body, stripped of its shoes and pants, lying in a pool of blood in an alley.

The witness said he heard shots and saw a car containing two men speed from the alley. Police, trying to discover whether there was a link between the slayings, said the murder bullets in both cases appeared to come from a .38-caliber gun. Ballistics tests were ordered to determine whether the death weapons were the same.

Detective Frank Kaske said the murder of Miraglia, a veteran strongarm man and burglar with crime syndicate connections, "looks like another rubout, a revenge killing."

Authorities recalled that Miraglia was a close associate of murdered mobster Paul (Needle Nose) Labriola. The strangled bodies of Labriola and another racketeer, James Weinberg, were found on March 15, 1954, in the trunk of an abandoned car.

It was believed at the time that the syndicate bosses had ordered the execution of Labriola and Weinberg because they were becoming too ambitious in their shakedowns of Chicago tavern owners.

Kochanski's killing bore some of the earmarks of a robbery. He had been slugged on the head as well as shot and his pockets had been emptied. However, the multiple shots in the head and the speeding getaway car also had the trade mark of a professional gang execution.

Although both men lived in the underworld, Miraglia had made the bigger mark. Accused of a dance hall killing when he was 19, he had beaten the rap. Although he was picked up by police 25 times in his career he went to jail only once—for 18 months in the Terre Haute, Ind., Federal Prison for interstate shipment of stolen goods.

Kochanski's only record was a 1957 arrest in suburban Cicero on charges of trying to kill his girl friend and himself. His activities just before his death were unknown, although he lived next door to a saloon where deputies staged a big gambling raid this week.

Fugitive Held On Check Charge

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—A police magistrate ordered Thomas O. Brown, 25, a fugitive from an Ohio prison farm, held for the grand jury on three charges of passing worthless checks.

Brown, Casstown RD1, was arrested by police of suburban Brentwood last Wednesday when he attempted to cash a check in a store on a Dayton, Ohio, bank. A store employe who formerly lived in Dayton realized the bank was non-existent.

Following Brown's arrest, investigation showed that he had passed checks totaling $275 at Pittsburgh hotels and a store by posing as Dr. Thomas Brumbaugh, of Waynesburg, Pa.

Police said Brown escaped recently from a prison farm at Junction City, Ohio, where he was serving a term for forgery.

Two Men Adrift In Motor Boat Are Rescued

COVE POINT, Md. (AP) — Two Baltimore men who drifted for three hours in an outboard motor boat were rescued Friday by a freighter headed for Newport News, Va.

The men were identified by two companions who were ashore at the time as Douglas Swartz and Paul Branic, both in their 30s.

The men were surf-casting in the 12-foot boat off this Calvert County community when the 2-horsepower motor failed. The small boat drifted with a strong tide until the S. S. Arlington, an 11,000-ton freighter, spotted them and brought them aboard.

The ship radioed the Coast Guard that both men were in good condition and would be placed ashore in Newport News unless a cutter would transport them to a port closer to Maryland.

State Jobless Receive Aid

BALTIMORE (AP) — A temporary federal program of jobless benefits, for persons who had exhausted their regular state payments, meant more than 12 million dollars to Maryland's unemployed.

The Department of Employment Security said Friday that the program which expired last month resulted in payments of $12,197,572 to jobless Marylanders and cost $344,007 to administer through June 30.

The federal program began June 19 a year ago and ended last July 6. It tacked 13 weeks of benefits onto Maryland's usual maximum of 26 weeks. Payments went to 37,873 persons.

Robert B. Kimble, executive director of DES, said the federal government provided Maryland with both benefit and administrative costs on a loan basis. It must be repaid by Maryland employers, he said, unless the money is restored to the federal treasury by some other means by Dec. 1, 1963.

Kimble said repaying the money would not boost Maryland Jemployment Insurance taxes but could increase the rate of the Federal Unemployment Tax.

Maryland employers with four or more workers pay the federal tax—three-tenths of 1 per cent of the first $3,000 in gross wages paid each employe in a calendar year.

If states repay the money, Kimble said, the rate would go to four and one-half tenths for 1963 and six-tenths for 1964 and succeeding years.

Negroes Register At Front Royal

FRONT ROYAL, Va. (AP) — Integration of Warren County High School appeared inevitable Friday with the registration of 20 white teenagers — along with two Negroes — for the 1959-60 term.

These are the first white pupils to register at the school since last September when a Federal judge ordered the school integrated.

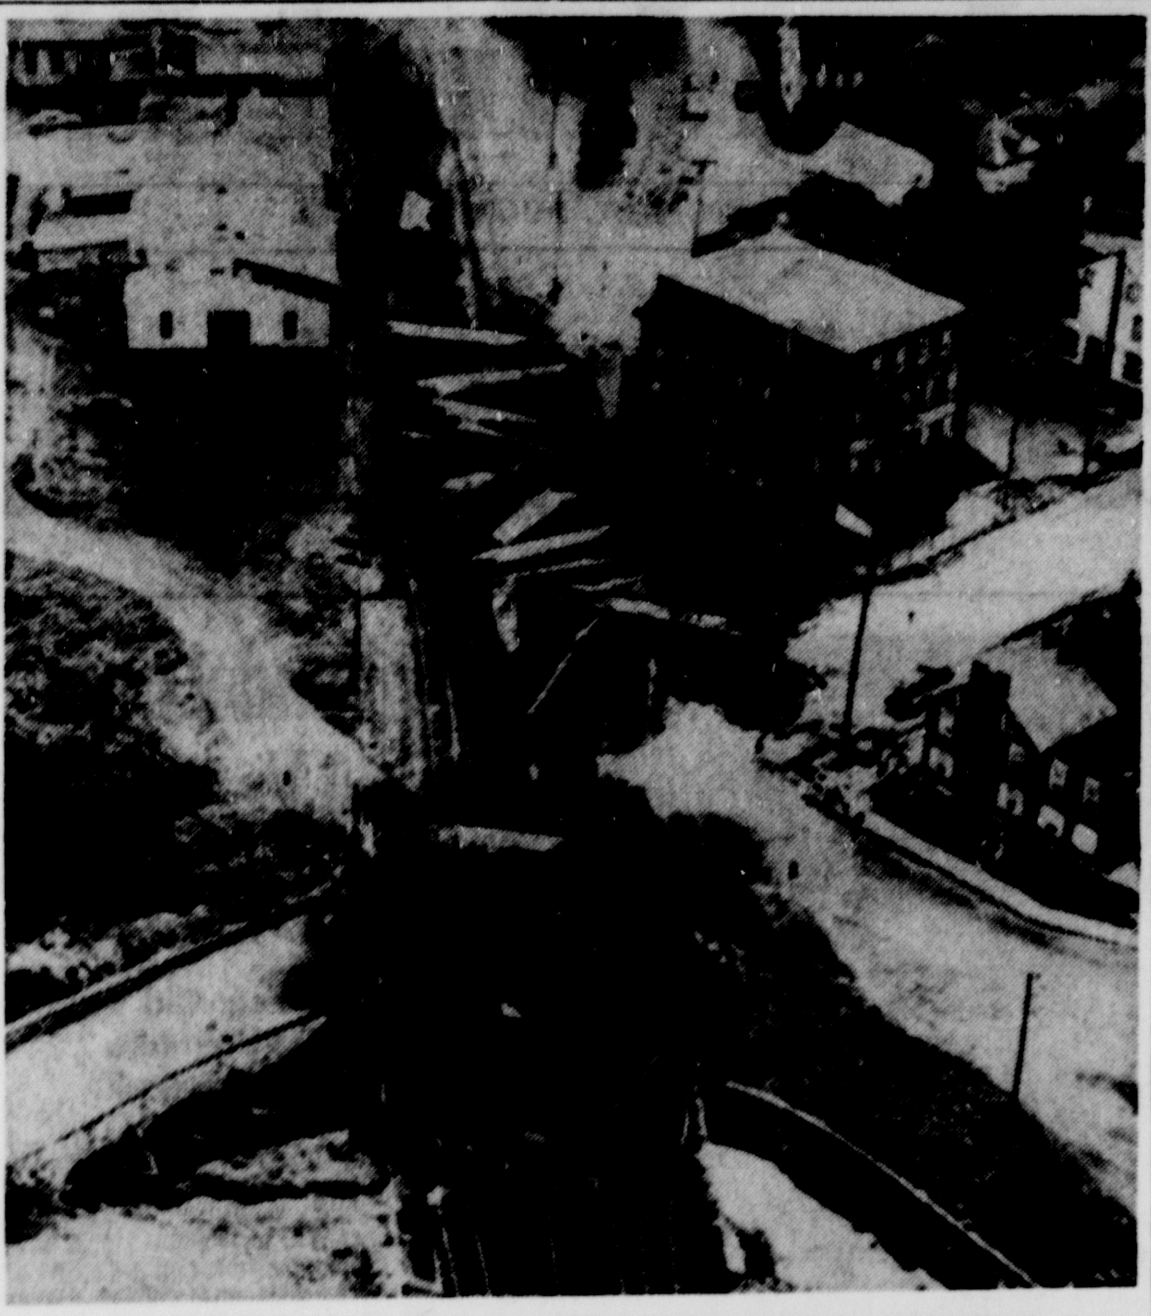
Many of the white registrants attended private classes last year which were set up to accommodate the nearly 1,000 students who had previously attended the all-white public school.

The school operated last year with only 20 Negroes sprinkled throughout the classrooms.

Friday was the start of a three-day enrollment period.

A-Power Station

MOSCOW (AP) — Construction is well under way on an experimental atomic power station at Voronezh on the Don River, the Soviet press reported Friday. The report said the station's capacity will be 210,000 kilowatts. There were no hints of when it would start operating.



WRECK BLOCKS WAY — A wreck of 32 coal-filled hopper cars blocks the Reading Railroad lines at Macungie, Pa., near Allentown, yesterday, as well as detouring auto traffic on the town's main street. The train was derailed while heading east from Harrisburg. No one was injured. (AP Photofax)

Hazel Given Death In Rape Of Housewife

BALTIMORE (AP) — Clifford Earl Hazel, convicted by a three-judge court of raping a pregnant Baltimore housewife, was sentenced Friday to die in the electric chair.

The 25-year-old Negro painter remained calm as sentence was handed down in Criminal Court. But his mother and expectant wife ran screaming from the room, one of them crying, "Lord have mercy!"

The case will be reviewed automatically by the Maryland Court of Appeals, routine in death sentences. The high court, however, rules only on points of law, and can only order a retrial, not modify the lower court ruling.

The housewife, mother of three children, testified during the two and a half day trial that Hazel entered her home, clamped his arm around her neck and threatened to shoot her baby unless he was given money and jewelry. Then he raped her while one of the children played just a few feet away.

When he was arrested a month later, Hazel contended that the woman had led him on and submitted willingly.

Psychiatrists agreed that Hazel was sane at the time of the offense and was sane now.

Hearing the case without a jury were Judges John T. Tucker, Anselm Sodaro and Joseph L. Carter.

Man Is Killed On Train Tracks

HYATTSVILLE, Md. (AP) — John Jacob Butler, father of six children, was decapitated last night as he walked along some freight tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

The mangled body was found shortly before midnight near a railroad trestle. Butler's wife said he used that stretch of track to walk home each night from Bladensburg. Butler, 33, was a truck driver.

Crated-Up Cop Catches Teen Gang In Act

DAMASCUS, Md. (AP)—A half dozen teen-agers were startled Friday when a policeman popped out of a crate they were about to dump from a truck.

Pvt. Harry Ward of the Montgomery County police was hiding in the refrigerator crate—fellow officers had nailed it shut lightly—to check on complaints that hot-rod operators were disturbing the neighborhood.

About midnight a group gathered in a parking lot not far from the truck that held the crate that held Ward. But instead of gunning their motors or facing along the street, the youths decided to topple the crate from the truck.

However, just as they were warming up to their work Ward made his appearance. Six were arrested, one of them a juvenile.

Bank Loot Turns Up

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The FBI broadcast an alarm in the Pittsburgh district Friday for a gunman who abducted a bank messenger and her police escort at Niles, Ohio, last month and escaped with $41,000.

The FBI said a $50 bill believed to be part of the loot turned up at the South Side office of Mellon National Bank and Trust Co. and an automobile bearing a stolen Ohio license plate was seen in the vicinity.

Two men were reported in the car and it was believed they might be armed and dangerous.

The robbery occurred last July 16. As Niles Patrolman Anthony Marsico, 34, was picking up bank teller Judy Whitney, 21, at the Niles Bank Co. in a police cruiser to deliver the money to the McKinley Savings and Loan Assn., the gunman forced his way into the car.

The bandit forced Marsico to drive to a park on the outskirts of the city where he handcuffed the officer and teller to the steering wheel and fled with the money.

Man Bludgeons, Shoots His Wife Then Kills Self

FREDERICK (AP) — An unemployed construction worker bludgeoned his wife with a club Friday, then shot her twice with a revolver and finally slashed her with a machete.

William Henry Scott, 59, and his 61-year-old wife, Mrs. Alma Stine Scott, died shortly after they were taken to Frederick Memorial Hospital.

City and State Police were summoned to the Scott home by someone who erroneously reported that a man had gone berserk and was shooting at motorists.

More than a score of officers found Mrs. Scott lying slashed, beaten and shot in front of the home on the western edge of town. They found the husband lying in a nearby cornfield.

Police were unable to say what caused Scott to attack his wife.

A truck driver said he and two other men were driving in his truck when they saw scott beating his wife alongside the road.

The driver, Merhl Wise, told police he and his two companions tried to go to the assistance of Mrs. Scott but were stopped in tracks when Scott pointed his gun at them and fired once. Wise said the shot was wild.

He said Scott beat his wife with what appeared to be an ax handle, then shot her with his gun. A few minutes later, he said, Scott returned with a long knife and slashed his wife. Then he ran into the cornfield and shot himself.

BILBAO, Spain (AP)—A loaded two-deck bus skidded on a wet road and plunged into the Ibaizabal River Friday, killing at least 8 persons and injuring 28 others.

State To Start Planning Work On Highways

BALTIMORE (AP) — A House committee approval of financing for the Interstate Highway Program means that Maryland will begin planning next week for its 1960 work on the system.

Chairman John B. Funk of the State Roads Commission said Friday that if the committee proposal becomes law Maryland would receive a total of 135 million dollars during a three-year period beginning in 1961.

Maryland, like other states, has been marking time for months on interstate construction work since Congress voted a speed-up in the work, as an anti-recession measure, and this exhausted the interstate highway fund.

Thursday, the House Ways and Means Committee broke a long deadlock over revenue sources by boosting the federal gasoline tax from three to four cents a gallon for the next 22 months.

It also voted to divert to the highway fund some of the taxes now collected on automobiles and auto accessories.

"As a result of the Ways and Means Committee action," Funk's statement said, "I am directing that meetings of the State Roads Commission' staff shall start beginning early next week to discuss immediate programming of work for 1960 as well as projecting the program for 1961-62.

"If the proposal becomes law, it means that Maryland would receive 40½ million dollars in 1961 interstate money, $24,300,000 to the state system and $16,200,000 to Baltimore; a total of 45 million dollars in 1962, 27 million dollars for the state system and 18 million dollars to Baltimore, and 49½ million dollars in 1963 interstate funds, $29,700,000 to the state system and $19,800,000 to the city."

If Congress passes the measure and the President signs it, Funk said, Maryland could "move ahead with a substantial amount of its planned 1960 highway program for projects that would have been deferred" if a financing bill hadn't been passed this year.

"Specifically," he said, "it allows the State Roads Commission to proceed with approximately 37 million dollars in work on the interstate system and approximately 10 million dollars in federal aid for primary urban and secondary roads which, with state funds now available, bring the total amount for work to 88 million dollars."

Baltimore City also can go ahead with 19 million dollars worth of its interstate projects.

As to the bill becoming law, Funk said:

"One immediate effect of such legislation would be to free approximately six million dollars of the eight million dollars in state funds that Maryland would have been forced, under wise financial practice, to hold back so that full payment could be made on the federal share of projects in progress at June 30, 1959."

Nixon Says Khrush Thinks U.S. Sinking Economically

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Friday Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev believes the United States is weak, sinking economically and split over foreign policy.

Nixon said Khrushchev's forthcoming visit to the United States will be worthwhile if it removes "his miscalculation" about U.S. strength and determination. The net effect, Nixon added, could advance the cause of peace.

The vice president spoke on a television program recorded for New York stations in advance of his current trip to Chicago. He appeared with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY).

Nixon said he does not expect Khrushchev to be converted from his communistic views by conferences with President Eisenhower or his tour of this country.

But based on the conversations he had with the Soviet leader in Moscow, Nixon said he feels Khrushchev believes "that the United States is weak, that we're on the way downhill economically, that our people are divided and do not support the President in the firm stand he has taken in the field of foreign policy."

Citing a Russian proverb: "To see once is better than hearing a hundred times," Nixon added: "I think he has got to see it—the United States, not that this is going to convert him. He will not admit he has changed his views, but I do feel that it can have a salutary effect in removing his miscalculations about U.S. strength and, more important than that, about U.S. will and determination."

Nixon said Eisenhower in his conferences with the Soviet Premier will have the opportunity to drive home that while the American people want peace "we are not people who want peace so much that we are going to be afraid to stand for our rights and the rights of our friends and allies around the world."

"I think Mr. Khrushchev appreciates this kind of approach, and it's one that the President will, I'm sure, convey to him with great effectiveness," Nixon said.

Frederick City Engineer Dies

FREDERICK (AP) — William Laymond Walter, Frederick's city engineer since 1940, was found dead in his bed Friday morning. Dr. B.O. Thomas Sr., deputy medical examiner, said he died of a heart attack in his sleep.

Walter, 57, lived alone in a downtown apartment. His wife died several years ago.

When he did not report for work, Joseph F. Eisemhauer, executive assistant to the mayor, went to Walter's apartment. He found the garage and front door locked. Borrowing a key from a neighbor, he entered the apartment and found Walter.

Survivors include a son, C. Edward Walter of Baltimore.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete.

Beverage Taxes Drop Slightly

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Maryland's receipts from alcoholic beverage taxes and licenses fell off about three per cent last month compared with July 1958.

The state's net income from beer, wine and liquor last month was $742,841, compared to $765,647 in July 1958.

Receipts from taxes on wine were up about 40 per cent, but the tax income from distilled spirits dropped eight per cent and the income from beer sales was off about one per cent.

The largest income source was the tax on distilled spirits. It brought in $489,556 last month.

Radiation—Legacy Of Fear

Medical Care Mirage To Many Survivors

Editor's Note: Whatever may be the long-range health hazards of radiation, the atom bomb blasts at Nagasaki and Hiroshima 14 years ago also planted the seed of social and economic troubles the government must contend with today. This last of four articles tells how they affect life in the rebuilt cities.

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

NAGASAKI, Japan (AP) — A-bomb survivors now can get free medical care from the government. But to some, it is a tantalizing mirage.

When they fall ill, they cannot afford to leave their jobs and stay in hospitals. They have no sick pay benefits. Their families would starve.

To make matters worse, unemployment runs high, and some have a feeling of hopelessness that they are doomed if symptoms of "radiation sickness" appear.

Citizens and officials alike can only hope at present that the government will step forward with funds to support families of sick workers who are the sole support.

But such proposals raise familiar dilemmas, one of choosing only those who really need the aid.

War victims in other cities weren't exposed to radiation and its special problems. But neither were thousands of the registered survivors in Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

In most cases, doctors cannot tell whether an individual becoming ill now has illness due to delayed radiation effects, or natural causes and natural aging. But as survivors of the bomb, they get free care.

How many people are sick and unable to afford time in hospitals is not known. Officials and doctors call it a serious problem but accurate statistics are lacking.

Gov. Katsuya Sato of Nagasaki prefecture estimates there were 140,000 survivors, of whom 82,000 have registered so far. In Hiroshima, 79,400 had registered as of last March, with thousands more presumably not yet on the rolls.

Some didn't register because they didn't want to be classified as survivors, for fear of prejudices about marriage or jobs which that might entail, Gov. Sato thinks. Others may not yet have heard of the medical care program. Still others have no physical complaints.

Another concern is delinquency among bomb orphans. Yoshitoshi Kubo, a social psychologist, calls this "as grave a problem as radiation sickness."

Fallout from nuclear bomb tests adds to the concern over radiation, and an end to bomb testing is sought in Japan.

Dig Those Greens!

Perhaps people would dig dandelions out of their yards with more enthusiasm if they were aware that they were salvaging one of the best sources of vitamin A.

Dandelion leaves contain, per every ounce, a day's requirement of vitamin A for an adult. About 50 years ago these greens were a common substitute for spinach at country dinners. This should be revived.

In Europe, dandelion greens are now widely cultivated. They are also being grown for New York City and can be purchased there, as well as other large cities like Chicago and outlying areas. In buying, you should remember that one pound yields about 1½ cups cooked.

Today, nutritionists understand that this vegetable is a most outstanding source of vitamin A. That's why people growing toward middle age will find it an excellent food to prevent the formation of stones.

As we have told you before, this vitamin is a good food for the complexion. That's why dandelion greens make an excellent "beauty" dish. They can also be mixed with other greens rich in vitamin A and C. Low in calorie count, they should be used liberally by you on a reducing diet. They are also an excellent source of vitamin B-1, C, and G.

In selecting, you want the young, green, unwilted leaves free from yellowness (this indicates age). Wash thoroughly. Break in half or thirds and use at once. If you have to store—put the unwashed ones in cellophane bags in the refrigerator to keep them crisp. Their jagged leaves make an excellent garnish. Chopped, they give a new flavor atop sour cream on baked potatoes or atop whipped cream on soup. The greens are best eaten raw as a salad green. You can also add them to potato salad.

Girl Injured By B&O Train Has Birthday In Hospital

MEYERSDALE, Pa. — A little Meyersdale, Pa., area girl is all smiles after a long hard struggle for her life in Memorial Hospital, Cumberland.

The youngster, Patricia Smearman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smearman, Sand Patch, Pa., celebrates her thirteenth birthday today in the pediatric ward at the Cumberland institution.

Patty has been a patient in Memorial Hospital since she was "critically" injured by a B&O passenger train on June 28. The youngster was hurt when an eastbound train struck her at Cook's Mills, near Hyndman, and hurled her into Wills Creek from a trestle.

Miss Smearman was taken to the hospital for surgery and remained near death for several weeks. Hospital attaches said she sustained a fractured right leg knee and shoulder injuries, multiple lacerations and injuries to her chest.

Time ticked slowly during her recovery period. However, her parents managed to visit the youngster daily even though it meant traveling approximately 80 miles a day.

Today, Patty has reached the recovery point where she is up and about in a wheel chair and provides entertainment for the other youngster in the ward.

Since her accident, Patricia has received more than 200 get-well cards and has won the friendship of the nurses on duty.

So, today will be a "special" day for Patty as the nurses and members of the hospital staff have arranged for a birthday party in the ward.

She attended Green Township School in nearby Somerset County, but there's little chance she will get back to school this year.

The Smearmans have another child, Ronald, age 10.

Miss Smearman was injured while on a fishing trip with her father, her brother and a friend. The party was walking on the trestle and the friend reportedly attempted to hold her to the side of the rails. When the three-unit diesel passed by, the girl was pulled away and was hurled about 30 feet off the trestle into three feet of water in Wills Creek.

The county ASC office is open Monday through Friday from 8 a. m. to noon and 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Girl Injured By B&O Train Has Birthday In Hospital

MEYERSDALE, Pa. — A little Meyersdale, Pa., area girl is all smiles after a long hard struggle for her life in Memorial Hospital, Cumberland.

The youngster, Patricia Smearman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smearman, Sand Patch, Pa., celebrates her thirteenth birthday today in the pediatric ward at the Cumberland institution.

Patty has been a patient in Memorial Hospital since she was "critically" injured by a B&O passenger train on June 28. The youngster was hurt when an eastbound train struck her at Cook's Mills, near Hyndman, and hurled her into Wills Creek from a trestle.

Miss Smearman was taken to the hospital for surgery and remained near death for several weeks. Hospital attaches said she sustained a fractured right leg knee and shoulder injuries, multiple lacerations and injuries to her chest.

Time ticked slowly during her recovery period. However, her parents managed to visit the youngster daily even though it meant traveling approximately 80 miles a day.

Today, Patty has reached the recovery point where she is up and about in a wheel chair and provides entertainment for the other youngster in the ward.

Since her accident, Patricia has received more than 200 get-well cards and has won the friendship of the nurses on duty.

So, today will be a "special" day for Patty as the nurses and members of the hospital staff have arranged for a birthday party in the ward.

She attended Green Township School in nearby Somerset County, but there's little chance she will get back to school this year.

The Smearmans have another child, Ronald, age 10.

Miss Smearman was injured while on a fishing trip with her father, her brother and a friend. The party was walking on the trestle and the friend reportedly attempted to hold her to the side of the rails. When the three-unit diesel passed by, the girl was pulled away and was hurled about 30 feet off the trestle into three feet of water in Wills Creek.

ASC Funds Available In Pendleton Co.

FRANKLIN — The Pendleton County ASC office has announced receipt of additional funds for carrying out conservation practices under the Agricultural Conservation Program for the remainder of the 1959 calendar year.

All farmers who wish to carry out a conservation practice this fall are urged to call at the county office without delay and file requests for cost-shares.

Farmers are reminded that if they plan to use lime or fertilizer, it is necessary that soil tests be made on all areas to be treated. Failure to bring along soil samples will result in delay of approval of these practices.

The county ASC office is open Monday through Friday from 8 a. m. to noon and 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Wings for a journey..

Vacation time—a trip; magic words, excitement! We study a map, read travel books, and listen eagerly to others who have taken the same journey. We anticipate seeing new places, new people, and unusual things. The routine of everyday will be forgotten.

But sometimes a trip is impossible, and we must accept the hurry and anxiety of everyday living.

Then it is that we need to plan a journey of mind and spirit —one that can lift us out of the ordinary into peace and communion with our God—one that refreshes and strengthens.

For this journey we do not need an airplane. Instead, we use the powerful wings of prayer, of praise and trust.

Come to Church and find these wings of the spirit, not for a brief journey—but for all eternity.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Wings for a journey..

Vacation time—a trip; magic words, excitement! We study a map, read travel books, and listen eagerly to others who have taken the same journey. We anticipate seeing new places, new people, and unusual things. The routine of everyday will be forgotten.

But sometimes a trip is impossible, and we must accept the hurry and anxiety of everyday living.

Then it is that we need to plan a journey of mind and spirit—one that can lift us out of the ordinary into peace and communion with our God—one that refreshes and strengthens.

For this journey we do not need an airplane. Instead, we use the powerful wings of prayer, of praise and trust.

Come to Church and find these wings of the spirit, not for a brief journey—but for all eternity.

Weber Named Lt. Colonel In State Police

BALTIMORE (AP)—State Police Maj. William H. Weber was appointed to lieutenant colonel Friday, the rank created especially for him by the 1959 General Assembly.

State Police Supt. Carey Jarman, who has the rank of colonel, announced the appointment. Praising Weber for his 32 years of services, Jarman said:

"On numerous occasions he has been commended for his vigorous and fearless handling of emergency situations."

Weber will continue for the present as both executive officer and field force commander. His promotion leaves a vacancy for a major. Once that is filled, Jarman said, Weber will be executive officer only.

The Legislature created the rank of lieutenant colonel after the superintendency of the department was given to Jarman by Gov. Tawes.

A base salary of $8,000 for the new rank is identical to that paid the superintendent.

Col. Jarman also announced promotional examinations will be held next week to create eligibility lists for all ranks in the department.

In addition, he said there is a prospect of expanding the supervisory staff at Pikesville headquarters to cope with general growth of the force in recent years. The 1959 Legislature approved adding 40 men to the department, boosting total strength to 551.

County To Get $12,146 Back On Investment

An estimated return of $12,146.43 on the $1 million which has been invested by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners in government securities on short-term basis is expected.

Commissioner John Tucker Mason, who is in charge of the investment program for the board, was informed by Joseph M. Naughton, president of the Second National Bank, that the county money had been invested and the estimated return in the form of interest would be $12,146.43.

A previous investment of $1 million by the county is expected to result in approximately $23,000 interest being received by the county. This will bring in a total of approximately $35,000 to the county under the program. In former years the county did not invest tax monies collected during June and July, when the bulk of the tax payments are made.

The money has been invested as follows: U. S. Treasury bills of 2.58 per cent interest in the amount of $200,000; U. S. Treasury notes at 3.12 interest in the amount of $30,000 (accrued interest of $2,482.34 has resulted from this investment); a $100,000 investment in U. S. Treasury bills at 3.47 per cent interest; another $100,000 in Treasury bills at 3.56 per cent interest and a $300,000 investment in Treasury bills at 3.41 per cent interest.

City Seeks Bids On New Housing Job

The Cumberland Housing Authority will receive bids Monday, September 14, at 2 p. m. for the construction of the third local low rent housing project.

This will be located at the cleared area in the West Oldtown Road-Thomas Street section.

The 80 dwelling units will be constructed in a number of individual buildings along the same design as those at Jane Frazier Village.

The contract also calls for the erection of an administration building and other incidental work.

Plans and specifications are available at the office of the Housing Authority in Jane Frazier Village and from the architect, S. Russ Minter, 72 Pershing Street.

Bid bonds in the amount of five per cent of the bid must be submitted with the sealed figures.

There is also the requirement that the successful bidder post a performance bond in the amount of the total cost of the project.

The authority in its advertisement also called to the attention of bidders the minimum salary and wage provision in the specifications.

This will add another 80 homes to local families with low or moderate income. Jane Frazier Village was the first low-rent project completed, followed by Benjamin Banneker Homes on Frederick Street.

County Must Pay City Rent For Health Offices

Mayor J. Edwin Keech has notified the Allegany County Board of Commissioners and the Health Department that starting October 1 the city will charge $6,000 annual rental for use of the second and third floors of the Public Safety Building and also for space used in the City Hall basement.

When the letter from Mayor Keech was read there was little comment. Commissioner John J. Rowan said he "wasn't interested." Commissioner William A. Wilson stated that in the event the county does have to pay the rental it would be on a matching basis with the state paying 60 per cent and the county 40 per cent.

Mayor Keech pointed out in his letter that the Health Department is certainly a state and county function and that the city has for many years provided the quarters mentioned without charge. Commissioner Wilson said the county does pay for the janitor service in the offices the Health Department uses.

It was stated in the letter that the Mayor and Council would meet with the commissioners or the Health Department if such a session is desired to discuss the rental plan.

County Asked To Pave Road

A petition was received yesterday from a group of residents along the area served by the Town Creek Road asking that 11 miles of the road which are unpaved be hardsurfaced.

Commissioner John J. Rowan commented that the county has started hardsurfacing of about a mile of the road and that it will be impossible to do more. He cited the fact that no county tax monies are used in road work and that the only fund which the county has for this purpose is the gasoline tax money received from the state.

The petition was signed by William A. Hawkins Jr., and he explained that R. M. Buser has been designated the spokesman for the group. If the commissioners would like to meet with the petitioners to discuss the road proposal it can be arranged, Hawkins wrote.

The petition was accompanied by a listing of the number of families and taxpayers living in the section affected, the number of school buses and mail service vehicles.

Last year, there were 16 residences constructed at an estimated cost of $108,995. Permits were also issued for an addition to National Jet Company, and also for the occupancy of another commercial building.

Constructed during that year were the new LaVale Post Office and the booster pumping station of the LaVale Sanitary Commission.

There was one service station approved along with three garages, one sign, two temporary businesses which have failed to re-apply this year, and one real estate office building which has since been moved.

Weber Named Lt. Colonel In State Police

BALTIMORE (AP)—State Police Maj. William H. Weber was appointed to lieutenant colonel Friday, the rank created especially for him by the 1959 General Assembly.

State Police Supt. Carey Jarman, who has the rank of colonel, announced the appointment. Praising Weber for his 32 years of services, Jarman said:

"On numerous occasions he has been commended for his vigorous and fearless handling of emergency situations."

Weber will continue for the present as both executive officer and field force commander. His promotion leaves a vacancy for a major. Once that is filled, Jarman said, Weber will be executive officer only.

The Legislature created the rank of lieutenant colonel after the superintendency of the department was given to Jarman by Gov. Tawes.

A base salary of $8,000 for the new rank is identical to that paid the superintendent.

Col. Jarman also announced promotional examinations will be held next week to create eligibility lists for all ranks in the department.

In addition, he said there is a prospect of expanding the supervisory staff at Pikesville headquarters to cope with general growth of the force in recent years. The 1959 Legislature approved adding 40 men to the department, boosting total strength to 551.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The number of persons in West Virginia with health insurance increased by 83,000 last year, the Health Insurance Institute said Friday. The institute said this was a growth rate of 6.2 per cent over 1957 totals.

FIRE LOSS SET

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Fire Chief John Gallagher said Friday damage to the new federal office building here in a July 7 fire had been set at $74,000. Most of the damage was to the heating and ventilating system.

County To Get $12,146 Back On Investment

An estimated return of $12,146.43 on the $1 million which has been invested by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners in government securities on short-term basis is expected.

Commissioner John Tucker Mason, who is in charge of the investment program for the board, was informed by Joseph M. Naughton, president of the Second National Bank, that the county money had been invested and the estimated return in the form of interest would be $12,146.43.

A previous investment of $1 million by the county is expected to result in approximately $23,000 interest being received by the county. This will bring in a total of approximately $35,000 to the county under the program. In former years the county did not invest tax monies collected during June and July, when the bulk of the tax payments are made.

The money has been invested as follows: U. S. Treasury bills of 2.58 per cent interest in the amount of $200,000; U. S. Treasury notes at 3.12 interest in the amount of $30,000 (accrued interest of $2,482.34 has resulted from this investment); a $100,000 investment in U. S. Treasury bills at 3.47 per cent interest; another $100,000 in Treasury bills at 3.56 per cent interest and a $300,000 investment in Treasury bills at 3.41 per cent interest.

City Seeks Bids On New Housing Job

The Cumberland Housing Authority will receive bids Monday, September 14, at 2 p. m. for the construction of the third local low rent housing project.

This will be located at the cleared area in the West Oldtown Road-Thomas Street section.

The 80 dwelling units will be constructed in a number of individual buildings along the same design as those at Jane Frazier Village.

The contract also calls for the erection of an administration building and other incidental work.

Plans and specifications are available at the office of the Housing Authority in Jane Frazier Village and from the architect, S. Russ Minter, 72 Pershing Street.

Bid bonds in the amount of five per cent of the bid must be submitted with the sealed figures.

There is also the requirement that the successful bidder post a performance bond in the amount of the total cost of the project.

The authority in its advertisement also called to the attention of bidders the minimum salary and wage provision in the specifications.

This will add another 80 homes to local families with low or moderate income. Jane Frazier Village was the first low-rent project completed, followed by Benjamin Banneker Homes on Frederick Street.

County Must Pay City Rent For Health Offices

Mayor J. Edwin Keech has notified the Allegany County Board of Commissioners and the Health Department that starting October 1 the city will charge $6,000 annual rental for use of the second and third floors of the Public Safety Building and also for space used in the City Hall basement.

When the letter from Mayor Keech was read there was little comment. Commissioner John J. Rowan said he "wasn't interested." Commissioner William A. Wilson stated that in the event the county does have to pay the rental it would be on a matching basis with the state paying 60 per cent and the county 40 per cent.

Mayor Keech pointed out in his letter that the Health Department is certainly a state and county function and that the city has for many years provided the quarters mentioned without charge. Commissioner Wilson said the county does pay for the janitor service in the offices the Health Department uses.

It was stated in the letter that the Mayor and Council would meet with the commissioners or the Health Department if such a session is desired to discuss the rental plan.

County Asked To Pave Road

A petition was received yesterday from a group of residents along the area served by the Town Creek Road asking that 11 miles of the road which are unpaved be hardsurfaced.

Commissioner John J. Rowan commented that the county has started hardsurfacing of about a mile of the road and that it will be impossible to do more. He cited the fact that no county tax monies are used in road work and that the only fund which the county has for this purpose is the gasoline tax money received from the state.

The petition was signed by William A. Hawkins Jr., and he explained that R. M. Buser has been designated the spokesman for the group. If the commissioners would like to meet with the petitioners to discuss the road proposal it can be arranged, Hawkins wrote.

The petition was accompanied by a listing of the number of families and taxpayers living in the section affected, the number of school buses and mail service vehicles.

Twins Weighing 17 Pounds Born

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Twin boys weighing a combined total of 17 pounds were born to Mrs. Robert Crutcher, Huntington, late Thursday night and early Friday.

The birth set a weight record for twins at St. Mary's hospital. The first birth occurred Thursday night and second a few minutes later after midnight.

Mrs. Crutcher solved the problem of separate birthdays for the pair. She said birthdays would be held on alternate days—the 13th of August one year and the 14th the next.

135 Persons Arrested By W.Va. SCC

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—State Conservation Commission law enforcement chief Art Bachman said Friday 135 persons were arrested last month and paid $2,240 in fines upon conviction of law violations.

Bachman said 13 were prosecuted for road and stream litter. Another was fined $100 for illegal dumping and jailed 10 days after failing to pay the fine.

Reckless operation of motorboats and speeding in dock areas, were included in the violations.

W.Va. Turnpike Rate To Remain Same

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—For the second time in the past three months the West Virginia Turnpike Commission has voted down a proposal to raise the toll rates on the 88-mile highway.

The commission had previously turned down a request by the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, trustee for turnpike bond holders, to raise the rates.

Commission Chairman W. G. Stathers said one reason for the commission action was that turnpike revenues had increased each month this year.

$468,635 Spent On Building In LaVale Section

The LaVale Zoning Board Thursday reported that so far this year it has processed and issued building permits totaling $468,635 in construction costs.

The residence category topped all with 30 applications approved for homes calling for an estimated outlay of $293,700.

Businesses were second largest, accounting for $142,000. Three permits went to the DWS Realty Company for the $100,000 bowling center, $40,000 to W. I. Burton for a shopping center and $2,000 for a motor repair shop.

Additions to residences or business places amounted to work estimated at $22,285, while remodeling, two permits, were for $1,300.

Two swimming pools were approved for homes at $3,000 each. Four garages were figured at $3,350.

In addition to these, one permanent sign in a Residential A zone was approved along with a temporary billboard sign which has not been erected.

Also approved was the installation of a fuel oil storage tank.

Thursday the board approved the application of the Ka-Lew Corporation to build an addition to Maryland Mills. It will be used for storage.

Another passed was for remodeling the storeroom at 1057 National Highway to Arthur Laking and Ernest O. Heberle for a gunsmith's shop.

Brady W. Dever, Winchester Road, received a permit to complete the construction of his home. He had been residing in a basement residence.

Another small building was approved for O. R. Nazelrod, 1101 Braddock Road.

The zoning board has been issuing permits since the passage of the zoning ordinance on May 1, 1958.

Last year, there were 16 residences constructed at an estimated cost of $108,995. Permits were also issued for an addition to National Jet Company, and also for the occupancy of another commercial building.

Constructed during that year were the new LaVale Post Office and the booster pumping station of the LaVale Sanitary Commission.

There was one service station approved along with three garages, one sign, two temporary businesses which have failed to re-apply this year, and one real estate office building which has since been moved.

Approximately 90 per cent of the wine produced annually in the United States comes from California.

Will They Bring Fresh Air Back?

Modern transportation may be horseless, but it is far from smokeless. Any pedestrian not suffering from hay fever or some other obstruction in the sense of smell can attest to the unpleasant stench rising from the streets of every city. If it is any comfort to those who suffer from the peculiar odor of automobiles, buses and trucks in their daily bouts trying to put up with civilization, they are not alone in their misery.

Millions of human beings from small towns to the largest cities cough and grope their way through the maze caused by contemporary man's constant desire to propel himself mechanically from one place to another. The situation has become sufficiently acute in many areas to cause municipal ordinances controlling air pollution to be passed. One state has passed legislation requiring motor vehicle exhaust to meet certain safety requirements.

Perhaps it is the entry of legislatures into the field of exhaust purification which has prompted the auto industry to find means of controlling the menace, or it may be that the precedence given exhaust fumes has just now brought it to the top of the list of engineering research, but at least one U. S. auto manufacturer is committed to aiding those searching for a way to reduce, or preferably eliminate, the noxious effects of gasoline engine exhaust.

General Motors is giving consideration to financing a study of the relation between auto exhaust fumes and lung cancer by the Sloan, Kettering Institute for Cancer Research. GM is correlating this research program with development of an effective filter for automobile exhaust systems.

It will be a relief once again to welcome fresh air back into the city.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The CPUSA

Two facts are separate and distinct and ne'er the twain shall meet. One is that Soviet Russia is a large and powerful country with which we shall either have peace or war; the other is that the American Communist Party consists of American citizens who engage in subversive activities in their own country and who, when they are caught breaking our laws or doing mischief to our institutions should be treated accordingly.

The fact that Khrushchev is about to visit the United States has nothing whatsoever to do with the American attitude toward our own Communist Party.

This organization is headed by William Z. Foster, who was indicted on July 20, 1948 together with 11 others. The indictment was under the Smith Act and the 11 defendants were tried, found guilty and imprisoned. Foster got off by pleading extreme ill health. His case was separated from the others on the basis of medical testimony to the effect that there was evidence of heart trouble and chronic disease of the blood vessels.

Foster was never brought to trial despite government efforts. However, he had the strength to continue his writing, to attend conferences and to manage the Communist Party in the United States.

Since 1958, Foster, still under indictment, has expressed the wish to go to Russia for "medical treatment." It is an established fact that among the most skillful physicians and surgeons in the world in the cardio-vascular field are Americans. There is no evidence that Soviet Russia has medical personnel who are superior to ours in this specialization or that they have done research in it superior to ours.

The plea to send Foster to Russia for "medical treatment," becomes absurd in view of the possibilities of such treatment here. It will, however, be recalled that when Maurice Thorez, the French Communist leader was ill, he was flown to Russia. Are they afraid of what they might say in their sleep?

Mary Kaufman, Foster's lawyer, on June 24, argued in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, either to dismiss the Smith Act indictment or to extend the limits of Foster's bail so that he could go to Russia for "medical treatment," which she contended was cheaper in Soviet Russia. Actually, Foster could manage to get the necessary treatment free of charge in this country, as thousands do daily in clinics for that purpose. Surely a proletarian leader would not reject a proletarian clinic!

Why does not Foster base his plea on truthful and realistic grounds? Why does he not say that he desires to die in Soviet Russia so that his ashes may be placed in the Kremlin Wall? Why does he not say that he fears to go to an American hospital, lest weakened by sedatives, he tell tales which will send his comrades to prison for espionage?

It is perhaps uncharitable to talk about a sick man in this way, but those who have had Foster's illnesses know that a man can do a great amount of hard work despite a cardiac condition. Modern treatment for such illnesses places almost no limitation upon the kind of work that Foster does, none of which is physical work of any kind. As a matter of fact, the more the patient keeps busy and stops worrying about himself, the better are his chances of a fair recovery.

I can testify from personal experience that a pretty severe case of this sort, to which was added a cancer operation, made me years younger and gayer and stronger. President Eisenhower surely is proof of what can be done. Of course, each case is individual, but Foster has been doing pretty well during the years that he managed to stay out of jail on the plea of illness.

It would seem to me that Foster's cry baby act does not prove any point but that he wants to go to Russia. If they will have him, after he stands trial here for whatever infamies he has committed, why not let him go there. When he dies perhaps they will stick his remains in the Kremlin Wall along with those of John Reed. There was once a person who was called "A Man Without a Country." Maybe that is Foster's ambition. Or is his country really Soviet Russia despite the undeniable fact that he was born and reared in the United States and has lived here in freedom?

Hope It's Not Just A Lot Of Baloney

Will Khrushchev Learn We Mean Business?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — What Nikita Khrushchev sees and learns on his forthcoming visit to the United States could have dangerous consequences. It could conceivably be the forerunner of war, just as the "summit" meeting between Chamberlain and Hitler at Munich in September 1938 was followed a year later by the outbreak of World War II.

Everything depends now, as it did then, on the reaction of the peoples of the democracies. The question really has passed, for the moment, out of the hands of the government at Washington.

If Khrushchev comes to the conclusion after his visit that the American people are so steeped in luxuries and comforts and so engrossed in material pursuits that they will be ready to make peace at any price, the temptation for the Moscow dictator will be to take chances just as Hitler did, and war—at first "limited" and then general — becomes a serious possibility.

Conversely, if the American people show that they have courage and are willing to make sacrifices for ideals, even to the point of losing some day many of their comforts and their luxuries—as they have done three times in the wars of the last half-century—then maybe the Moscow dictator will not miscalculate or take chances, and a world war will be avoided.

Unfortunately, the emphasis, since the trip was first announced, has been on the supposed importance of showing Khrushchev the many fine homes of our workers, or the number of automobiles in the factory parking lots, or the material things that a rich country can boast. Little has been said about how the American people should express their idealism or their sense of horror over the murders and tragedies for which the tyrannical government of the Soviet Union has been responsible in its iron-handed rule over hundreds of millions of people.

Should the American people remain silent, or should they become articulate? The question is being debated quietly in the corridors of Congress. This is a nation where free speech is enjoyed on international as well as national questions. Members of Congress are asking each other frankly what ought to be done by the national legislature itself. Some have thought it would be best to adjourn, so as to avoid the necessity of welcoming Khrushchev at any session of Congress. But upon reflection, others think this would be failing to take advantage of a big opportunity to debate before the world the very issues that Khrushchev himself has again and again discussed in public.

If a Khrushchev speech to a joint session of both Houses of Congress were arranged for, it could mean that President Eisenhower would be given an opportunity to address the Soviet Parliament when he goes to Moscow later this autumn. This would help to get the American point of view across to the Soviets as never before.

If the Soviet Premier is invited to make an address to Congress, time, of course, should be set aside also for those Senators and Representatives who wish to make clear to the American people and to the peoples of all the world that there has been no backing away by the United States from the positions taken on the issues raised in recent years by Communist imperialism.

The whole story of what the Soviet Union has done to upset world peace since 1945 is well documented, but it is not well enough known. At least two days immediately following Khrushchev's visit to Congress might well be given over entirely in each House to speeches publicizing the American point of view toward the "cold war" which was started by the Moscow government.

Many members of Congress would like the opportunity to tell what has happened to the "captive nations" and also to describe the many instances of subversion and infiltration which have been financed by the Moscow regime, not only inside Europe, Africa and Asia, but also in the many countries of North and South America. Countering this form of aggression has cost the free world billions of dollars, apart from defense expenses. Indeed, no democracy in the world will be safe as long as the autocratic government in Moscow continues its worldwide tactics of attempted conquest.

If the reception accorded the Soviet Premier by the American people—granted that it must be courteous and polite—is construed as a seeming acceptance of the Moscow dictator himself in disregard of his crimes and the wrongs inflicted by his government, then it may be that Khrushchev on his return to Moscow will say to his colleagues in the Kremlin something like this:

"Those Americans won't fight—they don't want to lose their comforts. I can force them to give concession after concession. Since they are already frightened of our missiles and nuclear bombs, I can threaten them some more and still get my way without a war. That's how communism can win its biggest victories in the world."

But if the Kremlin leader learns, on the other hand, that the rights and liberties of human beings mean more to the American people than their own material possessions, he will begin to understand what the all-inclusive words of the Declaration of Independence have meant to the cause of freedom. For to support that cause our forefathers said: "We mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

The coming exchange of visits between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was surprisingly well received on Capitol Hill.

Nearly all the Senators and Congressmen who commented were favorable in their remarks, although some had serious reservations. Most of these took the form of concern lest some "screw-ball" attempt to attack the Russian leader, and fears that the Soviet boss would attempt to make propaganda hay out of his American tour.

Prior to announcement of the formal invitation, those in Congress who were opposed to the visit were the most vocal. However, since that time, those favoring the exchange have been persuasive in getting into public print some of the good things that can eventuate from the exchange.

There is a notable air of satisfaction over the knowledge that administration foreign policy leaders, including the President, have demonstrated that they have some diplomatic tricks up their sleeves.

One of the most frequent complaints heard about American foreign policy in recent years was that it was not positive enough, that all the State Department did was react to moves initiated in Moscow.

There is also great relief in the realization that the collapse of the Geneva Foreign Ministers' conference will not result in some new and urgent crisis, for the time being, anyway. The general mood in Washington is that as long as the East and West can be kept talking there will be no shooting.

Proper Refrigeration Prevents Food Poisoning

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Summer diarrhea usually is caused by food poisoning. The disorder is not as common as it was at the turn of the century because of better refrigeration, sanitation, and living conditions.

Everyone in the food industry—from the manufacturer to the housewife—co-operates in making our meals safe. But maintaining our high standards of cleanliness is a constant battle. It is well known that we revert quickly to the old ways when supervision is relaxed, as in war-torn countries.

The files of the Pure Food and Drug administration are filled with reports of nauseating contamination of certain foods. We can thank them for their alertness in such practices. But the person who prepares the meals is the one who assumes the final responsibility of avoiding summer diarrhea.

The cook begins by washing the hands before touching any food. If coughing or sneezing is unavoidable, the mouth should be covered with a hand or a disposable tissue. Rewash the hands immediately. The mouth is a menagerie of bacteria that never should be allowed to enter food.

Germs also get into food from skin infections, a cold or sore throat. The staphylococcus, for example, is the commonest food poisoning agent, as it is the commonest cause of skin infections. When a skin lesion is present, use great caution in handling food.

Insist upon pasteurized milk. Cook pork thoroughly. Keep all perishable foods covered until served, particularly salads, eggs, fish, and meats such as ham. The staphylococcus multiplies rapidly in certain foods at room temperature. These organisms hibernate when refrigerated and are re-vitalized when exposed again at room temperature.

This is the main reason why perishable foods should be consumed within a short time. They must not remain in the open too long.

TONSILITIS NOT FATAL

B. H. writes: Could inflamed tonsils that do not receive attention eventually kill a person?

REPLY

Not unless infection spreads beyond the tonsils and into the brain or the blood stream. These are rare complications and virtually every victim of tonsilitis recovers.

DARNED HERNIA

L. R. writes: How many times can a hernia be repaired?

REPLY

Once more, but this time the surgeon may want to reinforce the bulging part with tantalum or steel wire mesh, a Vitallium plate, a prefabricated patch of laced silver wires, or a patch of cartilage or fibrous tissue.

JABBING PAIN

T. B. writes: What causes occasional bouts of stabbing pain behind the right ear?

REPLY

Fleeting shooting pains behind the ear that come on at intervals usually are not significant. The cause is not known but slight irritation of a nerve in that area often is blamed.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Alice Toklas, indefatigable companion of the late Gertrude Stein, has now stepped out as an authority on French cooking. Her recipes are particularly in demand — particularly "Chinese Ice Cream a la Toklas," composed of "eggs, cream, honey, and green walnuts." "To obtain green walnuts," adds Miss Toklas reasonably enough, "it is helpful to have access to a walnut tree."

DEFINITIONS (from Ambrose Bierce):

EDUCATION:—That which discloses to the wise and disguises from the foolish their lack of understanding.

BIGOT:—One who is obstinately and zealously attached to an opinion that you do not entertain.

DESTINY:—A tyrant's authority for crime and a fool's excuse for failure.

Had he lived, Bierce undoubtedly would have approver a New York psychiatrist's label for emotional strains of gray-flannel commuters: COMMUTENSIONS.

Lyndon Johnson Forced Committee Test Of Ike's Housing Bill Veto

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Senators have been very tight-lipped about what happened inside the Senate Banking Committee when it voted to override the President's housing veto. However, here is the secret debate that led to this important decision.

Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, faithful champion of public housing who had previously voted not to override Ike's veto, opened the closed-door meeting by reading the Washington Merry-Go-Round column, as published in the Washington Post that morning, reporting that "Senate Leader Lyndon Johnson . . . had passed the word to Alabama's amiable Sen. John Sparkman to soften the housing bill instead of attempting to override Ike's veto." . . . and that "In the showdown voting, a Southern-Republican coalition agreed to accept the President's veto and offer him a modified bill."

Sen. Sparkman read the Aug. 11 column from beginning to end, then stated:

"This is something I will not take. I am tired of being charged with being part of a coalition of Republicans and southerners. I demand a vote to override the President."

"I don't know how that information got to Mr. Pearson," remarked Sen. Prescott Bush, Connecticut Republican, "but he was remarkably precise in reporting what happened. I am not going to make any accusations," he concluded, looking at his colleagues.

"As far as I am concerned the column is accurate," volunteered Sen. Paul Douglas, Illinois Democrat, who had been reported as urging a showdown with Eisenhower even if the Democrats were defeated. "I never discuss an executive session and I am sure no member of my staff discussed this with Mr. Pearson."

Lyndon Forced Showdown

One thing that Sparkman did not mention was that he had received a call earlier that morning from Senator Johnson, the Democratic Leader, urging that he reverse himself and vote to override the veto. Johnson was quite frank about this, later told Sen. Bill Proxmire of Wisconsin, his sometime critic:

"I fixed 'em. I called up Sparkman and told him 'You go to the committee and get them to reverse themselves. Vote to override the veto. You've got to do that for me.'"

Sen. Johnson also called Sen. Bill Fulbright of Arkansas, who with Sparkman is strong for housing but originally voted to go along with Eisenhower for a modified bill.

But when Sparkman and Fulbright in the closed-door session switched their position, it was quite embarrassing to a staunch Eisenhower Republican, Sen. Jack Javits of New York, whose state badly needs public housing. He did not want to have to vote to override the President (though subsequently he did), so he moved that the committee proceed with consideration of the new compromise bill.

Sen. Fulbright promptly called for a showdown. "I move to substitute a motion to override the President for the Javits motion," he said.

The Fulbright motion to override carried.

"This," said Senator Bush, "is one of Drew Pearson's greatest triumphs."

Note: This writer, regardless of Sen. Bush, wasn't looking for any triumphs, and the Aug. 11 column wasn't written for the purpose of influencing legislation. Senator Johnson, it might be noted, was politically shrewd in pushing for a test with Eisenhower, even though he lost. He can now show northern Democrats how difficult it is to override a veto. Democratic liberals were also pleased. Said Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon just before the vote to override was defeated by a nine-vote margin: "We're going to lose. But we force every Republican and every Southern Democrat to come out in the open on housing with a better chance to run someone against them next election."

Business Dishonesty vs. Labor

Note: Sen. John McClellan is not only chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee but chairman of the Senate Government Operations Committee. Thus has complete jurisdiction to probe defense contracts and the pressures of the munitions lobby. But he has been totally, almost fanatically absorbed in investigating labor.

There's an interesting contrast between the operation of two congressional committees, both aimed at promoting honesty in the ranks of labor and business.

Committee No. 1, operated by Sen. John McClellan of Arkansas, charged with probing dishonesty of both labor and management, employs a staff of one hundred, has a budget of $750,000, and so far has concentrated almost entirely on labor.

The Fidelity and Deposit Company of Baltimore which insures banks and business houses against crookedness, found that business dishonesty has increased 400 per cent in the past ten years. Half a billion dollars is stolen annually by American businessmen from American business firms. This is at the rate of around $2,000,000 for every working day.

Sen. McClellan's committee on both business and labor has not gone into this alarming record of dishonesty.

Committe No. 2 operated under the chairmanship of Cong. Edward Hebert of Louisiana, charged with investigating pressures, unethical conduct, and dishonesty by what President Eisenhower called "the munitions lobby," has a staff of one attorney and two investigators. The latter are two Louisiana students, whom Cong. Carl Vinson objected to hiring. "What's this, the Louisiana purchase?" he demanded.

"Admiral" Vinson, the name giver to the tough old Georgian who is chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, is temperamentally opposed to any probe which embarrasses his military friends.

However, a really penetrating investigation of the manner in which the big defense contracts are let, the pressures involved, would save the taxpayers millions. Defense spending is the biggest item in the budget and the only place where savings are really possible. With one attorney and only two investigators, however a thorough probe is impossible.

Market Correction

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK — The Stock Market's correction is attributed to the coming visit to the United States of Nikita Khrushchev—the Communist boss.

Those who sold this week on such a belief are in the fortunate position of being right for the wrong reason.

The Stock Market was in a vulnerable position, having risen to all-time new highs, marked by wild bidding up of some of the so-called glamor stocks.

There has been no time in the last 25 years when there has been as many jiggles and manipulations in the market — all under the "watchful" (sic) eyes of the exchanges and the SEC.

Before the correction, stocks were selling 20 times earnings and some of the wild movers like Fairchild Camera on the American Stock Exchange were selling at more than 60 times earnings.

Dividend yields on the average were down to three per cent, compared to around the 4½ per cent return on high grade corporate bonds and recently 4¾ per cent on Treasury bonds.

This is a reversal of the situation of 10 years ago, when bonds in the Triple A classification were yielding 2¾ per cent and less and common stocks more than seven per cent—better than 7¼ per cent for industrial shares.

Ten years ago, bonds were a sale, and the last call for this was when the Federal Reserve started to tighten money.

Stocks were a buy then, and those who bought in '46 or '49 or almost any year up to '56 have made terrific profits. From the lows of 1946 to the highs made in the Aug. 3 week, stocks in the averages have quadrupled in value. The low for the Dow-Jones industrials in '46 was 163.12, and the recent closing high 678.10.

In the last couple of years the market has become more selective, except for some of the fast-stepping electronic issues and the jiggle stocks. Those who bought recently some of the fast movers on tips today are out sizeable sums of money.

The wide spread between bond and stock yields was a danger signal — a warning for caution in further Stock Market commitments. Some of the smart money has been switching from stocks to bonds. With stocks at their recent high levels, and bonds selling at substantial discounts, there was the prospect, not only of higher yields but also a chance for price appreciation in switching part of investment funds into bonds.

The big selling of Aug. 10 was touched off by a weekend wire from a West Coast advisory service. This sell advice was a little late, but it touched off general selling.

Now after the event there is plenty of guessing as to the reasons for being glum after looking at the market through rose-colored glasses as recently as 10 days ago. There also is the usual chorus of "We told you so."

The Khrushchev visit provided the excuse, but hardly the cause. Unless the diplomats have learned nothing from history, there will be no reduction in defense spending. This country will have to continue its military power as long as there is a dictatorship such as that of ruling Russia and also Red China. The Communist goal remains the same.

What the Russians want is expanded trade — and on credit. However desirable this may be—and there is a real question as to this — it can not be on Russian terms. This has been the bale of hay that has been held out to the Western World ever since the U. S. weakened in the 1930's and recognized the Communist regime.

A correction in the market had been overdue, but best opinion is that this will be nothing more than this. Business is excellent, and profits are running ahead of earlier forecasts.

The only cloud is the steel strike. The negotiations for settlement are deadlocked. If the strike extends beyond eight weeks, it could slow down the whole economy. However, there is a good chance that a settlement will be reached right after Labor Day.

Will They Bring Fresh Air Back?

Modern transportation may be horseless, but it is far from smokeless. Any pedestrian not suffering from hay fever or some other obstruction in the sense of smell can attest to the unpleasant stench rising from the streets of every city. If it is any comfort to those who suffer from the peculiar odor of automobiles, buses and trucks in their daily bouts trying to put up with civilization, they are not alone in their misery.

Millions of human beings from small towns to the largest cities cough and grope their way through the maze caused by contemporary man's constant desire to propel himself mechanically from one place to another. The situation has become sufficiently acute in many areas to cause municipal ordinances controlling air pollution to be passed. One state has passed legislation requiring motor vehicle exhaust to meet certain safety requirements.

Perhaps it is the entry of legislatures into the field of exhaust purification which has prompted the auto industry to find means of controlling the menace, or it may be that the precedence given exhaust fumes has just now brought it to the top of the list of engineering research, but at least one U. S. auto manufacturer is committed to aiding those searching for a way to reduce, or preferably eliminate, the noxious effects of gasoline engine exhaust.

General Motors is giving consideration to financing a study of the relation between auto exhaust fumes and lung cancer by the Sloan, Kettering Institute for Cancer Research. GM is correlating this research program with development of an effective filter for automobile exhaust systems.

It will be a relief once again to welcome fresh air back into the city.

These Days

The CPUSA

Two facts are separate and distinct and ne'er the twain shall meet. One is that Soviet Russia is a large and powerful country with which we shall either have peace or war; the other is that the American Communist Party consists of American citizens who engage in subversive activities in their own country and who, when they are caught breaking our laws or doing mischief to our institutions should be treated accordingly.

The fact that Khrushchev is about to visit the United States has nothing whatsoever to do with the American attitude toward our own Communist Party.

This organization is headed by William Z. Foster, who was indicted on July 20, 1948 together with 11 others. The indictment was under the Smith Act and the 11 defendants were tried, found guilty and imprisoned. Foster got off by pleading extreme ill health. His case was separated from the others on the basis of medical testimony to the effect that there was evidence of heart trouble and chronic disease of the blood vessels.

Foster was never brought to trial despite government efforts. However, he had the strength to continue his writing, to attend conferences and to manage the Communist Party in the United States.

Since 1958, Foster, still under indictment, has expressed the wish to go to Russia for "medical treatment." It is an established fact that among the most skillful physicians and surgeons in the world in the cardio-vascular field are Americans. There is no evidence that Soviet Russia has medical personnel who are superior to ours in this specialization or that they have done research in it superior to ours.

The plea to send Foster to Russia for "medical treatment," becomes absurd in view of the possibilities of such treatment here. It will, however, be recalled that when Maurice Thorez, the French Communist leader was ill, he was flown to Russia. Are they afraid of what they might say in their sleep?

Mary Kaufman, Foster's lawyer, on June 24, argued in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, either to dismiss the Smith Act indictment or to extend the limits of Foster's bail so that he could go to Russia for "medical treatment," which she contended was cheaper in Soviet Russia. Actually, Foster could manage to get the necessary treatment free of charge in this country, as thousands do daily in clinics for that purpose. Surely a proletarian leader would not reject a proletarian clinic!

Why does not Foster base his plea on truthful and realistic grounds? Why does he not say that he desires to die in Soviet Russia so that his ashes may be placed in the Kremlin Wall? Why does he not say that he fears to go to an American hospital, lest weakened by sedatives, he tell tales which will send his comrades to prison for espionage?

It is perhaps uncharitable to talk about a sick man in this way, but those who have had Foster's illnesses know that a man can do a great amount of hard work despite a cardiac condition. Modern treatment for such illnesses places almost no limitation upon the kind of work that Foster does, none of which is physical work of any kind. As a matter of fact, the more the patient keeps busy and stops worrying about himself, the better are his chances of a fair recovery.

I can testify from personal experience that a pretty severe case of this sort, to which was added a cancer operation, made me years younger and gayer and stronger. President Eisenhower surely is proof of what can be done. Of course, each case is individual, but Foster has been doing pretty well during the years that he managed to stay out of jail on the plea of illness.

It would seem to me that Foster's cry baby act does not prove any point but that he wants to go to Russia. If they will have him, after he stands trial here for whatever infamies he has committed, why not let him go there. When he dies perhaps they will stick his remains in the Kremlin Wall along with those of John Reed. There was once a person who was called "A Man Without a Country." Maybe that is Foster's ambition. Or is his country really Soviet Russia despite the undeniable fact that he was born and reared in the United States and has lived here in freedom?

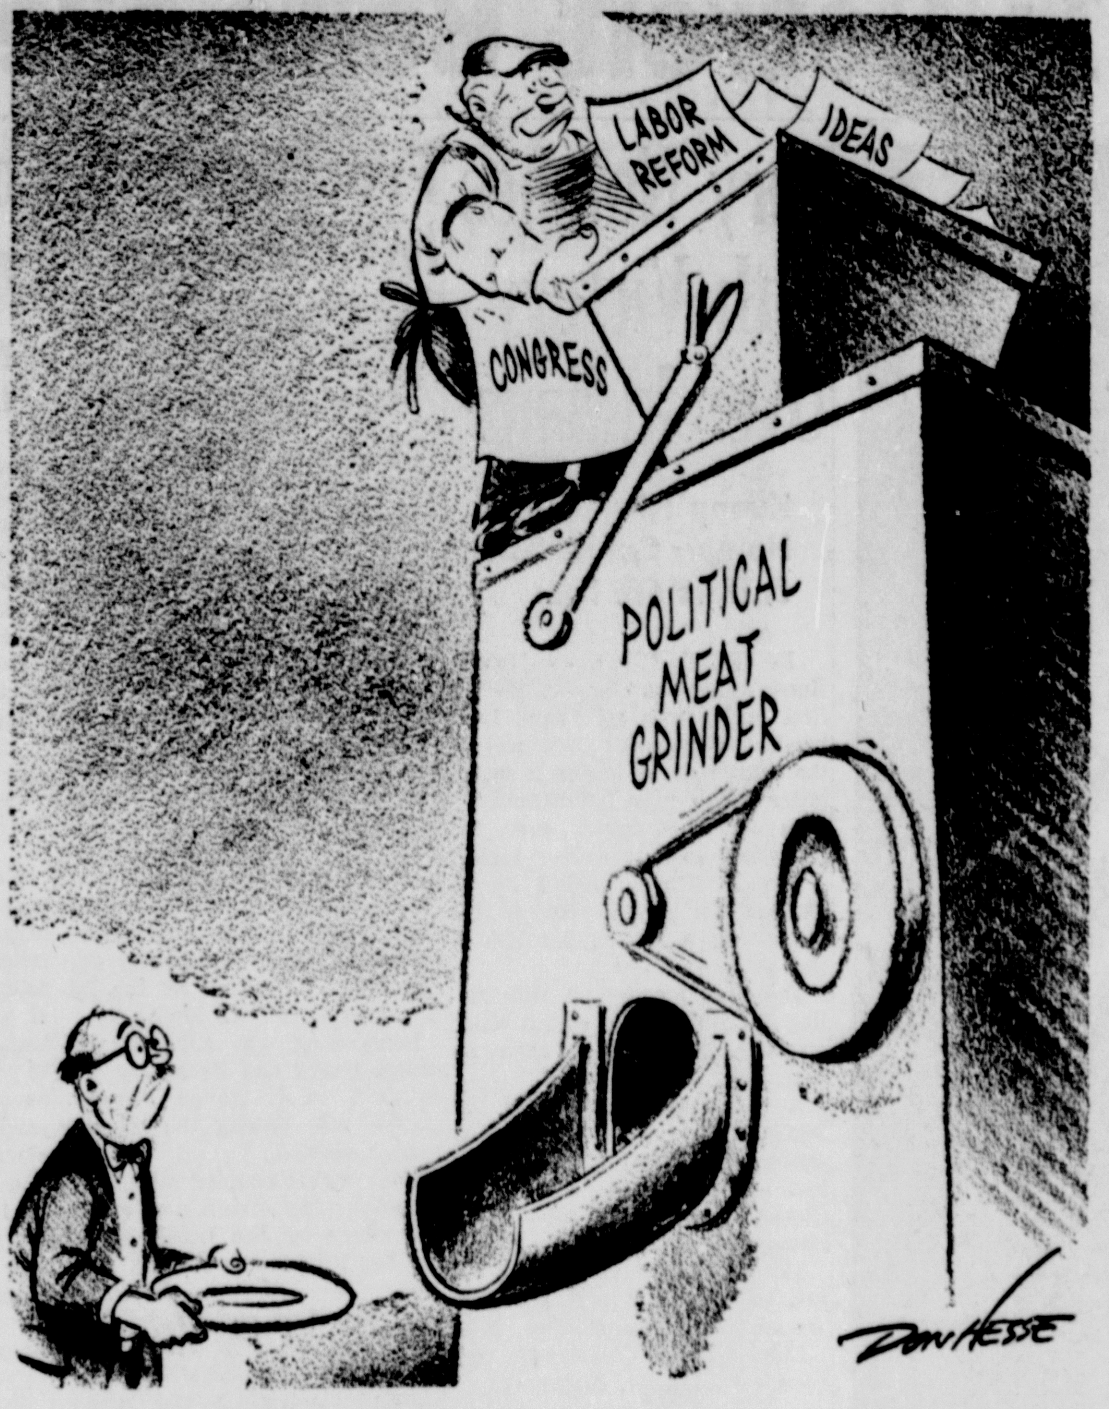
Hope It's Not Just A Lot Of Baloney



Lyndon Johnson Forced Committee Test Of Ike's Housing Bill Veto

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Senators have been very tight-lipped about what happened inside the Senate Banking Committee when it voted to override the President's housing veto. However, here is the secret debate that led to this important decision.

Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, faithful champion of public housing who had previously voted not to override Ike's veto, opened the closed-door meeting by reading the Washington Merry-Go-Round column, as published in the Washington Post that morning, reporting that "Senate Leader Lyndon Johnson . . . had passed the word to Alabama's amiable Sen. John Sparkman to soften the housing bill instead of attempting to override Ike's veto." . . . and that "In the showdown voting, a Southern-Republican coalition agreed to accept the President's veto and offer him a modified bill."

Sen. Sparkman read the Aug. 11 column from beginning to end, then stated:

"This is something I will not take. I am tired of being charged with being part of a coalition of Republicans and southerners. I demand a vote to override the President."

"I don't know how that information got to Mr. Pearson," remarked Sen. Prescott Bush, Connecticut Republican, "but he was remarkably precise in reporting what happened. I am not going to make any accusations," he concluded, looking at his colleagues.

"As far as I am concerned the column is accurate," volunteered Sen. Paul Douglas, Illinois Democrat, who had been reported as urging a showdown with Eisenhower even if the Democrats were defeated. Will Khrushchev Learn We Mean Business?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — What Nikita Khrushchev sees and learns on his forthcoming visit to the United States could have dangerous consequences. It could conceivably be the forerunner of war, just as the "summit" meeting between Chamberlain and Hitler at Munich in September 1938 was followed a year later by the outbreak of World War II.

Everything depends now, as it did then, on the reaction of the peoples of the democracies. The question really has passed, for the moment, out of the hands of the government at Washington.

If Khrushchev comes to the conclusion after his visit that the American people are so steeped in luxuries and comforts and so engrossed in material pursuits that they will be ready to make peace at any price, the temptation for the Moscow dictator will be to take chances just as Hitler did, and war—at first "limited" and then general — becomes a serious possibility.

Conversely, if the American people show that they have courage and are willing to make sacrifices for ideals, even to the point of losing some day many of their comforts and their luxuries—as they have done three times in the wars of the last half-century—then maybe the Moscow dictator will not miscalculate or take chances, and a world war will be avoided.

Unfortunately, the emphasis, since the trip was first announced, has been on the supposed importance of showing Khrushchev the many fine homes of our workers, or the number of automobiles in the factory parking lots, or the material things that a rich country can boast. Little has been said about how the American people should express their idealism or their sense of horror over the murders and tragedies for which the tyrannical government of the Soviet Union has been responsible in its iron-handed rule over hundreds of millions of people.

Should the American people remain silent, or should they become articulate? The question is being debated quietly in the corridors of Congress. This is a nation where free speech is enjoyed on international as well as national questions. Members of Congress are asking each other frankly what ought to be done by the national legislature itself. Some have thought it would be best to adjourn, so as to avoid the necessity of welcoming Khrushchev at any session of Congress. But upon reflection, others think this would be failing to take advantage of a big opportunity to debate before the world the very issues that Khrushchev himself has again and again discussed in public.

If a Khrushchev speech to a joint session of both Houses of Congress were arranged for, it could mean that President Eisenhower would be given an opportunity to address the Soviet Parliament when he goes to Moscow later this autumn. This would help to get the American point of view across to the Soviets as never before.

If the Soviet Premier is invited to make an address to Congress, time, of course, should be set aside also for those Senators and Representatives who wish to make clear to the American people and to the peoples of all the world that there has been no backing away by the United States from the positions taken on the issues raised in recent years by Communist imperialism.

The whole story of what the Soviet Union has done to upset world peace since 1945 is well documented, but it is not well enough known. At least two days immediately following Khrushchev's visit to Congress might well be given over entirely in each House to speeches publicizing the American point of view toward the "cold war" which was started by the Moscow government.

Many members of Congress would like the opportunity to tell what has happened to the "captive nations" and also to describe the many instances of subversion and infiltration which have been financed by the Moscow regime, not only inside Europe, Africa and Asia, but also in the many countries of North and South America. Countering this form of aggression has cost the free world billions of dollars, apart from defense expenses. Indeed, no democracy in the world will be safe as long as the autocratic government in Moscow continues its worldwide tactics of attempted conquest.

If the reception accorded the Soviet Premier by the American people—granted that it must be courteous and polite—is construed as a seeming acceptance of the Moscow dictator himself in disregard of his crimes and the wrongs inflicted by his government, then it may be that Khrushchev on his return to Moscow will say to his colleagues in the Kremlin something like this:

"Those Americans won't fight—they don't want to lose their comforts. I can force them to give concession after concession. Since they are already frightened of our missiles and nuclear bombs, I can threaten them some more and still get my way without a war. That's how communism can win its biggest victories in the world."

But if the Kremlin leader learns, on the other hand, that the rights and liberties of human beings mean more to the American people than their own material possessions, he will begin to understand what the all-inclusive words of the Declaration of Independence have meant to the cause of freedom. For to support that cause our forefathers said: "We mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

The coming exchange of visits between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was surprisingly well received on Capitol Hill.

Nearly all the Senators and Congressmen who commented were favorable in their remarks, although some had serious reservations. Most of these took the form of concern lest some "screw-ball" attempt to attack the Russian leader, and fears that the Soviet boss would attempt to make propaganda hay out of his American tour.

Prior to announcement of the formal invitation, those in Congress who were opposed to the visit were the most vocal. However, since that time, those favoring the exchange have been persuasive in getting into public print some of the good things that can eventuate from the exchange.

There is a notable air of satisfaction over the knowledge that administration foreign policy leaders, including the President, have demonstrated that they have some diplomatic tricks up their sleeves.

One of the most frequent complaints heard about American foreign policy in recent years was that it was not positive enough, that all the State Department did was react to moves initiated in Moscow.

There is also great relief in the realization that the collapse of the Geneva Foreign Ministers' conference will not result in some new and urgent crisis, for the time being, anyway. The general mood in Washington is that as long as the East and West can be kept talking there will be no shooting.

Proper Refrigeration Prevents Food Poisoning

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Summer diarrhea usually is caused by food poisoning. The disorder is not as common as it was at the turn of the century because of better refrigeration, sanitation, and living conditions.

Everyone in the food industry—from the manufacturer to the housewife—co-operates in making our meals safe. But maintaining our high standards of cleanliness is a constant battle. It is well known that we revert quickly to the old ways when supervision is relaxed, as in war-torn countries.

The files of the Pure Food and Drug administration are filled with reports of nauseating contamination of certain foods. We can thank them for their alertness in such practices. But the person who prepares the meals is the one who assumes the final responsibility of avoiding summer diarrhea.

The cook begins by washing the hands before touching any food. If coughing or sneezing is unavoidable, the mouth should be covered with a hand or a disposable tissue. Rewash the hands immediately. The mouth is a menagerie of bacteria that never should be allowed to enter food.

Germs also get into food from skin infections, a cold or sore throat. The staphylococcus, for example, is the commonest food poisoning agent, as it is the commonest cause of skin infections. When a skin lesion is present, use great caution in handling food.

Insist upon pasteurized milk. Cook pork thoroughly. Keep all perishable foods covered until served, particularly salads, eggs, fish, and meats such as ham. The staphylococcus multiplies rapidly in certain foods at room temperature. These organisms hibernate when refrigerated and are re-vitalized when exposed again at room temperature.

This is the main reason why perishable foods should be consumed within a short time. They must not remain in the open too long.

TONSILITIS NOT FATAL

B. H. writes: Could inflamed tonsils that do not receive attention eventually kill a person?

REPLY

Not unless infection spreads beyond the tonsils and into the brain or the blood stream. These are rare complications and virtually every victim of tonsilitis recovers.

DARNED HERNIA

L. R. writes: How many times can a hernia be repaired?

REPLY

Once more, but this time the surgeon may want to reinforce the bulging part with tantalum or steel wire mesh, a Vitallium plate, a prefabricated patch of laced silver wires, or a patch of cartilage or fibrous tissue.

JABBING PAIN

T. B. writes: What causes occasional bouts of stabbing pain behind the right ear?

REPLY

Fleeting shooting pains behind the ear that come on at intervals usually are not significant. The cause is not known but slight irritation of a nerve in that area often is blamed.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Alice Toklas, indefatigable companion of the late Gertrude Stein, has now stepped out as an authority on French cooking. Her recipes are particularly in demand — particularly "Chinese Ice Cream a la Toklas," composed of "eggs, cream, honey, and green walnuts." "To obtain green walnuts," adds Miss Toklas reasonably enough, "it is helpful to have access to a walnut tree."

Lollar hit number 17 in the eighth inning with Earl Torgeson scoring ahead of him to highlight a three-run rally.

The victory gives Shaw a 12-3 record for the year, five of the wins coming at the expense of the Athletics.

Shaw scattered five hits and didn't allow a base runner past second with the exception of the eighth inning when singles by Kent Hadley and Preston Ward produced the Athletics' only run.

The loss was charged to Kucks, his ninth of the season, compared with six victories.

The White Sox stretched the American League lead to 3½ games as the second-place Cleveland Indians were trounced by the Detroit Tigers 11-1 Friday night.

Disallows Protest

CINCINNATI (UPI) — National League President Warren Giles Friday disallowed Thursday's San Francisco Giants' protest of their 20-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs.

Giants Manager Bill Rigney protested because base runner Tony Taylor, who was on third base, fielded a foul grounder off the bat of Ernie Banks in the fifth inning. The Cubs were leading, 10-7, at the time.

Rigney announced the game was being played under protest when the umpires refused to call out Taylor for interference.

The popular mentor was accompanied by his wife, Melba R., and his son Jack, shown in the above photo. Bill Hahn Jr., son of the coach, has been at the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, since July 7. Wheaton is one of the fastest growing communities in Maryland and the high school has an enrollment of 1,500 in the three top grades. Wheaton plays most of its games in the Bi-County League. "Bill" said he hated to leave Cumberland because he had a nice life here but he felt the change offered him greater opportunities. Hahn coached at Piedmont, Spencer and Ridgeley, W. Va., before coming to Fort Hill in 1942.

Lary Notches 15th Victory Over Indians

Kuenn Hits 2-Run Homer; Cal McLish Suffers 6th Loss

DETROIT (UPI) — Harvey Kuenn's two-run homer in the first inning was all Frank Lary needed to post his 15th win of the season as he hurled a seven-hitter which gave the Detroit Tigers an 11-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians Friday night.

Tito Francona spoiled Lary's shutout bid in the top of the ninth with a homer, his 13th of the season.

The Tigers came up with rallies in the third and eighth which produced four runs in each inning.

It was the sixth loss for Cal McLish, Cleveland's starter, as against 14 triumphs. Lary has lost seven decisions.

Miteff Scores Over Johnson

Latter's 13-Bout Win Streak Ends

NEW YORK (AP)—Argentina's Alex Miteff snapped Alonzo Johnson's 13-fight winning streak by bombing away to the body for an unanimous decision Friday night after 10 gruelling rounds.

Johnson weighed 185½, Miteff 208.

The hulking Argentine nailed down the verdict by sweeping the final round on all three official cards. It was simply a matter of too much body punching by Miteff against a faster, lighter man who gave away 22½ pounds and could not tie up his man inside.

Both Referee Mark Conn and Judge Phil Botwinik scored it 6-4 and Judge Leo Birnbaum had it 7-3 all for Miteff. The AP card was 5-3-2 for Miteff. There was an ugly egg-sized lump under Miteff's left eye during the final rounds of the brawl. Johnson, fast-rising Braddock, Pa., contender, had cut open the left eye in the sixth.

There were no knockdowns in the scrap which closed Madison Square Garden to boxing for 10 weeks or until October 23.

Miteff, 24, now has a 19-3-1 record and Johnson, also 24, has a 17-2 record as a pro. His only previous defeat was in a six-round prelim bout with Cortez Stewart in his fifth pro bout. Johnson had beaten Nino Valdes and Willie Pastrano in his last two previous outings.

Score All Stars 0, Baltimore 29.

Third Period

Neither team scored, and the Colts threw back one All Star threat. Baltimore's Rechichar missed a 46-yard field goal attempt and then the Stars got a break when Coronado recovered a fumbled punt by Simpson on the Colt's 16. A pass interference penalty moved the Stars to the 8 and a Ptacek - Dowler, pass carried to three. But Taseff intercepted Ptacek's next pass in the end zone and the Colts advanced to the 45 as the period ended All Stars 0, Baltimore Colts 29.

26,873 See Law Defeat Braves, 2-1

Pittsburgh Home Attendance Soars Over One Million

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Right hander Vernon Law, the Pirates' most successful pitcher this season, recorded his 13th victory on Friday night by beating the Milwaukee Braves, 2-1, before a crowd of 26,873 fans that sent Pittsburgh's paid home attendance soaring over the million mark for the second straight year.

Not even a seven-minute power failure in the fifth inning, when two banks of lights went out could deter Law—the team's top starter — from his well-deserved victory that snapped Milwaukee's six-game winning streak over the Pirates. The season series now stands at two games to four in the Braves' favor.

Elroy Face, ace Pirates reliefer has a 15-0 record overshadowing Law's mark.

The Pirates ripped into the Braves' starter Joey Jay for four singles and their only two runs of the game in the first inning. But that was all the margin Law needed to check Milwaukee on five hits.

Bob Skinner, who had three singles in four trips Friday night, opened the first inning for Pittsburgh with a base hit to left and reached second when Lee Maye booted the ball. Bob Clemente singled home Skinner, stole second and then scored himself on Smoky Burgess' base hit to right. The fourth hit of the inning, a single by Don Hoak, was wasted as Jay got Bill Mazeroski on an infield pop-up to end the inning.

Law, who lost three games earlier this season to Milwaukee, was denied a shutout when the Braves scored their only run in the fourth inning. Hank Aaron started it with a single and moved to second on a fielder's choice. He scored when Maye singled to left.

But after that Law blanked the visitors the rest of the way and at one stretch retired 11 batters in order before issuing his only walk of the game to Eddie Mathews with one out in the ninth.

Law got the final two batters on infield forceouts.

Shaw Chalks Up 12th Victory For League Leaders

KANSAS CITY (UPI) — Sherm Lollar pounded two home runs and Bob Shaw posted his 12th victory as the league - leading Chicago White Sox beat the Kansas City Athletics 5-1 Friday night.

Lollar's 16th home run of the season came in the seventh inning with Jim Landis on third, breaking up a scoreless pitching duel between Shaw and Johnny Kucks.

Lollar hit number 17 in the eighth inning with Earl Torgeson scoring ahead of him to highlight a three-run rally.

The victory gives Shaw a 12-3 record for the year, five of the wins coming at the expense of the Athletics.

Shaw scattered five hits and didn't allow a base runner past second with the exception of the eighth inning when singles by Kent Hadley and Preston Ward produced the Athletics' only run.

The loss was charged to Kucks, his ninth of the season, compared with six victories.

The White Sox stretched the American League lead to 3½ games as the second-place Cleveland Indians were trounced by the Detroit Tigers 11-1 Friday night.

CINCINNATI (UPI) — National League President Warren Giles Friday disallowed Thursday's San Francisco Giants' protest of their 20-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs.

Giants Manager Bill Rigney protested because base runner Tony Taylor, who was on third base, fielded a foul grounder off the bat of Ernie Banks in the fifth inning. The Cubs were leading, 10-7, at the time.

Rigney announced the game was being played under protest when the umpires refused to call out Taylor for interference.

Lary Notches 15th Victory Over Indians

Kuenn Hits 2-Run Homer; Cal McLish Suffers 6th Loss

DETROIT (UPI) — Harvey Kuenn's two-run homer in the first inning was all Frank Lary needed to post his 15th win of the season as he hurled a seven-hitter which gave the Detroit Tigers an 11-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians Friday night.

Tito Francona spoiled Lary's shutout bid in the top of the ninth with a homer, his 13th of the season.

The Tigers came up with rallies in the third and eighth which produced four runs in each inning.

It was the sixth loss for Cal McLish, Cleveland's starter, as against 14 triumphs. Lary has lost seven decisions.

Miteff Scores Over Johnson

Latter's 13-Bout Win Streak Ends

NEW YORK (AP)—Argentina's Alex Miteff snapped Alonzo Johnson's 13-fight winning streak by bombing away to the body for an unanimous decision Friday night after 10 gruelling rounds.

Johnson weighed 185½, Miteff 208.

The hulking Argentine nailed down the verdict by sweeping the final round on all three official cards. It was simply a matter of too much body punching by Miteff against a faster, lighter man who gave away 22½ pounds and could not tie up his man inside.

Both Referee Mark Conn and Judge Phil Botwinik scored it 6-4 and Judge Leo Birnbaum had it 7-3 all for Miteff. The AP card was 5-3-2 for Miteff. There was an ugly egg-sized lump under Miteff's left eye during the final rounds of the brawl. Johnson, fast-rising Braddock, Pa., contender, had cut open the left eye in the sixth.

There were no knockdowns in the scrap which closed Madison Square Garden to boxing for 10 weeks or until October 23.

Miteff, 24, now has a 19-3-1 record and Johnson, also 24, has a 17-2 record as a pro. His only previous defeat was in a six-round prelim bout with Cortez Stewart in his fifth pro bout. Johnson had beaten Nino Valdes and Willie Pastrano in his last two previous outings.

The battle for second place in the Dan Division of the Dapper Dan Little League ended in a three-way tie yesterday when Manager Bob Ziler's Athletics knocked off the Tigers in the final game of the regular season at Constitution Park by the score of 9-3.

As a result of the outcome of yesterday's game the A's will meet the Tigers in a playoff game Monday at 6 p.m., at Penn Avenue Field and the Senators, also involved in the deadlock, will meet the winner later in the week.

Ronnie McFarland won yesterday's game when his mates put on three-run rallies in the 6th and 7th innings. Tommy Zembower was charged with the loss.

The winners collected 10 hits. Blair Norris larruped a pair of three-baggers while Greg Skidmore collected a triple and double.

Eliminate 'Coney, Ellerslie In Two

Frostburg's Little Moes and Mt. Savage advanced to the finals in the Bi-State Pony Baseball League playoffs by eliminating Lonaconing and Ellerslie in games played yesterday at Lonaconing and Ellerslie.

The Little Moes knocked out 'Coney in two straight games, 8-1, and Mt. Savage duplicated the performance against Ellerslie, 16-3.

Marvin "Lefty" Miller, who had handed Frostburg two of its three defeats during the regular season, took the loss and was replaced by Gary Broadwater during a 7-run uprising by the Little Moes in the 5th inning.

Lonaconing was charged with seven errors and Frostburg was outhit 7 to 4. Wayne Harper's double was among the winning team's safeties.

Four walks coupled with a hit batsman, two errors and a two-run single by Jim Diehl marked the big fifth frame for the Little Moes.

Keith Wilson and Gary Broadwater accounted for four of Lonaconing's seven blows and Miller slammed a triple.

No details were provided by Ellerslie on its loss to Mt. Savage.

The Mt. Savage-Frostburg series will get under way Monday at 5:30 p. m. in Frostburg. Yesterday's scores:

Reds Win Pair

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Cincinnati swept a twin bill from Philadelphia Friday night when the Reds overcame an eight-run deficit with a 23-hit attack and a five-run ninth inning rally to win the opener, 15-13, and then took the nightcap, 5-4.

The 23 hits — high for the National League this season — included Frank Robinson's 27th homer. Dick Farrell, the third of five Phillies pitchers, was tagged with the loss. Brooks Lawrence, the fourth Red hurler, was the winner although he was knocked out of the box when the Phils scored in the ninth.

The game went three hours and 45 minutes, just five minutes short of the Chicago-San Francisco record, nine-inning game of Thursday.

Colts Defeat College Stars

NFL Champs Win In Chicago, 29-0

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Baltimore Colts, defending champions of the National Football League, easily defeated the College All-Stars here tonight at Soldier Field by the score of 29-0 before 70,000 spectators.

Baltimore did all its scoring in the first half.

Play-by-play:

First Period

Baltimore struck for eight points in 89 seconds in the closing four minutes. The Colts got two points on a safety when James' pass from center to Sherer, back to punt, went over his head and rolled out of the end zone. Taseff returned the All Stars' free kick 42 yards to the All Star 38 and Unitas passed to Mutscheller for 33 yards. On the second play Unitas passed to Berry for three yards and a touchdown. Myrha's placekicked conversion was wide. The All Stars' Newman completed an 11 yard pass to Sherer to the Stars 34, but two plays lost 17 and the Stars had to punt. The Colts had the ball on their 25 as the period ended. All Stars 0, Baltimore 8.

Second Period

The Baltimore struck for three more touchdowns, two of them after breaks. One came on a 29-yard pass from Unitas to Mutscheller after Addison recovered a punt fumbled by Billy Stacy on the All Stars' 23. Davis got the other "gift" score, intercepting the first pass thrown by Buddy Humphrey and returning 36 yards for a score. The Colts paraded 81 yards in 13 plays for the next score, Unitas passing to Dupre for 13 yards for the tally. Rechichar converted after each touchdown. The period ended with the All Stars in possession on the 37.

Score All Stars 0, Baltimore 29.

Third Period

Neither team scored, and the Colts threw back one All Star threat. Baltimore's Rechichar missed a 46-yard field goal attempt and then the Stars got a break when Coronado recovered a fumbled punt by Simpson on the Colt's 16. A pass interference penalty moved the Stars to the 8 and a Ptacek - Dowler, pass carried to three. But Taseff intercepted Ptacek's next pass in the end zone and the Colts advanced to the 45 as the period ended All Stars 0, Baltimore Colts 29.

26,873 See Law Defeat Braves, 2-1

Pittsburgh Home Attendance Soars Over One Million

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Right hander Vernon Law, the Pirates' most successful pitcher this season, recorded his 13th victory on Friday night by beating the Milwaukee Braves, 2-1, before a crowd of 26,873 fans that sent Pittsburgh's paid home attendance soaring over the million mark for the second straight year.

Not even a seven-minute power failure in the fifth inning, when two banks of lights went out could deter Law—the team's top starter — from his well-deserved victory that snapped Milwaukee's six-game winning streak over the Pirates. The season series now stands at two games to four in the Braves' favor.

Elroy Face, ace Pirates reliefer has a 15-0 record overshadowing Law's mark.

The Pirates ripped into the Braves' starter Joey Jay for four singles and their only two runs of the game in the first inning. But that was all the margin Law needed to check Milwaukee on five hits.

Bob Skinner, who had three singles in four trips Friday night, opened the first inning for Pittsburgh with a base hit to left and reached second when Lee Maye booted the ball. Bob Clemente singled home Skinner, stole second and then scored himself on Smoky Burgess' base hit to right. The fourth hit of the inning, a single by Don Hoak, was wasted as Jay got Bill Mazeroski on an infield pop-up to end the inning.

Law, who lost three games earlier this season to Milwaukee, was denied a shutout when the Braves scored their only run in the fourth inning. Hank Aaron started it with a single and moved to second on a fielder's choice. He scored when Maye singled to left.

But after that Law blanked the visitors the rest of the way and at one stretch retired 11 batters in order before issuing his only walk of the game to Eddie Mathews with one out in the ninth.

Law got the final two batters on infield forceouts.

Cubs Cop Fourth Straight, Trim San Francisco, 7 To 5

Ernie Banks Ups Homer Total To 35

Moryn, Long Get Two-Run Belts; Hobbie Fans Ten

CHICAGO (UPI)—Ernie Banks, Walt Moryn and Dale Long each belted two-run homers Friday for a 7-5 Chicago Cubs' victory over the league-leading San Francisco Giants.

It was the Cubs' fourth straight win.

Banks' blast over the left field wall was his 35th of the season and boosted his league - leading runs batted in total to 110 in 113 games.

The homers gave the Cubs a total of 15 in the last four games and the score brought their run production to 42, with 54 hits, in their current hot streak.

The victory went to Glen Hobbie, who struck out 10 batters before he was lifted for pinch-hitter Long in the seventh with the Cubs trailing, 4-3. Moryn knocked his 10th homer in the sixth to score Irv Noren ahead of him and Long got his second pinch homer in two days.

Long hit Sam Jones' first pitch into the right field bleachers with Al Dark on base. Banks homered off reliever Bud Byerly after Jim Marshall was safe on a force play to drive in the final Chicago runs.

Jones, who has won 15 games, took his 11th defeat.

Lights Go Out, Band Plays On

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The lights went out but the band played on during Friday night's Milwaukee - Pittsburgh game at Forbes Field.

With the Braves at bat in the fifth inning, a power failure knocked out two banks of lights and the umpires immediately called time until repairs could be made.

Meanwhile, a brass band comprised of Pirate rooters gave an impromptu concert for an estimated 30,000 fans for seven minutes until the lights were repaired and the game resumed.

Cumberland Cyclists Have Copped 7 National Hill Climbing Titles

Joe Hemmis Is Only Pro Victor; Takes Fourth Point Crown

Cumberlanders have won seven national motorcycle hill climbing championships in 14 years but Joseph William Hemmis, B&O railroad clerk, became the first local rider to capture the professional crown when he finished in first place in the 18th annual test last Sunday at Muskegon, Michigan.

Prior to this year the six championships won by Cumberlanders were in Class B or amateur competition.

Clarence W. "Tan" Hemmis, father of Joe, was the first local slant rider to annex national honors at Muskegon in 1946. Now a resident of Pittsburgh, "Tan" was a Harley-Davidson dealer for twenty years with headquarters at First Street and Virginia Avenue.

Herbert Fletcher, who now resides near Washington, D. C., was the 1947 winner.

In 1948 the Hemmis Brothers, Joseph and Clarence, better known as "Tee," who now resides in Baltimore, scored a "double" by copping both Class B contests at Port Jervis, N. Y.

Cosgrove Wins Pair

Clement "Buddy" Cosgrove put Cumberland in the spotlight for the fourth straight year when he swept both Class B events in 1949 at Muskegon.

The closest local riders came to winning in the past nine years were a pair of seconds by Jimmy Raupach at Muskegon in 1952 and second place finishes by Joe Hemmis in Class A in 1952 and 1956.

The Hemmis family is credited with winning four of the national titles. Joe, who will observe his 31st birthday on August 18, has scored twice — as an amateur in 1948 and as a professional in 1959.

Injured Winning Title

Last Sunday, Joe cracked the national record with a 6.74 seconds performance. This feat was accomplished on a 340-foot sodded runway with a 65 per cent grade. In winning the title Hemmis suffered a badly bruised and swollen left hand the result of turning his machine on its side to avoid striking trees after he had scaled the top of Mt. Garfield traveling at terrific speed.

Charley Jacob, of Bangor, Pa., was runner-up in 7.00, followed by the veteran Howard Mitzel, York, Pa. (7.14), Kenneth Hattan, Woodbridge, Ont., Canada, fourth (7.22) and Willard Bryan, Groveport, Ohio, fifth (7.35).

Cops 4th Point Crown

Commencing in 1947, Joe Hemmis has participated in 13 consecutive national meets at Muskegon, Mich.; York, Pa.; Laconia, N. H.; Bethlehem, Pa., and Port Jervis, N. Y., and he has finished "in the money" every year.

This, he considers his greatest year on the motorcycle hill climbing circuit as he won the national point scoring title for the fourth time in six years (1954, 1955, 1958 and 1959), copped 20 first places in 25 events in 22 different cities and hung up nine new hill records at Frederick, Md.; Johnstown, Williamsport and Washington, Pa.; Hornell, Rochester and Utica, N. Y.; East Palestine, Ohio, and Muskegon, Mich.

Runs True To Form

A coincidence is that the top three point scorers in the nation this year finished in that order in the national professional hill climbing contest. Hemmis rolled up 119 points, Jacob was second with 88 and Mitzel finished third with 71.

For the past five years, Hemmis has been successful with an English Triumph motor. He rode Harley-Davidson machines prior to that.

CHAMP EARNS TROPHY — Joseph William Hemmis, of Cumberland, won the national professional motorcycle hill climbing championship last Sunday in the record-breaking time of 6.74 seconds on the 340-foot Mt. Garfield course in Muskegon, Michigan. He was competing in the national event for the 13th consecutive year. In 1948 Hemmis won the national amateur title at Port Jervis, N. Y. Joe is also the nation's leading point scorer this year with 119 markers. He copped this honor for the fourth time in six years. Hemmis is shown above with the handsome trophy he won on the shores of Lake Michigan in the 18th annual hill climb in which 13 pros from the U. S. and Canada participated.

Aussies Held Even By India

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (UPI)—Australian Neale Fraser checked India's Davis Cup upset bid whipping Premjit Lall, 10-8, 6-4, 6-1, Friday after Indian Ramanathan Krishnan opened the interzone series by upsetting Aussie Rod Laver, 6-1, 6-4, 8-10, 6-4, at Longwood Cricket Club.

The powerful Krishnan placed Australia's Davis Cup campaign in a purely temporary jeopardy when his easy victory over Laver marked the first time the Down Under delegation has been behind in five preliminary cup conquests.

Krishnan and Lall will pair to meet an Australian doubles team, probably Mal Anderson and Fraser, Saturday and a pair of singles matches Sunday will complete the interzone matches.

The teams were competing for the right to challenge the cup-holding United States squad at Forest Hills, N.Y., Aug. 28-30.

Reach Finals

Legion Plans Regional At College Park

Five Teams To Vie In Games Next Week

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—The defending champion and four other teams will play in the National American Legion Junior Baseball Regional Championship Playoffs Aug. 19-23 on the University of Maryland campus.

The national commissioner of the program, former Philadelphia Athletics pitcher Lou Brissie, said the defending champions of Washington Gas Light Post No. 44 will play in the first game at 10 a.m. Wednesday meeting the Laurence Roberts Post No. 21 of Wilmington, Del.

The District of Columbia champions, managed by Harry Jacobs of Falls Church, Va., are undefeated in this year's tournament play. The Wilmington team is managed by Walter Sylvester.

The second game opening day, at 2:30 p.m., will pit the Maryland champion and the West Virginia titlist.

West Virginia's team is Parkersburg Post No. 15 which will be playing in the regional for the first time. The squad managed by Bernie Deem has a 33-8 record. Greenbelt Post No. 136, managed by Ed Leffson, is competing in its second regional having also won the state championship last year.

The fifth team in the double elimination tournament is a Canal Zone squad from Panama. With a first round bye, Panama will play the winner of the opening game at 10 a.m. Thursday.

The loser of the Delaware-D.C. game will meet the loser of the West Virginia-Maryland game at 2:30 p.m. Thursday. Then double-headers will be played at 10 and 2:30 daily until four of the five teams have lost two games.

Tournament Director John W. Sloan said one important rule change has been made to protect the young pitchers. "No player may pitch more than 12 innings or make more than three appearances in combining the total of any three-day calendar period," he said.

Mike Souchak Snatches Lead In Motor City

Arnold Palmer's 135 Is Three Shots Back

DETROIT (AP) — The early pacesetters wilted in the 90-degree heat Friday and burly Mike Souchak came out of nowhere with a blistering 63 that equalled the course record and gave him the halfway lead in the $25,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament.

Souchak's 132 total gave him a three-stroke lead over Arnold Palmer.

Hitting 16 greens in regulation and using only 26 putts, the former Duke University football player gave the Meadowbrook Country Club course its worst beating in a decade.

Not since Bob Hamilton fired an eight-under-par 63 back in 1949 has such an assault been made. Byron Nelson first established the Meadowbrook mark in 1946.

First round leader Mason Rudolph, Dow Finsterwald and Frank Stranhan, who trailed Rudolph by a single stroke, all went over par Friday as the field of 148 reached the cutdown stage.

Rudolph from Clarksville, Tenn., faded to a 75 while Finsterwald and Stranahan were going around the 6,616-yard layout in 73.

Souchak banged in seven birdies and an eagle. The only time he went over par was when his second shot sailed over the 16th green and into a trap. Souchak needed five strokes to get down on this par-four hole.

Palmer nailed down second place with a sizzling 66 after an opening round 69, for a 36-hole total of 135 that left him three strokes behind Souchak.

Rudolph's 75 left him even with par at 142 and 10 strokes off the pace. Finsterwald and Stranahan were at 141.

VFW Capture Series Opener

Beats Toy Shop By Score Of 4-3

Manager Earl Drenning's V. F. W. tossers drew first blood in the battle for the championship of the Rec High School Baseball League by nosing out the Toy Shop in the opener of the best-of-three game title series yesterday at Stitcher Field by the score of 4-3.

The Vets put the game on ice in the top of the fifth by scoring twice to overcome a 3-2 lead. Allan Stevenson singled home the tying marker after Mike Clark was safe on an error and advanced to second and "Buck" Whiteman squeezed over what proved to be the deciding tally.

Only seven hits were made in the contest—four by the Vets and three by the Toy Shop. Roger Growden pounded a triple and double and Jack Weltman and Stevenson garnered singles for the first half champions. Gary Henry contributed a two-run single during the Toy Shop's three-run rally in the fourth frame. Puffenberger and Shipway had the other hits for the losing team.

"Butch" Bosley, losing pitcher, struck out six while Stevenson whiffed four.

The second game of the series is billed for Monday at Fort Hill Field at 6:15 p. m. Score:

VFW	010 120 0—	4	4	4
Toy Shop	000 300 0—	3	3	4

A. Stevenson and C. Kean. B. Bosley and B. Cross.

Tom Thumb Sets Record At Saratoga

Beats Tick Tock By Seven Lengths

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (UPI)—Tom Thumb, recovering from a slow start, set a Saratoga record of 1:22 4-5 for seven furlongs Friday while winning the $29,200 American Legion Handicap.

Going postward as an 11-1 choice, Tom Thumb beat favored Tick Tock by seven lengths while clipping a fifth of a second off the old mark set by Sport Page in 1950.

Discard was three-quarters of a length back of Tick Tock for third place and a length ahead of Besomer.

Tom Thumb, with Jockey Eldon Nelsón aboard, was in sixth place after a quarter-mile, but then picked up speed. Nelson moved the 4-year-old son of Tom Fool in front entering the stretch and extended a length lead to seven at the finish.

It was the first stakes victory of the year for the bay gelding. His prize money of $18,680 earned in the American Legion eclipsed the total of $14,720 won in 10 previous starts.

Tom Thumb paid $23.30, $8.30 and $4.90 for his third triumph. Tick Tock returned $3.20 and $2.80, and Discard $4.70.

American Football League Is Formed, Six Get Franchises

CHIAGO (UPI) — A second professional football league, to be called the American Football League, was officially formed Friday night and franchises were announced for six cities.

Lamar Hunt of Dallas, Tex., announced that teams would be formed in Dallas, Houston, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Denver, New York and Los Angeles.

Hunt said Barron Hilton son of hotel magnate Conrad N. Hilton, would head the Los Angeles franchise.

Hunt, the founder of the league, said it planned to begin its first full schedule of play in 1960.

Hunt said the league might expand to eight teams, with the other two coming from Seattle, Buffalo, San Francisco, Miami or Kansas City. It was also reported that New Orleans was the possible seat of a new franchise.

Cubs Cop Fourth Straight, Trim San Francisco, 7 To 5

Ernie Banks Ups Homer Total To 35

Moryn, Long Get Two-Run Belts; Hobbie Fans Ten

CHICAGO (UPI)—Ernie Banks, Walt Moryn and Dale Long each belted two-run homers Friday for a 7-5 Chicago Cubs' victory over the league-leading San Francisco Giants.

It was the Cubs' fourth straight win.

Banks' blast over the left field wall was his 35th of the season and boosted his league - leading runs batted in total to 110 in 113 games.

The homers gave the Cubs a total of 15 in the last four games and the score brought their run production to 42, with 54 hits, in their current hot streak.

The victory went to Glen Hobbie, who struck out 10 batters before he was lifted for pinch-hitter Long in the seventh with the Cubs trailing, 4-3. Moryn knocked his 10th homer in the sixth to score Irv Noren ahead of him and Long got his second pinch homer in two days.

Long hit Sam Jones' first pitch into the right field bleachers with Al Dark on base. Banks homered off reliever Bud Byerly after Jim Marshall was safe on a force play to drive in the final Chicago runs.

Jones, who has won 15 games, took his 11th defeat.

Lights Go Out, Band Plays On

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The lights went out but the band played on during Friday night's Milwaukee - Pittsburgh game at Forbes Field.

With the Braves at bat in the fifth inning, a power failure knocked out two banks of lights and the umpires immediately called time until repairs could be made.

Meanwhile, a brass band comprised of Pirate rooters gave an impromptu concert for an estimated 30,000 fans for seven minutes until the lights were repaired and the game resumed.

Cumberland Cyclists Have Copped 7 National Hill Climbing Titles

Joe Hemmis Is Only Pro Victor; Takes Fourth Point Crown

Cumberlanders have won seven national motorcycle hill climbing championships in 14 years but Joseph William Hemmis, B&O railroad clerk, became the first local rider to capture the professional crown when he finished in first place in the 18th annual test last Sunday at Muskegon, Michigan.

Prior to this year the six championships won by Cumberlanders were in Class B or amateur competition.

Clarence W. "Tan" Hemmis, father of Joe, was the first local slant rider to annex national honors at Muskegon in 1946. Now a resident of Pittsburgh, "Tan" was a Harley-Davidson dealer for twenty years with headquarters at First Street and Virginia Avenue.

Herbert Fletcher, who now resides near Washington, D. C., was the 1947 winner.

In 1948 the Hemmis Brothers, Joseph and Clarence, better known as "Tee," who now resides in Baltimore, scored a "double" by copping both Class B contests at Port Jervis, N. Y.

Cosgrove Wins Pair

Clement "Buddy" Cosgrove put Cumberland in the spotlight for the fourth straight year when he swept both Class B events in 1949 at Muskegon.

The closest local riders came to winning in the past nine years were a pair of seconds by Jimmy Raupach at Muskegon in 1952 and second place finishes by Joe Hemmis in Class A in 1952 and 1956.

The Hemmis family is credited with winning four of the national titles. Joe, who will observe his 31st birthday on August 18, has scored twice — as an amateur in 1948 and as a professional in 1959.

Injured Winning Title

Last Sunday, Joe cracked the national record with a 6.74 seconds performance. This feat was accomplished on a 340-foot sodded runway with a 65 per cent grade. In winning the title Hemmis suffered a badly bruised and swollen left hand the result of turning his machine on its side to avoid striking trees after he had scaled the top of Mt. Garfield traveling at terrific speed.

Charley Jacob, of Bangor, Pa., was runner-up in 7.00, followed by the veteran Howard Mitzel, York, Pa. (7.14), Kenneth Hattan, Woodbridge, Ont., Canada, fourth (7.22) and Willard Bryan, Groveport, Ohio, fifth (7.35).

Cops 4th Point Crown

Commencing in 1947, Joe Hemmis has participated in 13 consecutive national meets at Muskegon, Mich.; York, Pa.; Laconia, N. H.; Bethlehem, Pa., and Port Jervis, N. Y., and he has finished "in the money" every year.

This, he considers his greatest year on the motorcycle hill climbing circuit as he won the national point scoring title for the fourth time in six years (1954, 1955, 1958 and 1959), copped 20 first places in 25 events in 22 different cities and hung up nine new hill records at Frederick, Md.; Johnstown, Williamsport and Washington, Pa.; Hornell, Rochester and Utica, N. Y.; East Palestine, Ohio, and Muskegon, Mich.

Runs True To Form

A coincidence is that the top three point scorers in the nation this year finished in that order in the national professional hill climbing contest. Hemmis rolled up 119 points, Jacob was second with 88 and Mitzel finished third with 71.

For the past five years, Hemmis has been successful with an English Triumph motor. He rode Harley-Davidson machines prior to that.

CHAMP EARNS TROPHY — Joseph William Hemmis, of Cumberland, won the national professional motorcycle hill climbing championship last Sunday in the record-breaking time of 6.74 seconds on the 340-foot Mt. Garfield course in Muskegon, Michigan. He was competing in the national event for the 13th consecutive year. In 1948 Hemmis won the national amateur title at Port Jervis, N. Y. Joe is also the nation's leading point scorer this year with 119 markers. He copped this honor for the fourth time in six years. Hemmis is shown above with the handsome trophy he won on the shores of Lake Michigan in the 18th annual hill climb in which 13 pros from the U. S. and Canada participated.

Aussies Held Even By India

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (UPI)—Australian Neale Fraser checked India's Davis Cup upset bid whipping Premjit Lall, 10-8, 6-4, 6-1, Friday after Indian Ramanathan Krishnan opened the interzone series by upsetting Aussie Rod Laver, 6-1, 6-4, 8-10, 6-4, at Longwood Cricket Club.

The powerful Krishnan placed Australia's Davis Cup campaign in a purely temporary jeopardy when his easy victory over Laver marked the first time the Down Under delegation has been behind in five preliminary cup conquests.

Krishnan and Lall will pair to meet an Australian doubles team, probably Mal Anderson and Fraser, Saturday and a pair of singles matches Sunday will complete the interzone matches.

The teams were competing for the right to challenge the cup-holding United States squad at Forest Hills, N.Y., Aug. 28-30.

Reach Finals

Legion Plans Regional At College Park

Five Teams To Vie In Games Next Week

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—The defending champion and four other teams will play in the National American Legion Junior Baseball Regional Championship Playoffs Aug. 19-23 on the University of Maryland campus.

The national commissioner of the program, former Philadelphia Athletics pitcher Lou Brissie, said the defending champions of Washington Gas Light Post No. 44 will play in the first game at 10 a.m. Wednesday meeting the Laurence Roberts Post No. 21 of Wilmington, Del.

The District of Columbia champions, managed by Harry Jacobs of Falls Church, Va., are undefeated in this year's tournament play. The Wilmington team is managed by Walter Sylvester.

The second game opening day, at 2:30 p.m., will pit the Maryland champion and the West Virginia titlist.

West Virginia's team is Parkersburg Post No. 15 which will be playing in the regional for the first time. The squad managed by Bernie Deem has a 33-8 record. Greenbelt Post No. 136, managed by Ed Leffson, is competing in its second regional having also won the state championship last year.

The fifth team in the double elimination tournament is a Canal Zone squad from Panama. With a first round bye, Panama will play the winner of the opening game at 10 a.m. Thursday.

The loser of the Delaware-D.C. game will meet the loser of the West Virginia-Maryland game at 2:30 p.m. Thursday. Then doubleheaders will be played at 10 and 2:30 daily until four of the five teams have lost two games.

Tournament Director John W. Sloan said one important rule change has been made to protect the young pitchers. "No player may pitch more than 12 innings or make more than three appearances in combining the total of any three-day calendar period," he said.

Mike Souchak Snatches Lead In Motor City

Arnold Palmer's 135 Is Three Shots Back

DETROIT (AP) — The early pacesetters wilted in the 90-degree heat Friday and burly Mike Souchak came out of nowhere with a blistering 63 that equalled the course record and gave him the halfway lead in the $25,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament.

Souchak's 132 total gave him a three-stroke lead over Arnold Palmer.

Hitting 16 greens in regulation and using only 26 putts, the former Duke University football player gave the Meadowbrook Country Club course its worst beating in a decade.

Not since Bob Hamilton fired an eight-under-par 63 back in 1949 has such an assault been made. Byron Nelson first established the Meadowbrook mark in 1946.

First round leader Mason Rudolph, Dow Finsterwald and Frank Stranhan, who trailed Rudolph by a single stroke, all went over par Friday as the field of 148 reached the cutdown stage.

Rudolph from Clarksville, Tenn., faded to a 75 while Finsterwald and Stranahan were going around the 6,616-yard layout in 73.

Souchak banged in seven birdies and an eagle. The only time he went over par was when his second shot sailed over the 16th green and into a trap. Souchak needed five strokes to get down on this par-four hole.

Palmer nailed down second place with a sizzling 66 after an opening round 69, for a 36-hole total of 135 that left him three strokes behind Souchak.

Rudolph's 75 left him even with par at 142 and 10 strokes off the pace. Finsterwald and Stranahan were at 141.

Beats Toy Shop By Score Of 4-3

Manager Earl Drenning's V. F. W. tossers drew first blood in the battle for the championship of the Rec High School Baseball League by nosing out the Toy Shop in the opener of the best-of-three game title series yesterday at Stitcher Field by the score of 4-3.

The Vets put the game on ice in the top of the fifth by scoring twice to overcome a 3-2 lead. Allan Stevenson singled home the tying marker after Mike Clark was safe on an error and advanced to second and "Buck" Whiteman squeezed over what proved to be the deciding tally.

Only seven hits were made in the contest—four by the Vets and three by the Toy Shop. Roger Growden pounded a triple and double and Jack Weltman and Stevenson garnered singles for the first half champions. Gary Henry contributed a two-run single during the Toy Shop's three-run rally in the fourth frame. Puffenberger and Shipway had the other hits for the losing team.

"Butch" Bosley, losing pitcher, struck out six while Stevenson whiffed four.

The second game of the series is billed for Monday at Fort Hill Field at 6:15 p. m. Score:

VFW .... 010 120 0— 4 4 4

Tom Thumb Sets Record At Saratoga

Beats Tick Tock By Seven Lengths

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (UPI)—Tom Thumb, recovering from a slow start, set a Saratoga record of 1:22 4-5 for seven furlongs Friday while winning the $29,200 American Legion Handicap.

Going postward as an 11-1 choice, Tom Thumb beat favored Tick Tock by seven lengths while clipping a fifth of a second off the old mark set by Sport Page in 1950.

Discard was three-quarters of a length back of Tick Tock for third place and a length ahead of Besomer.

Tom Thumb, with Jockey Eldon Nelson aboard, was in sixth place after a quarter-mile, but then picked up speed. Nelson moved the 4-year-old son of Tom Fool in front entering the stretch and extended a length lead to seven at the finish.

It was the first stakes victory of the year for the bay gelding. His prize money of $18,680 earned in the American Legion eclipsed the total of $14,720 won in 10 previous starts.

Tom Thumb paid $23.30, $8.30 and $4.90 for his third triumph. Tick Tock returned $3.20 and $2.80, and Discard $4.70.

American Football League Is Formed, Six Get Franchises

CHIAGO (UPI) — A second professional football league, to be called the American Football League, was officially formed Friday night and franchises were announced for six cities.

Lamar Hunt of Dallas, Tex., announced that teams would be formed in Dallas, Houston, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Denver, New York and Los Angeles.

Hunt said Barron Hilton son of hotel magnate Conrad N. Hilton, would head the Los Angeles franchise.

Hunt, the founder of the league, said it planned to begin its first full schedule of play in 1960.

Hunt said the league might expand to eight teams, with the other two coming from Seattle, Buffalo, San Francisco, Miami or Kansas City. It was also reported that New Orleans was the possible seat of a new franchise.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—If Dina Merrill wanted to lead the life of a rich, idle matron, she could do it. She's not only the daughter of one of the richest women in the country, Mrs. Meriweather Post May, but she's the wife of wealthy Stanley Rumbough, Jr. But Dina prefers the career of an actress, and I must say with some justification. She has talent, she's very easy on the eye, in addition to being a very chic woman.

All this leads me to say that Dina now has herself the top role of her career. She's been signed for an important part in Fred Zinnemann's picture, "The Sundowners," with Deborah Kerr, Robert Mitchum and Peter Ustinov. Zinnemann, who will make the picture for Warner Bros., is now in England. He's sent for Dina to come to London for wardrobe tests. She then goes to Australia where most of the picture will be filmed.

Talked with Natalie Wood and Bob Wagner after they came home by train from their happy holiday in the East. Frank Sinatra, of all people, travelled with them. He's usually in such a hurry he travels by air.

The first date Natalie and Bob have is to discuss "Ever For Each Other," the Robert Thom novel which Pandro Berman will make for MGM.

"On my Warner contract I can make an outside picture," Natalie said, "but Bob still has to get permission from 20th Century-Fox because he is under exclusive contract to them."

Bob said, "I am quite sure Buddy Adler will let me do it, because they have nothing ready for me."

Both Natalie and Bob are delighted with the idea of Michael Anderson directing "Ever for Each Other."

Patti Page has been asked to read with Burt Lancaster for an important role in Sinclair Lewis' "Elmer Gantry." Director Richard Brooks is eager to get Patti, and of course, I think she would be superb—she's such a good actress on her TV shows.

She will probably sing too, in "Gantry" since there are some religious songs in the picture, but the story is strictly drama, and this would be Patti's debut as a dramatic actress.

"Pillow Talk" gave me a lot of laughs and those who were at the sneak preview apparently shared my enjoyment because you couldn't hear some of the dialogue there was so much laughter. There's the very funny business of the drunken maid, played by that incomparable comedienne, Thelma Ritter, who arrives at work plastered—if you'll pardon my French—every morning, getting out of the elevator run by that very funny man, Allen Jenkins.

Rock Hudson sings in just the kind of corny voice you'd expect from a song writer—I've never known one of them who had a really good singing voice. Doris Day, who is one of the most expert comediennes in the movies, is excellently cast as an interior decorator, and Doris of course sings beautifully. Tony Randall scores as the rich playboy in love with Doris. "Pillow Talk" will do, in a comedy way, for Ross Hunter what "Imitation of Life" did dramatically. Ross is assisted in producing by Marty Melcher with Michael Gordon as director.

I have just had a cable from Rome with the news that Sophia Loren has virtually become a recluse since her husband Carlo Ponti arrived in Italy. Sophia got such a warm reception from her fellow countrymen that she and Ponti decided to see what would happen if he visited Rome. So far, no trouble.

Clark Gable, who stars in "Bay of Naples" with Sophia, is being mobbed by fans in Rome. Clark said, "I didn't realize they cared so much." He and his family are living in a 16th Century stone villa outside of Rome, formerly occupied by Audrey Hepburn.

St. Patrick's To Hold Parish Picnic Tomorrow

Plans for a parish picnic Sunday have been completed by the Men of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, according to Casper R. Taylor Jr., president, who said the picnic will be held at the SS. Peter and Paul grounds on Mason Road.

J. Arthur McDade has been appointed general chairman of the event which will feature games and entertainment for children. The picnic will be the first such parish event in nearly ten years, McDade said, and it is hoped to make it an annual affair.

Bus transportation has been arranged for the Mason Road site, the chairman said. The picnic will be a basket affair, although refreshments and soft drinks will be available.

Chairmen have been selected for the various aspects of the program, but volunteers are still needed, McDade said. Persons interested in helping should contact either the general chairman or the president.

The picnic will be staged from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m., and workers are to meet following the 7 a. m. mass Sunday.

The parish event is the first project to be sponsored by the recently-organized men's club, Taylor explaining that the organization has adopted a six-month program of activities aimed at parish-wide participation.

Rec Department Building Exhibit For Local Fair

The City Recreation Department is constructing an exhibit for the Cumberland Fair, according to C. Eugene Mason, recreation director. The Fair will be held next week.

The exhibit will be on the theme, "Recreation, the Way of Life—Family Plan," Mason said. The scene will depict the activities that have been conducted on playgrounds and recreation areas in which families could participate during the summer season, now ending.

Mrs. Eva Hogan, assistant recreation director, is in charge of the Fair exhibit. Assisting are Mrs. Marian Wilson, arts and crafts instructor, and Miss Judy Snyder, leader at Gephart Playground.

The final intra-city event of the summer season was held Thursday, Mrs. Hogan pointed out. The event was a rock 'n roll contest in which an estimated 100 youngsters participated.

The Recreation Department is assisting in arrangements for the concluding activities at the city's 14 playgrounds, Mrs. Hogan said, explaining that the season will close next week. City equipment at the separate playfields will be checked during the coming week also, she added.

The 1959 season has been one of the most successful on record, Mrs. Hogan said, pointing out that more than 3,000 children were registered at the 14 playlots.

Despite a drastically cut budget, the department was able to open two new facilities this season. These are the Little League baseball field and tennis courts at Constitution Park.

Constrution Firm Reports Theft

George Largent, owner of the Largent Construction Company, complained to City Police yesterday that his warehouse at the rear of 101 Potomac Street was broken into and about 500 pounds of copper and lead were stolen during the night.

According to Detective George Furstenberg, who investigated, a full tank of gas from a truck parked nearby was also taken. The intruders left behind another load of copper that was outside the building.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—If Dina Merrill wanted to lead the life of a rich, idle matron, she could do it. She's not only the daughter of one of the richest women in the country, Mrs. Meriweather Post May, but she's the wife of wealthy Stanley Rumbough, Jr. But Dina prefers the career of an actress, and I must say with some justification. She has talent, she's very easy on the eye, in addition to being a very chic woman.

All this leads me to say that Dina now has herself the top role of her career. She's been signed for an important part in Fred Zinnemann's picture, "The Sundowners," with Deborah Kerr, Robert Mitchum and Peter Ustinov. St. Patrick's To Hold Parish Picnic Tomorrow

Plans for a parish picnic Sunday have been completed by the Men of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, according to Casper R. Taylor Jr., president, who said the picnic will be held at the SS. Peter and Paul grounds on Mason Road.

J. Arthur McDade has been appointed general chairman of the event which will feature games and entertainment for children. The picnic will be the first such parish event in nearly ten years, McDade said, and it is hoped to make it an annual affair.

Bus transportation has been arranged for the Mason Road site, the chairman said. The picnic will be a basket affair, although refreshments and soft drinks will be available.

Chairmen have been selected for the various aspects of the program, but volunteers are still needed, McDade said. Persons interested in helping should contact either the general chairman or the president.

The picnic will be staged from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m., and workers are to meet following the 7 a. m. mass Sunday.

The parish event is the first project to be sponsored by the recently-organized men's club, Taylor explaining that the organization has adopted a six-month program of activities aimed at parish-wide participation.

About 62 per cent of American husbands help their wives with the housework.

Rec Department Building Exhibit For Local Fair

The City Recreation Department is constructing an exhibit for the Cumberland Fair, according to C. Eugene Mason, recreation director. The Fair will be held next week.

The exhibit will be on the theme, "Recreation, the Way of Life—Family Plan," Mason said. The scene will depict the activities that have been conducted on playgrounds and recreation areas in which families could participate during the summer season, now ending.

Mrs. Eva Hogan, assistant recreation director, is in charge of the Fair exhibit. Assisting are Mrs. Marian Wilson, arts and crafts instructor, and Miss Judy Snyder, leader at Gephart Playground.

The final intra-city event of the summer season was held Thursday, Mrs. Hogan pointed out. The event was a rock 'n roll contest in which an estimated 100 youngsters participated.

The Recreation Department is assisting in arrangements for the concluding activities at the city's 14 playgrounds, Mrs. Hogan said, explaining that the season will close next week. City equipment at the separate playfields will be checked during the coming week also, she added.

The 1959 season has been one of the most successful on record, Mrs. Hogan said, pointing out that more than 3,000 children were registered at the 14 playlots.

Despite a drastically cut budget, the department was able to open two new facilities this season. These are the Little League baseball field and tennis courts at Constitution Park.

Constrution Firm Reports Theft

George Largent, owner of the Largent Construction Company, complained to City Police yesterday that his warehouse at the rear of 101 Potomac Street was broken into and about 500 pounds of copper and lead were stolen during the night.

According to Detective George Furstenberg, who investigated, a full tank of gas from a truck parked nearby was also taken. The intruders left behind another load of copper that was outside the building.

Stocks Advance Through Another Dull Session

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks advanced Friday another dull session.

Non-ferrous metals and some of the chemicals provided the market leadership in this session. There were numerous gains of a point or more in the main list, with most of the strength appearing in issues outside the group used to compile the averages.

Sales in the week's final session dwindled to 1,990,000 shares, which was the least for any session since March 10, 1958. Sales Thursday came to 2,020,000 shares.

Lack of any concerted selling was an important contributing factor behind the market's rise. Brokers in the weeks ahead look for irregularity in stock prices with the possibility of some further downside tests.

Du Pont rose 2½ points in the chemicals and Allied a full point, which helped to buoy the industrial average. Gains of more than a point in Alcoa, Anaconda, General Electric, International Paper, United Aircraft and Westinghouse also helped this average.

Copper stocks were generally strong despite labor problems. Some of the steels met support. Oils appeared easier on balance, as did the tires. Electronics, drugs and paper stocks leaned toward the upside.

Of the issues outside the group used in the averages, Universal Match was strong with a gain running to almost 4 points. Dana Corp. added 2 and American News moe than 2. Some of the aircrafts were in demand. Caterpillar Tractor was under pressure along with Goodrich, Continental Oil, Edison Brothers Stores, and Addressograph.

Of the 1,179 issues traded, 553 advanced, 395 declined and 231 held unchanged. New highs were hit by 26 issues and new lows by 9.

Specialties led prices irregularly higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Metals also featured.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) — Oats lagged, but other grains were mostly higher Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the final bell, wheat was off ¼ to up ⅜; corn up ⅜ to ¾; oats off ⅜; new oats off ⅛ to ⅜; rye off ¼ to up ⅛, and soybeans up ⅛ to ½.

The wheat market was quiet and mostly firm. An improved export business brought speculative buying to the market. Local traders and commission houses were buyers. No mill buying was reported, however.

Corn was firm. Most of the interest centered in the September contract. A spurt of local buying in that delivery followed a report that spot No. 2 yellow corn was selling at a 10-cent premium. Export houses were early buyers. Receipts were light. Export subsidies were granted on 1,270,000 bushels of corn and 113,600 bushels of oats.

Oats eased after a firm start. There was moderate liquidation of September, but trading was mostly slow. Commission houses bought deferred deliveries.

Rye closed steady at Chicago, but the Winnipeg market was easier.

In soybeans, buying resumed after a two-day period of active selling which had dropped prices more than 5½ cents a bushel. Some local longs were sellers. A good demand for September came from cash and commission house brokers.

Poland and Pakistan were reported to have bought wheat, and West Germany and Holland soybeans. The range:

Stocks Advance Through Another Dull Session

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks advanced Friday another dull session.

Non-ferrous metals and some of the chemicals provided the market leadership in this session. There were numerous gains of a point or more in the main list, with most of the strength appearing in issues outside the group used to compile the averages.

Sales in the week's final session dwindled to 1,990,000 shares, which was the least for any session since March 10, 1958. Sales Thursday came to 2,020,000 shares.

Lack of any concerted selling was an important contributing factor behind the market's rise. Brokers in the weeks ahead look for irregularity in stock prices with the possibility of some further downside tests.

Du Pont rose 2½ points in the chemicals and Allied a full point, which helped to buoy the industrial average. Gains of more than a point in Alcoa, Anaconda, General Electric, International Paper, United Aircraft and Westinghouse also helped this average.

Copper stocks were generally strong despite labor problems. Some of the steels met support. Oils appeared easier on balance, as did the tires. Electronics, drugs and paper stocks leaned toward the upside.

Of the issues outside the group used in the averages, Universal Match was strong with a gain running to almost 4 points. Dana Corp. added 2 and American News moe than 2. Some of the aircrafts were in demand. Caterpillar Tractor was under pressure along with Goodrich, Continental Oil, Edison Brothers Stores, and Addressograph.

Of the 1,179 issues traded, 553 advanced, 395 declined and 231 held unchanged. New highs were hit by 26 issues and new lows by 9.

Specialties led prices irregularly higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Metals also featured.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) — Oats lagged, but other grains were mostly higher Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the final bell, wheat was off ¼ to up ⅝; corn up ⅜ to ¾; oats off ⅜; new oats off ⅛ to ⅜; rye off ¼ to up ⅛, and soybeans up ⅛ to ½.

The wheat market was quiet and mostly firm. An improved export business brought speculative buying to the market. Local traders and commission houses were buyers. No mill buying was reported, however.

Corn was firm. Most of the interest centered in the September contract. A spurt of local buying in that delivery followed a report that spot No. 2 yellow corn was selling at a 10-cent premium. Export houses were early buyers. Receipts were light. Export subsidies were granted on 1,270,000 bushels of corn and 113,600 bushels of oats.

Oats eased after a firm start. There was moderate liquidation of September, but trading was mostly slow. Commission houses bought deferred deliveries.

Rye closed steady at Chicago, but the Winnipeg market was easier.

In soybeans, buying resumed after a two-day period of active selling which had dropped prices more than 5½ cents a bushel. Some local longs were sellers. A good demand for September came from cash and commission house brokers.

Poland and Pakistan were reported to have bought wheat, and West Germany and Holland soybeans. The range:

San Francisco took a thousand acres of barren wastelanc — "a dreary waste of shifting sand and hills where a blade of grass cannot be raised without four posts to support it and keep it from blowing away" — and made of it the famed Golden Gate park, one of the loveliest spots in the world.

Final Arguments On Fire Tax Aired In LaVale

Voting Planned Next Tuesday

A final round of arguments for and against the proposed LaVale area fire tax featured the third public meeting on the proposal last night at the LaVale Fire Hall.

Thirty-eight persons were counted in the group which gathered for last night's discussion of the tax, which would not exceed 10 cents on each $100 of assessable property. The referendum is scheduled from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Tuesday, August 18, at the LaVale Fire Hall. The Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors has figured that 2,298 persons are eligible to vote.

Concerning the fact that comparatively few LaVale residents give generously in the LaVale Volunteer Fire Department's annual fund drive, one citizen said he thought that this was a result of a misconception. Too many people base their contributions on the amount their neighbors give.

Prompt Response

A question from one citizen about the manner in which the election judges for next Tuesday's election were selected brought a prompt reply from Thomas L. Smith, president of the LaVale Volunteer Fire Department. He stated that he was selected along with the seven other judges by the County Board of Election Supervisors on the basis of their experience in working at the polls. He said he had been a poll worker for the past eight years.

A woman who had attended the two previous meetings to express opposition to the fire tax was back last night for a final argument. She reiterated her previous stand that the proposed tax was not equitable because it did not take into consideration the proximity to fire hydrants or the lack of city water in some residences.

That brought a response from another man in the audience that no tax is completely equitable. He said he has no children but pays school taxes just like all other taxpayers. He expressed a feeling that all taxpayers should be willing to pay for services for the common good.

On the matter of contributions under the present donation system, which the firemen plan to drop if the tax is approved, Paul Boch, department secretary, said that some of the most generous contributions came from Braddock and Vocke roads, farthest from the water supply.

No Manpower Cost

Cromwell C. Zembower, who presided at last night's meeting as he has at the two previous ones, emphasized that the manpower to operate the LaVale Volunteer Fire Department would still cost the public nothing if this tax is approved.

James H. Loar, the department chief, added his endorsement to the proposed fire tax. He pointed out that the department already this year has answered 54 alarms, the same number as were recorded for all 12 months of 1958.

Chief Loar said that some volunteers had responded to as many as 25 calls. He estimated that the cost to each individual volunteer fireman in gasoline, time donated and other contributions amounted to at least $20.

In summarizing the arguments for the fire tax, Mr. Zembower pointed out that it has been endorsed by the board of the LaVale Civic Improvement Association. He said that the volunteer department, as a result of its 26 years of fire fighting, has reduced fire insurance rates to Class C, the lowest any community can have without a paid fire department.

One of the most outspoken opponents of the proposal, a man living on Vocke Road, said he would not be opposed to the tax if every home owner in LaVale would be required to pay exactly the same amount.

Fort Hill Teacher May Meet Turkish Railroader

When Curtis O. Gilpin, the Fort Hill High School teacher, arrives in Turkey for a one-year teaching assignment, there is a good chance he may meet a Turkish railroader who was here in Cumberland for about three weeks nearly four years ago.

Glenn K. Davis, 515 Dreyer Avenue, recently received a letter from Gultekin Sabuncuoglu, the railroader who lives at Eskisehir, Turkey. The Turk was a house guest of Mr. Davis during his stay here while visiting the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad facilities.

Mr. Sabuncuoglu writes that he would be pleased to meet the Fort Hill teacher, who was the recipient of a U.S. education grant from the State Department to teach children in Samsun, Turkey. He explains that Eskisehir, where he has lived for three years, is rather far from Samsun.

However, his home town of Corum is next to Samsun. He expressed a hope that his father could get someone in Samsun to contact Mr. Gilpin. He does say that if the Fort Hill teacher takes the train from Istanbul to Samsun he will go through Eskisehir, and he would be happy to have him as his guest.

Meanwhile, Mr. Gilpin is leaving New York City today for his overseas assignment. He will travel aboard the Independence to Naples, where he will arrive August 25. From the Italian port he will take the S.S. Ankara to Istanbul.

Phone Company To Show Model Of Satellite

Among the many interesting exhibits which will be on display next week at the Cumberland Fair will be an exact replica of the Vanguard satellite which the U.S. Navy sent into orbit.

The model will be on display at the commercial exhibit of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company at the fairgrounds all next week.

The Signal Corps Engineering Laboratories at Fort Monmouth, N.J., and the Naval Research Laboratories, Washington, made possible construction of the Vanguard replica.

The dies used to stamp out the small windows in the original satellite were used in constructing the model for display purposes. The Bell Laboratories solar batteries also are exact replicas, except for their voltage output.

Since the display will be indoors at the Fair, the satellite will be powered by an artificial source of light, rather than the sun. Under this imitation sun, spectators will see the satellite revolve on its supporting rod.

As it turns, each solar battery on its surface is energized in succession, triggering the "beep-beep" signal that will be clearly audible.

The real satellite that went into space sends out a carrier frequency rather than the actual beeping. But the sound that will be produced by the model on display here is just like the results obtained when the real satellite's signal is impressed on a receiver-generated frequency for reception purposes.

New Shoe Store Holds Opening

Some 6,000 residents of the tri-state area attended the grand opening of the Super Shoes store at 15 North Centre Street yesterday.

About 23,000 pairs of shoes were on display in the self-service shoe store.

John T. Topper, 1504 Bedford Street, is manager of the store which will have a permanent sales staff of six or seven persons.

The store, which uses the self-service theme and merchandising methods of food super-markets, is located in the Flurshutz building, which has been remodeled for the new store.

Similar stores have been established by Super Shoe Stores, Inc., in Hagerstown, Martinsburg, Reading, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lewistown and Altoona.

Public Can Preserve Good Forest Fire Record

Western Maryland has enjoyed an excellent forest fire control record in recent years but the public should not become complacent about the situation, according to District Forester William H. Johnson.

Speaking at the weekly meeting of the Cumberland Kiwanis Club at Central YMCA, Mr. Johnson displayed charts which showed the downward trend in forest fires. In the 1926-30 period, forest fires in the four Western Maryland counties of Allegany, Garrett, Washington and Frederick burned over about 20,000 acres a year.

In recent years, only about 75 forest fires a year occur in the four counties and most of them do negligible damage.

The district forester told the Kiwanians that the United States now has about two-and-one-half billion board feet of saw timber. The annual growth is about 77 million board feet. The annual harvest for industry is about 52 million board feet. Consequently, there is need for forest fire safety to assure that the volume of saw timber is not depleted.

Another aspect to forest fires is the damage they cause to state parks and other recreation areas. A burned over area is not attractive to vacationists and the burning often contaminates nearby streams, killing the fish.

Pointing out that the state spends 14 cents an acre for forest fire protection, Mr. Johnson praised the volunteer fire departments of Western Maryland for their vigilance in fighting forest fires. He also commended the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, the Potomac Edison Company, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Western Maryland Railway for cooperation in fire suppression.

Gus Brickner Swims Down Yough River

19-Mile Trip Is Successful

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Gus Brickner, a striking steelworker from Charleroi, Pa., swam down the Youghiogheny River from Friendsville, Md., to the Confluence Dam in Pennsylvania Friday.

Brickner, known as "polar bear" because of his annual New Year's Day dip in the Monongahela River, dived into the river at 7:30 a.m. He arrived at the dam nine hours later.

The 47-year-old distance swimmer was in good shape and happy. His swim was a tune-up for an attempt later this year to cross the English Channel under his own power. He failed in an earlier channel attempt because of a leg cramp.

The river course which Brickner followed Friday never before has been attempted by a swimmer.

Confluence Dam is 22 miles east of Uniontown.

"I feel great," Gus told the crowd gathered at the point he left the water. "I don't even feel tired although I lost about eight pounds during the swim."

Brickner was accompanied by his attendants in a boat and three others carrying newspapermen, photographers and members of the organizations sponsoring his swim, the Charleroi and California, Pa., Moose lodges.

Brickner, who swam Deep Creek Lake a year ago, entered the Yough Lake at Selbysport near Friendsville and the air and the water were cool.

Brickner and his attendants hoped for cool water and temperatures as he does better in those conditions.

He has swum nearly 800 miles in training since March 1.

Damage Suit Asks $2,500 For Blasting

A $2,500 damage suit resulting from alleged damage to two residences on Potomac Heights in adjacent Ridgeley was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court against the E. J. Albrecht Company, which has an office at 304 North Mechanic Street.

The suit was filed for Grace C. Vandegrift of Ridgeley, for her own use and the use of the Queen Insurance Company, 150 Williams Street, New York City, by Attorney William H. Geppert of the Gunter and Geppert firm.

The declaration contends that both of the Vandegrift dwellings were damaged by blasting while the Albrecht firm was removing the abutments to the old Blue Bridge, which once connected Cumberland and Ridgeley across the Potomac River.

It was asserted that the blasting by the Albrecht firm jarred, cracked and broke the brick walls of the two Ridgeley residences, broke window panes, cracked concrete walks, cracked the foundation and damaged the plaster.

The insurance company appearing as equitable plaintiff in the suit paid the Ridgeley woman $975 for damage to her property. She held insurance with the Queen Insurance Company.

29th Units Will Begin Training

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Maryland-Virginia 29th Infantry Division of the National Guard will start two weeks of up-to-date camp training Saturday.

Some 6,000 of the guardsmen will drill at Indiantown Gap, Pa., while 2,000 others will engage in artillery firing at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

This will be the first year the division will train under the Defense Department's new pentomic organization. Under that plan, the division is broken down into five self-sustaining units.

The 29th is under the command of Maj. Gen. William Purnell, and the artillery men will train under Brig. Gen. John P. Cooper Jr.

Of the total, 5,200 of the guardsmen are from Maryland and 2,800 from Virginia.

The division's tank battalion, comprising units stationed in Cumberland, Hagerstown, Frostburg and Oakland, trained at Fort Knox, Ky., July 24 to August 9 and was commended for an outstanding job.

Harbell Ruling Is Expected Next Week

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—An attorney for a bookmaker argued Friday that some $17,700 police confiscated was the man's profits from a tavern—not his gambling take.

Thomas Berry of Cumberland, counsel for Larry Harbell, also said the language of the law that provided for seizure of the funds did not include bookmaking activity.

Attorney Jacob B. Berkson presented the case for Washington County, which seeks to keep the money. The hearing was before Chief Circuit Judge Morgan C. Harris of Cumberland who said he expected to hand down a decision next week. Judge D. K. McLaughlin of Hagerstown disqualified himself.

Harbell earlier pleaded guilty to a bookmaking charge. He contended only $1,300 of $19,000 seized was betting receipts. The remainder locked in his safe was his personal money and should be returned, he said.

Berkson Friday repeated the county's position that all the money taken in a raid represented Harbell's bookmaking business. The attorney told the court Harbell's unlawful activities were large and that he showed a $10,000 profit on them from January to June of this year.

It would be ridiculous to believe it would be backed up by only $1,300 taken from Harbell's person, Berkson added.

Police Issue 1,786 Bicycle Licenses

The Police Department did a brisk business in bicycle tags yesterday, the deadline set for issuing new licenses.

Sixty licenses were issued yesterday and 20 the day before for a total of 1,786.

Police Chief B. F. Gaffney said this is only four less tags than were sold all last year.

Fewer than 80 tags are left and the Police Department has ordered an additional supply.

The licenses will be issued as usual beginning Monday but police have been ordered to pick up any bicycles which do not display current tags.

Brinker's Run Found Free Of Health Hazard

Evidence Of Sewage Lacking, Dodge Says

A public health engineer has advised Mayor J. Edwin Keech that he found no evidence of sewage during a recent inspection of Brinker's Run here.

The statement was made in a report from Peter C. Dodge, a member of the staff of the State Health Department, who accompanied city and health department officials on an inspection tour of the Wempe Drive area August 6.

Mr. Dodge said the run is a small stream or open storm drain which starts near the intersection of Oldtown Road, Louisiana Avenue and Wempe Drive and flows southward for several blocks until it enters a culvert under the B & O yards which discharges into the C & O Canal.

The ditch, he reported, is about three feet wide at the bottom and varies from four to six feet in depth. It falls over 100 feet in approximately a mile and drains a considerable built-up area and during rains has a good flow which has caused considerable erosion of the banks and bottom.

Find No Evidence

He said he was informed that for several years the residents of the Wempe Drive area have complained about the drainage and have asked the City of Cumberland to enclose it.

He pointed out that City Engineer C. R. Nuzum has estimated it could be enclosed with a 48-inch pipe at a cost of approximately $90,000.

He said that although at one time sewage was in the drain, both Mr. Nuzum and J. B. Dowling, supervising sanitarian for the Allegany County Health Department, agreed there is none now.

"The writer could find no evidence of sewage," Dodge wrote Mayor Keech.

Mr. Dodge, noted that Franklin J. Blaney, sanitary engineer for the city, suggested the bottom could be graded to prevent ponding and some work could be done on the sides for considerably less than $90,000.

"The writer can see no health hazard involved in this matter," he concluded.

Seek City Action

The natural drainage ditch, most of it located on private property, has caused considerable dissension for some 14 years.

Early this month, a delegation appeared at a council meeting and asked what the city intended to do in the matter.

A spokesman for the Wempe Drive group said residents have been promised relief for 14 years but that nothing had been done.

The delegation was told easement papers would have to be secured from property owners on which the run is located before the city could take any additional steps.

371-Year-Old Log Will Be Shown At Local Fair

A piece of log cut from an oak tree which Assistant District Forester Harry Hartman estimates was 371 years old when cut down about a month ago will be on display at the 42d annual Cumberland Fair all next week.

To emphasize the age of the log, Mr. Hartman will place tags on the log marking significant events which have occurred in the past 371 years.

The log was cut off property owned by the Celanese Corporation of America, the assistant district forester said.

Montgomery County Police said Mr. Rees had just finished working on a pole and was climbing down when the accident occurred. They said the victim either brushed a wire on a transformer or slipped.

Police said the catch of Mr. Rees' safety belt was open when he fell.

Mr. Rees was born in Frostburg, and was a son of John D. and Frances (Glotfelty) Rees, who now reside at 11919 Center Hill Street, Silver Spring.

Wage Formula May Be Set By Council Today

Budget Session To Open At 9 A. M.

The Mayor and Council will meet today at 9 a.m. to work on the budget, and indications appeared good yesterday that a workable formula for wage increases for city workers was falling into place.

It appeared, however, that city officials had abandoned hope for adopting levy and appropriation ordinances at Monday's council meeting. August 25 is the deadline.

The Mayor and Council is expected today to work out the budget figures, including the distribution of about $90,000 tentatively set aside for overdue wage boosts for city employes.

May Decide Today

Officials said they hope to come up with a program today.

Then the package will be turned over to City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson, who will work out final details and present them to the Mayor and Council for consideration.

Just how the wage increase money will be allocated will be the principal issue at today's meeting.

City officials were busy all day at City Hall yesterday, trying to work out wage increases, job by job, in several departments.

It appeared that the final action will include across-the-board increases for some but not all classifications.

Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming, for instance, said he is strictly opposed to percentage increases.

He said he will recommend and urge across-the-board wage increases for all uniformed personnel in the Police and Fire departments.

He said he feels that with flat increases, the "little man" will benefit as much as anyone else.

The commissioner emphasized that he was speaking strictly for the Police and Fire department on the across-the-board stand.

Urges Wage Scale

Some progress may be made in spreading the fund according to a job classification system which provides incentives for ability, responsibility and service.

The Civil Service Commission early this week submitted its annual report which urged the adoption of a wage scale to implement the job classification system which is in use.

The recommendation has been made several times with no action, at least partly because there was no money available for wage adjustments.

The decisions made in the budget talks will not affect the tax rate, which could even go down a cent from $1.57.

The Mayor and Council is expected to levy as close as possible to the legal $1.25 tax limit for operating expenses. All but two mills were used last year of the allowable $1.25.

An increase of about $2,300,000 in the tax base to $79,000,000 will add to the funds available for operations and debt service this year.

Last year, the city levied about 34 cents for debt service costs totaling $343,975.75. The boost in the assessable base may boost debt service funds enough to drop the debt service levy slightly.

Rev. Chastain To Be Speaker

Rev. Louis P. Chastain, minister emeritus of Trinity Methodist Church, will be the guest speaker at the vesper services tomorrow at 5:30 p.m. at Constitution Park.

Rev. Pfeiffer will give the offertory prayer and lead the congregation in evening prayer, and Earl Bracey of McKendree Methodist Church will read the evening scripture.

pecial music for tomorrow's service will be provided by the women's chorus of Living Stone Church of the Brethren.

Rev. Louis L. Emerick, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, is chairman of the committee which arranges for the services, held for members of all the churches of the Cumberland area.

Final Arguments On Fire Tax Aired In LaVale

Voting Planned Next Tuesday

He stated that he was selected along with the seven other judges by the County Board of Election Supervisors on the basis of their experience in working at the polls. He said he had been a poll worker for the past eight years.

A woman who had attended the two previous meetings to express opposition to the fire tax was back last night for a final argument. She reiterated her previous stand that the proposed tax was not equitable because it did not take into consideration the proximity to fire hydrants or the lack of city water in some residences.

That brought a response from another man in the audience that no tax is completely equitable. He said he has no children but pays school taxes just like all other taxpayers. He expressed a feeling that all taxpayers should be willing to pay for services for the common good.

On the matter of contributions under the present donation system, which the firemen plan to drop if the tax is approved, Paul Boch, department secretary, said that some of the most generous contributions came from Braddock and Vocke roads, farthest from the water supply.

No Manpower Cost

Cromwell C. Zembower, who presided at last night's meeting as he has at the two previous ones, emphasized that the manpower to operate the LaVale Volunteer Fire Department would still cost the public nothing if this tax is approved.

James H. Loar, the department chief, added his endorsement to the proposed fire tax. He pointed out that the department already this year has answered 54 alarms, the same number as were recorded for all 12 months of 1958.

Chief Loar said that some volunteers had responded to as many as 25 calls. He estimated that the cost to each individual volunteer fireman in gasoline, time donated and other contributions amounted to at least $20.

In summarizing the arguments for the fire tax, Mr. Zembower pointed out that it has been endorsed by the board of the LaVale Civic Improvement Association. He said that the volunteer department, as a result of its 26 years of fire fighting, has reduced fire insurance rates to Class C, the lowest any community can have without a paid fire department.

One of the most outspoken opponents of the proposal, a man living on Vocke Road, said he would not be opposed to the tax if every home owner in LaVale would be required to pay exactly the same amount.

Fort Hill Teacher May Meet Turkish Railroader

When Curtis O. Gilpin, the Fort Hill High School teacher, arrives in Turkey for a one-year teaching assignment, there is a good chance he may meet a Turkish railroader who was here in Cumberland for about three weeks nearly four years ago.

Glenn K. Davis, 515 Dreyer Avenue, recently received a letter from Gultekin Sabuncuoglu, the railroader who lives at Eskisehir, Turkey. The Turk was a house guest of Mr. Davis during his stay here while visiting the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad facilities.

Mr. Sabuncuoglu writes that he would be pleased to meet the Fort Hill teacher, who was the recipient of a U.S. education grant from the State Department to teach children in Samsun, Turkey. He explains that Eskisehir, where he has lived for three years, is rather far from Samsun.

However, his home town of Corum is next to Samsun. He expressed a hope that his father could get someone in Samsun to contact Mr. Gilpin. He does say that if the Fort Hill teacher takes the train from Istanbul to Samsun he will go through Eskisehir, and he would be happy to have him as his guest.

Meanwhile, Mr. Gilpin is leaving New York City today for his overseas assignment. He will travel aboard the Independence to Naples, where he will arrive August 25. From the Italian port he will take the S.S. Ankara to Istanbul.

Phone Company To Show Model Of Satellite

Among the many interesting exhibits which will be on display next week at the Cumberland Fair will be an exact replica of the Vanguard satellite which the U.S. Navy sent into orbit.

The model will be on display at the commercial exhibit of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company at the fairgrounds all next week.

The Signal Corps Engineering Laboratories at Fort Monmouth, N.J., and the Naval Research Laboratories, Washington, made possible construction of the Vanguard replica.

The dies used to stamp out the small windows in the original satellite were used in constructing the model for display purposes. The Bell Laboratories solar batteries also are exact replicas, except for their voltage output.

Since the display will be indoors at the Fair, the satellite will be powered by an artificial source of light, rather than the sun. Under this imitation sun, spectators will see the satellite revolve on its supporting rod.

As it turns, each solar battery on its surface is energized in succession, triggering the "beep-beep" signal that will be clearly audible.

The real satellite that went into space sends out a carrier frequency rather than the actual beeping. But the sound that will be produced by the model on display here is just like the results obtained when the real satellite's signal is impressed on a receiver-generated frequency for reception purposes.

To Take Census

Questions designed to obtain information needed to estimate the future growth of the nation's population will be asked here next week by the U.S. Department of Commerce Bureau of the Census.

New Shoe Store Holds Opening

Some 6,000 residents of the tri-state area attended the grand opening of the Super Shoes store at 15 North Centre Street yesterday.

About 23,000 pairs of shoes were on display in the self-service shoe store.

John T. Topper, 1504 Bedford Street, is manager of the store which will have a permanent sales staff of six or seven persons.

The store, which uses the self-service theme and merchandising methods of food super-markets, is located in the Flurshutz building, which has been remodeled for the new store.

Similar stores have been established by Super Shoe Stores, Inc., in Hagerstown, Martinsburg, Reading, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lewistown and Altoona.

Public Can Preserve Good Forest Fire Record

Western Maryland has enjoyed an excellent forest fire control record in recent years but the public should not become complacent about the situation, according to District Forester William H. Johnson.

Speaking at the weekly meeting of the Cumberland Kiwanis Club at Central YMCA, Mr. Johnson displayed charts which showed the downward trend in forest fires. In the 1926-30 period, forest fires in the four Western Maryland counties of Allegany, Garrett, Washington and Frederick burned over about 20,000 acres a year.

In recent years, only about 75 forest fires a year occur in the four counties and most of them do negligible damage.

The district forester told the Kiwanians that the United States now has about two-and-one-half billion board feet of saw timber. The annual growth is about 77 million board feet. The annual harvest for industry is about 52 million board feet. Consequently, there is need for forest fire safety to assure that the volume of saw timber is not depleted.

Another aspect to forest fires is the damage they cause to state parks and other recreation areas. A burned over area is not attractive to vacationists and the burning often contaminates nearby streams, killing the fish.

Pointing out that the state spends 14 cents an acre for forest fire protection, Mr. Johnson praised the volunteer fire departments of Western Maryland for their vigilance in fighting forest fires. He also commended the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, the Potomac Edison Company, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Western Maryland Railway for cooperation in fire suppression.

Gus Brickner Swims Down Yough River

19-Mile Trip Is Successful

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Gus Brickner, a striking steelworker from Charleroi, Pa., swam down the Youghiogheny River from Friendsville, Md., to the Confluence Dam in Pennsylvania Friday.

Brickner, known as "polar bear" because of his annual New Year's Day dip in the Monongahela River, dived into the river at 7:30 a.m. He arrived at the dam nine hours later.

The 47-year-old distance swimmer was in good shape and happy. His swim was a tune-up for an attempt later this year to cross the English Channel under his own power. He failed in an earlier channel attempt because of a leg cramp.

The river course which Brickner followed Friday never before has been attempted by a swimmer.

Confluence Dam is 22 miles east of Uniontown.

"I feel great," Gus told the crowd gathered at the point he left the water. "I don't even feel tired although I lost about eight pounds during the swim."

Brickner was accompanied by his attendants in a boat and three others carrying newspapermen, photographers and members of the organizations sponsoring his swim, the Charleroi and California, Pa., Moose lodges.

Brickner, who swam Deep Creek Lake a year ago, entered the Yough Lake at Selbysport near Friendsville and the air and the water were cool.

Brickner and his attendants hoped for cool water and temperatures as he does better in those conditions.

He has swum nearly 800 miles in training since March 1.

Damage Suit Asks $2,500 For Blasting

A $2,500 damage suit resulting from alleged damage to two residences on Potomac Heights in adjacent Ridgeley was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court against the E. J. Albrecht Company, which has an office at 304 North Mechanic Street.

The suit was filed for Grace C. Vandegrift of Ridgeley, for her own use and the use of the Queen Insurance Company, 150 Williams Street, New York City, by Attorney William H. Geppert of the Gunter and Geppert firm.

The declaration contends that both of the Vandegrift dwellings were damaged by blasting while the Albrecht firm was removing the abutments to the old Blue Bridge, which once connected Cumberland and Ridgeley across the Potomac River.

It was asserted that the blasting by the Albrecht firm jarred, cracked and broke the brick walls of the two Ridgeley residences, broke window panes, cracked concrete walks, cracked the foundation and damaged the plaster.

The insurance company appearing as equitable plaintiff in the suit paid the Ridgeley woman $975 for damage to her property. She held insurance with the Queen Insurance Company.

29th Units Will Begin Training

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Maryland-Virginia 29th Infantry Division of the National Guard will start two weeks of up-to-date camp training Saturday.

Some 6,000 of the guardsmen will drill at Indiantown Gap, Pa., while 2,000 others will engage in artillery firing at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

This will be the first year the division will train under the Defense Department's new pentomic organization. Under that plan, the division is broken down into five self-sustaining units.

The 29th is under the command of Maj. Gen. William Purnell, and the artillery men will train under Brig. Gen. John P. Cooper Jr.

Of the total, 5,200 of the guardsmen are from Maryland and 2,800 from Virginia.

The division's tank battalion, comprising units stationed in Cumberland, Hagerstown, Frostburg and Oakland, trained at Fort Knox, Ky., July 24 to August 9 and was commended for an outstanding job.

Harbell Ruling Is Expected Next Week

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—An attorney for a bookmaker argued Friday that some $17,700 police confiscated was the man's profits from a tavern—not his gambling take.

Thomas Berry of Cumberland, counsel for Larry Harbell, also said the language of the law that provided for seizure of the funds did not include bookmaking activity.

Attorney Jacob B. Berkson presented the case for Washington County, which seeks to keep the money. The hearing was before Chief Circuit Judge Morgan C. Harris of Cumberland who said he expected to hand down a decision next week. Judge D. K. McLaughlin of Hagerstown disqualified himself.

Harbell earlier pleaded guilty to a bookmaking charge. He contended only $1,300 of $19,000 seized was betting receipts. The remainder locked in his safe was his personal money and should be returned, he said.

Berkson Friday repeated the county's position that all the money taken in a raid represented Harbell's bookmaking business. The attorney told the court Harbell's unlawful activities were large and that he showed a $10,000 profit on them from January to June of this year.

It would be ridiculous to believe it would be backed up by only $1,300 taken from Harbell's person, Berkson added.

Police Issue 1,786 Bicycle Licenses

The Police Department did a brisk business in bicycle tags yesterday, the deadline set for issuing new licenses.

Sixty licenses were issued yesterday and 20 the day before for a total of 1,786.

Police Chief B. F. Gaffney said this is only four less tags than were sold all last year.

Fewer than 80 tags are left and the Police Department has ordered an additional supply.

The licenses will be issued as usual beginning Monday but police have been ordered to pick up any bicycles which do not display current tags.

Brinker's Run Found Free Of Health Hazard

Evidence Of Sewage Lacking, Dodge Says

A public health engineer has advised Mayor J. Edwin Keech that he found no evidence of sewage during a recent inspection of Brinker's Run here.

The statement was made in a report from Peter C. Dodge, a member of the staff of the State Health Department, who accompanied city and health department officials on an inspection tour of the Wempe Drive area August 5.

Mr. Dodge said the run is a small stream or open storm drain which starts near the intersection of Oldtown Road, Louisiana Avenue and Wempe Drive and flows southward for several blocks until it enters a culvert under the B & O yards which discharges into the C & O Canal.

The ditch, he reported, is about three feet wide at the bottom and varies from four to six feet in depth. It falls over 100 feet in approximately a mile and drains a considerable built-up area and during rains has a good flow which has caused considerable erosion of the banks and bottom.

Find No Evidence

He said he was informed that for several years the residents of the Wempe Drive area have complained about the drainage and have asked the City of Cumberland to enclose it.

He pointed out that City Engineer C. R. Nuzum has estimated it could be enclosed with a 48-inch pipe at a cost of approximately $90,000.

He said that although at one time sewage was in the drain, both Mr. Nuzum and J. B. Dowling, supervising sanitarian for the Allegany County Health Department, agreed there is none now.

"The writer could find no evidence of sewage," Dodge wrote Mayor Keech.

Mr. Dodge, noted that Franklin J. Blaney, sanitary engineer for the city, suggested the bottom could be graded to prevent ponding and some work could be done on the sides for considerably less than $90,000.

"The writer can see no health hazard involved in this matter," he concluded.

Seek City Action

The natural drainage ditch, most of it located on private property, has caused considerable dissension for some 14 years.

Early this month, a delegation appeared at a council meeting and asked what the city intended to do in the matter.

A spokesman for the Wempe Drive group said residents have been promised relief for 14 years but that nothing had been done.

The delegation was told easement papers would have to be secured from property owners on which the run is located before the city could take any additional steps.

371-Year-Old Log Will Be Shown At Local Fair

A piece of log cut from an oak tree which Assistant District Forester Harry Hartman estimates was 371 years old when cut down about a month ago will be on display at the 42d annual Cumberland Fair all next week.

To emphasize the age of the log, Mr. Hartman will place tags on the log marking significant events which have occurred in the past 371 years.

The log was cut off property owned by the Celanese Corporation of America, the assistant district forester said.

Frostburg Native Fatally Hurt In Fall

A 26-year-old former resident of Frostburg was killed Wednesday when he fell 30 feet off a utility pole while working for the Potomac Electric Power Company in Bethesda.

The victim was John D. Rees, 12104 Grandview Avenue, Silver Spring.

Montgomery County Police said Mr. Rees had just finished working on a pole and was climbing down when the accident occurred. They said the victim either brushed a wire on a transformer or slipped.

Police said the catch of Mr. Rees' safety belt was open when he fell.

Mr. Rees was born in Frostburg, and was a son of John D. and Frances (Glotfelty) Rees, who now reside at 11919 Center Hill Street, Silver Spring.

Wage Formula May Be Set By Council Today

Budget Session To Open At 9 A. M.

The Mayor and Council will meet today at 9 a.m. to work on the budget, and indications appeared good yesterday that a workable formula for wage increases for city workers was falling into place.

It appeared, however, that city officials had abandoned hope for adopting levy and appropriation ordinances at Monday's council meeting. August 25 is the deadline.

The Mayor and Council is expected today to work out the budget figures, including the distribution of about $90,000 tentatively set aside for overdue wage boosts for city employes.

May Decide Today

Officials said they hope to come up with a program today.

Then the package will be turned over to City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson, who will work out final details and present them to the Mayor and Council for consideration.

Just how the wage increase money will be allocated will be the principal issue at today's meeting.

City officials were busy all day at City Hall yesterday, trying to work out wage increases, job by job, in several departments.

It appeared that the final action will include across-the-board increases for some but not all classifications.

Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming, for instance, said he is strictly opposed to percentage increases.

He said he will recommend and urge across-the-board wage increases for all uniformed personnel in the Police and Fire departments.

He said he feels that with flat increases, the "little man" will benefit as much as anyone else.

The commissioner emphasized that he was speaking strictly for the Police and Fire department on the across-the-board stand.

Urges Wage Scale

Some progress may be made in spreading the fund according to a job classification system which provides incentives for ability, responsibility and service.

The Civil Service Commission early this week submitted its annual report which urged the adoption of a wage scale to implement the job classification system which is in use.

The recommendation has been made several times with no action, at least partly because there was no money available for wage adjustments.

The decisions made in the budget talks will not affect the tax rate, which could even go down a cent from $1.57.

The Mayor and Council is expected to levy as close as possible to the legal $1.25 tax limit for operating expenses. All but two mills were used last year of the allowable $1.25.

An increase of about $2,300,000 in the tax base to $79,000,000 will add to the funds available for operations and debt service this year.

Last year, the city levied about 34 cents for debt service costs totaling $343,975.75. The boost in the assessable base may boost debt service funds enough to drop the debt service levy slightly.
